PRESS, RADIO, TV INFORMATION

The 1986 Nebraska Football Media Guide was written, compiled and edited by associate sports information director Tom Simons, assistant athletic director and sports information director Don Bryant, and assistant sports information director Chris Bouma.

All requests for press, radio, television and photography information or space in the Memorial Stadium press box should be directed to Don Bryant, 103 South Stadium Bldg., University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Nebraska 68588. Further information on the NU media services and policies is available on pages 2-4 of the Media Guide.

PRESS BOX CREDENTIALS & SERVICES

The University of Nebraska football press box is located on the west side of Memorial Stadium and features an outstanding view of the game, and complete services such as elevator, pre-game and post-game information, statistics, play-by-play, food and refreshments. Telephones may be installed at each seat for reporters desiring to file by phone, telecopier or video display terminal (VDT). Telecopier service is available. Writers wishing to utilize telecopier service should request it when they request credentials. The service will cost $35 per game, $25 (check payable to the University of Nebraska), and $10 (cash) to the operator.

When writing for credentials, please inform the NU Sports Information Office how you will file the game story.

As a general rule, working space in the Nebraska press box is allotted on the following basis: (1) daily newspaper writers covering for Sunday publication; (2) sports editors of Nebraska daily newspapers; (3) radio personnel for an originating broadcast; (4) official school daily, one seat and/or one sideline only; (5) approved special coverage; (6) press and TV working photographers. Weekly press representatives and non-broadcasting radio representatives cannot be accommodated in the press box because of space limitations. Free-lance and amateur photographers are not eligible for media credentials.

Visiting newsmen may get tickets at the South Stadium press will-call window. No credentials will be mailed during the week of the game. All special requests should be directed to Don Bryant, Sports Information Director, 103 South Stadium Bldg., University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Nebraska 68588. Phone: 402/472-5959.

Photographers must secure arm bands in the press box before games. Cutline writers or equipment carriers are not permitted on the sidelines, per Big Eight rules. Photographers and those with credentials other than press box seat assignments will not be admitted to the press box except for the pregame lunch or to acquire sideline armbands, and may not gather in the press box at halftime or during the second half.

PRESS TICKET WILL-CALL, ELEVATOR LOCATION

Press, radio and TV credentials will be left at the will-call window in the Memorial Stadium Office Building at the south end of the stadium.

Memorial Stadium press box elevators are located just south of West Stadium middle or main entrance. You must show your press box credentials in order to board the elevators.

If there is a ticket problem, ask the elevator ticket guard to phone Don Bryant, Tom Simons or Chris Bouma in the press box.

All persons with press credentials of any type should enter the gate marked "PRESS" on the west side. If it is necessary to leave and return, use the same gate and get stamped. No one will be admitted with a torn ticket only.

PRESS PARKING

Press parking is located at 10th and T Streets south of the South Memorial Stadium Office Building. No car will be admitted to the press lot after 12:15 p.m. because of traffic congestion. No cars will be admitted without a press parking pass.

BIG EIGHT SIDELINE CONTROL POLICIES FOR 1986

The Big Eight Conference maintains a strict sideline control policy in an effort to keep the playing area as clear of people as possible.

All Sideline photographers must have arm bands. Arm bands can be picked up in the press box prior to game time, providing photographers have made prior arrangements.

The 1986 Big Eight sideline control policy:

(1) Only those photographers on assignment, including student and freelance photographers, are given credentials. Each student publication shall be limited to one press and/or one sideline photo pass.

(2) Only those papers with Sunday and/or daily editions are eligible for sideline passes. (Special requests shall be submitted to the sports information director for his review but such requests, if honored, will be limited to one photo pass.)

(3) Cutline writers, equipment carriers, and/or other so-called "assistants" will not be allowed on the sideline.

(4) Photographers must display their credentials (credential and arm band) at all times. If not, they will be asked to leave the stadium.

(5) University personnel are to be deployed on the sidelines to insure that all credentials are properly displayed and to watch for any abuse of privileges by photographers. Those possessing coaches' sideline (bench) badges must remain inside the team bench area (between the 25-yard lines).

(6) Photographers may not enter the bench area (between the 25-yard lines) at any time.

(7) Photographers are not permitted to congregate in the writer's section of the Press Box during halftime.

PHOTO DAY

Nebraska's annual Photo Day will be held Wednesday, August 13, at 1 p.m. on the Memorial Stadium playing field.

The time schedule:

11:30 a.m.—Press Lunch (Stadium Lounge)

1:00 p.m.—Squad pictures and mug shots

1:45 p.m.—Individual pictures and interviews

The Cornhuskers will commence two-a-day practices on Aug. 14. Freshmen report on Aug. 8 and start practice on Aug. 9.

NEBRASKA LOCKER ROOM POLICY

The University of Nebraska post-game policies conform to NCAA and Big Eight Conference efforts to assist the news media in coverage of Cornhusker football.

In 1986, the following rules will apply (no change from 1985):

—Only coaches, players and staff members will be admitted to the tunnel and locker room after games.

—Coach Tom Osborne and Husker players will be available for interviews 10 minutes after they enter the locker room.

—No cameras—television or still—will be permitted in the dressing, shower and toilet areas. Post game pictures and TV interviews will be available in the First Floor Lounge of the South Stadium building.

—No members of the opposite sex are permitted in the dressing, shower and toilet areas of University of Nebraska locker rooms. News media members of the opposite sex will be admitted to all other areas of post-game activity, and players and coaches will be made available upon request.

—No children are permitted in the post-game interview areas and the locker room.

—Media admittance to the South Stadium Building interview areas will be by game credentials only. Media members may enter the post-game interview lounge through the door at the southeast corner of the stadium office building.

OSBORNE NEWS CONFERENCE

Each Tuesday during the season, beginning Sept. 2, Nebraska head coach Tom Osborne will have a news conference in the first-floor lounge in the South Stadium Office Building. Other than on the field after practice each day, the Tuesday news conference will be the only time during the week that Coach Osborne will be avialable to the media.

The news conference will begin at 12:15 p.m. (Central time) following a sandwich buffet lunch, which will be available at 11:30 a.m. The conference will end by 1 p.m.

Out-of-town media wishing to take part in the conference via telephone must make arrangements through the Sports Information Office (402-472-2263) by 3 p.m. on the Monday preceding the press conference (including Labor Day before the Florida State game). A limited number of lines is available and, in the event that demand exceeds supply, priority will be given to those who have requested credentials to that week's game.

The Prospectus

Additional Speed May Boost Nebraska's 1986 Cornhuskers Into High Gear

By DON BRYANT

Already boasting one of the nation's most successful, consistent and respected football programs, the Nebraska Cornhuskers are counting on added speed to keep them in the race for Big Eight and national honors in 1986.

"We expect to have more speed, both offensively and defensively, this year, and we hope that will help make us a better football team," Coach Tom Osborne says.

Osborne can also count on considerably more experience returning for 1986 than he had in 1985 when the Huskers turned in a commendable 9-3-0 record. Nebraska lost the opener to Florida State, won nine in a row, then dropped the last two to top-ranked Oklahoma and second-ranked Michigan, the latter in the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl.

Nebraska will have 12 players with starting credentials, plus a bevy of returnees with considerable playing time. Offensively, five starters return, plus kicker Dale Klein, while six defensive starters are on hand, plus All-Big Eight linebacker Marc Munford. Munford was heading for All-America honors until a knee injury sent him to the operating room last fall. He's expected to be ready for action come the season.

Speedwise, Osborne points to Doug DuBose, a two-time All-Big Eight and 1,000-yard rusher, Keith (End Zone) Jones and Jon Kelley at I-back for openers. The shift of Tyreese Knox to fullback puts a swift dimension there, with veteran Ken Kaelin providing power.

Split ends Robb Schnitzler and Rod Smith are also movers, and Jason Gamble returned in the spring after undergoing knee surgery in 1984. Gamble was off to a notable start as a freshman prior to his injury and, if he regains top form, the receiving corps will take on added sparkle.

Joining Schnitzler and DuBose as returning starters are right guard John McCormick and right tackle Tom Welter, so the offensive line has seasoned leaders. It also has some excellent back-up players moving to the front—left tackles Rob Maggard and Keven Lightner, left guards Stan Parker and Mike Hoefler and center Mark Cooper. Maggard, Parker and Cooper are two-year lettermen, while Ron Galois and Brad Johnson on the right side are lettered back-ups for McCormick and Welter. Offensive line experience could be a plus in Osborne's figuring.

Wingback is another position where speed will abound. Von Sheppard had a fine sophomore campaign as a receiver and kick-returner, while soph Dana Brinson is a speedster, with potential as a punt-returner.

Tom Banderas and Todd Millikan are lettered tight ends who make that a solid spot.

Quarterback appears to be an improved position, also, with sophomore Steve Taylor moving to the top in the spring. Clete Blakeman, a reserve letterman in 1985, and McCathorn Clayton, a starter last year, make this a solid and competitive position.

"Steve is the fastest quarterback we've had and he has the ability to become a very fine quarterback," Osborne says. "He's another reason we feel our offensive speed will be an asset this year."

Defensively, the Cornhuskers also have improved speed and considerable experience returning from a Black Shirt unit that held five of seven Big Eight opponents under 100 yards rushing and did not give up a fourth-quarter point in the last five regular season games plus the Fiesta Bowl game against Michigan.

Up front, middle guard Danny Noonan is the heir apparent to Tony Casillas' spot as the top candidate for the Outland and Lombardi awards. Two-year starter Chris Spachman at left tackle and junior letterman Lee Jones give the Huskers a veteran, swift, strong and tough middle. Middle guard Lawrence Pete and defensive tackle Neil Smith give the Huskers two-more fine linemen.

Defensive end was hard hit by graduation, but Brad Tyrer, Broderick Thomas, Tony Holloway and Jeff Jamrog all have lettered. Holloway had an impressive spring, as did Tyrer and Thomas.

Osborne points out that Marc Munford may be the key to the defense. If he can return anywhere near his pre-injury form, the linebacking crew could be among the best in the land. Kevin Parsons did an excellent job filling in for Munford and winning his third letter last fall, and Steve Forch has lettered twice in reserve action. LeRoy Etienne lettered as a freshman and has outstanding potential.

The Husker secondary has considerable experience and speed, too. Brian Davis looms as a top honors candidate at left cornerback, while Brian Washington and Bryan Siebler are both two-year lettermen and starters at monster and safety, respectively. Sophomore Charles Fryar—cousin of ex-Husker great, Irving Fryar—and letterman Cleo Miller will battle for the right cornerback spot, while letterman Jeff Tomjack is in the monster chase with Washington.

John Kroeker, a sophomore, and Craig Schnitzler are the top punting candidates, while Klein gives the Huskers a standout in the place-kicking department. He led Nebraska in scoring with 77 points in 1985, hitting 38 of 38 PAT's and 13 of 20 field goals, including seven of seven against Missouri to set an NCAA record.

Osborne is concerned about the 1986 schedule, which includes trips to Illinois and South Carolina following the opener with Florida State, which will have already played one game.

"It will be very important for us to play in mid-season form early," he says.

That may be possible to accomplish, thanks to more speed and experience, and both ingredients may help the Huskers continue as a tough, competitive football team with a shot at the top 10 for the 17th consecutive year.

COACH TOM OSBORNE SAYS:

OVERALL, "WE MAY BE IMPROVED": "We should have more team speed, both offensively and defensively, than we did in 1985. We also have 11 starters and several others who played as much as starters returning, so we will have more experience than a year ago. That many experienced people back is above average for us. Actually, our graduation losses were not all concentrated in one or two areas, which helps. Another plus is the fact we didn't suffer any serious, long-term injuries during spring practice, except a knee injury for John Nelson, who probably would not have been in the top three or four middle guards this fall. So we should go into fall camp in pretty good shape."

SCHEDULE, "BE READY EARLY": "We have an imposing schedule, opening up with Florida State after they will have already had a game under their belts. As we found out last year, that will not be an easy game. We will have to play in mid-season form and be well-prepared for a very tough game on Sept. 6. Playing at Illinois and at South Carolina will not be easy, either, so we are looking forward to an exciting and difficult pre-conference schedule."

OFFENSE, "GOOD DEAL OF SPEED": "We should have quite a bit of speed at I-back with Doug DuBose, Keith Jones and Jon Kelley, and Tyreese Knox gives us an added dimension at fullback. In Steve Taylor, we'll have our fastest quarterback ever, and both Von Sheppard and Dana Brinson have excellent speed at wingback. Robb Schnitzler and Rod Smith at split end have fine speed, and we are hopeful that Jason Gamble will continue to improve and help us like he did as a freshman."

DEFENSE, "MUNFORD MAY BE KEY": "We'll be able to run pretty well on defense, too. Defensive end was hit pretty hard by graduation, but we feel Tony Holloway, Brad Tyrer and Broderick Thomas all are fine players who will keep that position in good shape. The key will be the availability of Marc Munford, really an outstanding linebacker before his injury. He's on track and has a good chance to play, which would be a real boost."

KICKING, "OLD AND NEW": "We feel we have one of the outstanding placekickers in the nation with Dale Klein, who established an NCAA record with seven field goals against Missouri last year. He should give us leadership and stability, both on field goals and kickoffs. Craig Schnitzler also has experience and will help. Our punter will probably be a newcomer, sophomore John Kroeker. He indicated in the spring that he can become a fine punter and we expect him to help in that area."

BIG EIGHT SATELLITE FEED IN SECOND YEAR

For the second year, the Big Eight Conference in 1986 will transmit a weekly videotape highlight segment nationally via satellite. The weekly package will include game-action footage, as well as some player and coach interviews, from each Big Eight institution.

Each of the eight university segments will be three minutes in length, and the first feed, Sept. 2, will consiste of head-and-shoulder type mug still frames (including graphic ID's).

The segment, which is produced by the Nebraska Educational Telecommunications Commission of Lincoln is set for transmission thusly:

WHEN: Tuesdays, 3-3:30 p.m. Central time
DATES: Sept. 2-9-16-23-30, Oct. 7-14-21-28, Nov. 4-11-18
SATELLITE: Westar IV
TRANSPONDER: 10D
FREQUENCY: 4080 MhZ standard video with audio on 6.8 MhZ subcarrier
TROUBLE NUMBER: 402-472-2413 or 402-472-6869

HUSKERS JOIN ELITE "600 CLUB"

With its 41-3 win at Kansas State last Nov. 2, Nebraska became the sixth NCAA Division I-A school to win 600 football games. The other five schools in the elite "600 Club" are Michigan (665), Notre Dame (646), Texas (640), Alabama (615) and Penn State (604), which won its 600th game just one week before Nebraska with a victory over West Virginia at University Park.

Coach Tom Osborne's Huskers went on to win two more games in 1985 and Nebraska will go into 1986 with an all-time record of 602-268-40 for a .684 winning percentage over 96 seasons.

DOUG DuBOSE

I-BACK
Two-time
All-Big Eight

Senior . . . 22 . . . 5-11 . . . 190 . . . Uncasville, Conn. . . . 2L

After two outstanding All-Big Eight seasons, DuBose figures to be a strong candidate for post-season honors again in 1986. The first Husker to rush for over 1,000 yards as a sophomore and junior at NU, he ran for a Big Eight-leading 1,040 yards as a sophomore in 1984, then upped that total to 1,161 in 1985, despite missing all of the Oregon game and most of the New Mexico game because of a knee injury. Finished second in the Big Eight and ninth in the NCAA in rushing last year at 116.1 yards per game; also ranked second in the Big Eight and 11th nationally in all-purpose yards at 148.8. His rushing totals the last two years rank ninth and fifth, respectively, on the Nebraska single-season rushing chart, while his 2,205 career yards place him sixth on that ladder. He needs 610 yards to move up to No. 2 on the career chart, ahead of I.M. Hipp (see chart below), but would need an NCAA-record 2,576 to pass 1983 Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier's school record of 4,780. DuBose's injured knee required arthroscopic surgery on Feb. 24. He practiced only in a very limited fashion the first week of spring practice in early April, and came back full speed the second week, but he suffered a minor injury to the same knee in the second game-type scrimmage of the spring (April 12). The injury wasn't serious, but he was held out of the last two weeks of spring practice as a precautionary measure. Had 100-yard rushing days in seven of his nine complete regular-season games in 1985; was held under the century mark only by Kansas State (82) and Oklahoma (46). His career-best rushing day of 199 yards at Missouri last year was lost in the glow of place-kicker Dale Klein's NCAA-record-setting 7-of-7 field-goal kicking. His 29.1-yard average on nine kickoff returns would have easily led the Big Eight, but Nebraska's fine defense kept him from having the minimum number of returns (12 in his case) needed to qualify for the rankings. Shared Nebraska team lead in touchdowns (eight) with fullback Tom Rathman in 1985. A consensus All-Big Eight choice and the league's leading rusher in 1984, despite running as the Huskers' alternate I-back behind senior Jeff Smith, who also claimed all-conference honors. Doug was named to the Football News' sophomore All-America team. Began the 1984 season sharing the alternate spot with Paul Miles behind Smith and it was his turn to be No. 2 when Smith went down with a sprained ankle late in the first half at UCLA, Sept. 22. Responded with the first of his six regular-season 100-yard days, ripping the Bruins for 104 yards on eight carries, including a 64-yard fourth-quarter TD that sealed a 42-3 win (including bowls, he has 14 career 100-yard rushing performances). On the basis of that performance, he got the starting nod the following week at Syracuse when Smith couldn't play, and ended up carrying the whole load at I-back when Miles suffered a season-ending shoulder dislocation on his second carry of the game. Ran for a game-high 107 yards despite the top-ranked Huskers' loss to the Orangemen. Didn't start again that season, but shared playing time with Smith the rest of the way. He has turned in two fine bowl performances for the Huskers, rushing for 102 yards vs. Louisiana State in the 1985 Sugar Bowl and 99 vs. Michigan in the 1986 Sunkist Fiesta Bowl; caught one TD pass in each of those games, the only TD catches of his career. Has fine speed at 4.52 seconds in the 40, but that time is slower than the bests of his top two backups, Keith Jones (team-

DALE KLEIN

PLACE-KICKER
All-Big Eight
Academic All-Big Eight

Senior . . . 22 . . . 6-1 . . . 195 . . . Seward, Neb. . . 2L

After twice losing his job early in the 1985 season, Klein came back to have a record-setting year and earn All-Big Eight honors from the Associated Press. For the season, he kicked a Nebraska-record 13 field goals (in 20 attempts), made all 38 of his extra-point kicks, and led the Huskers in scoring with 77 points, but he'll always be best-remembered for one spectacular game. On a wet field at Columbia, Mo., Oct. 19, he became the first collegian ever to go seven-for-seven kicking field goals (four others had gone six-for-six). His seven FG's tied the NCAA record set by Mike Prindle of Western Michigan against Marshall in 1984, and his five three-pointers in the first half broke the NCAA record of four in a half held by four others. He added the PAT after Nebraska's only touchdown in the game to give him a Big Eight-record 22 points by kicking. The distances of Klein's FG's vs. the Tigers were 32, 22, 43, 44, 29, 43 and 43 yards. The week before, he had hit two 40-yard attempts at Oklahoma State (at that time the longest of his career), and the seven successful kicks at Mizzou gave him another Nebraska record, nine-straight field-goals made, with six of the kicks from at least 40 yards out. JOHN McCORMICK

RIGHT GUARD

Junior . . . 21 . . . 6-1 . . . 265 . . . Omaha, Neb. . . . 1L

A rare sophomore offensive line starter in 1985, McCormick helped power Nebraska to its fourth NCAA rushing title in the last six years as the Huskers averaged 374.3 yards per game on the ground. He returns in 1986 to again team with tackle Tom Welter to give NU an outstanding right side of the line. Recruited out of Omaha Gross High School in 1983, he started at right guard for that fall's 5-0 Husker freshman team, then redshirted in 1984. His strength and conditioning program figures include a 5.12-second timing in the 40, a 30.5-inch vertical jump and a 340-pound bench press. Parade All-American for Coach Stan Macaitis at Gross in 1982, he was also a two-time all-metro and all-state choice. Earned three prep letters each in football, track and wrestling. Second in the state at heavyweight as a junior (lost to NU's starting left guard, Stan Parker, in the final), third as a senior. National Honor Society member at Gross. Business administration major. Son of Tom and Nancy McCormick. Older brother, Kevin, was an offensive lineman at Nebraska. Born Jan. 28, 1965, at Fort Belvoir, Va.

74

LEFT GUARD

Senior . . . 22 . . . 6-5 . . . 270 . . . Bellevue, Neb. . . . 2L

The alternate right guard and a part-time starter behind John McCormick last year, Parker showed up for spring practice as a senior up 25 pounds from his playing weight of 1985. He switched to the left side in the spring to replace Brian Blankenship and he figures to be a full-time starter in 1986. One of the better all-around athletes on Nebraska's offensive line, the former tight end has run the 40 in 4.88 seconds. Recruited as a tight end in 1982, Parker was forced to miss his freshman year after suffering a knee injury in the Nebraska Shrine Game in August of that year. After a hardship season, he moved to offensive tackle in the spring of 1983, and was a non-lettered reserve with the varsity that fall. In the spring of 1984, he moved farther inside, to guard, and lettered as an alternate. An outstanding athlete at Bellevue East High School, Parker was a prep All-American in football for Coach Don James, threw the discus over 196 feet and won the 1982 state heavyweight wrestling championship by beating McCormick (then of Omaha Gross) in the final. Business administration major. Son of Willie and Ruby Parker. Born March 19, 1964, at Moses Lake, Wash.

ROBB SCHNITZLER

SPLIT END
Big Eight Punt Return Champion

Senior . . . 23 . . . 5-9 . . . 175 . . . Battle Creek, Neb. . . . 3L

Sure-handed receiver led the run-oriented Huskers in receiving last year with 16 catches for 382 yards and a pair of touchdowns. NU's fastest split end, Schnitzler (pronounced snitz-ler) used his 4.53-second 40-yard time to average 23.9 yards per reception, the second-high per-catch mark in the Big Eight. Also put that speed to good use in leading the conference (and ranking seventh nationally) in punt returns in 1985 with a 12.9 average on 16 returns. Caught at least one pass in eight of 11 regular season games as a junior, including each of the first seven. Equaled career high with four receptions in 34-24 win at Oklahoma State, including career-high 119 yards and 38-yard touchdown pass from McCathorn Clayton. Longest reception of season and career was 64-yarder from Clayton which carried to Illinois 16 in final minute of first half, setting up a Doug DuBose touchdown that started Husker run of 28 unanswered points as Nebraska pulled away from a 17-10 lead to a 52-25 win. Caught 9-yard scoring pass from Travis Turner vs. Illinois while younger brother Craig, a junior place-kicker for the Huskers, kicked seven PAT's and a field goal against the Illini as the two became the first brothers to score in the same game for Nebraska. Robb was an academic All-Big Eight selection last year for his 3.49 grade-point (of 4.0) in physical therapy. As a reserve split end in 1984, caught six passes for 144 yards, with four receptions for 83 yards in the regular-season finale vs. Oklahoma—including a 38-yard catch that carried to the Sooner 2-yard line and set up the Huskers' only touchdown in a 17-7 loss. That performance vs. OU and last year's game vs. Oklahoma State were the top receiving

VON SHEPPARD

WINGBACK

Junior . . . 21 . . . 5-10 . . . 185 . . . St. Paul, Minn. . . . 1L

One of Nebraska's most dangerous offensive weapons, Sheppard's combination of experience, speed and great athletic ability makes him a strong candidate for post-season honors in 1986. Sheppard had the highest rushing average in the Big Eight last year as he carried 21 times for 295 yards and a 14.0 average that was nearly double the next highest—7.5 by Husker fullback Tom Rathman. NU's fourth-leading rusher and second leading receiver (nine for 281 yards, two touchdowns) in 1985, despite being listed as the alternate wingback behind senior Roger Lindstrom. Huskers' leading rusher vs. Oklahoma, picked up 65 yards on two carries against nation's top defense. His best receiving day was a three-catch, 129-yard day vs. Kansas, including two TD's, one an 82-yard bomb from Travis Turner for Nebraska's longest pass play in 14 years. His totals in all-purpose yards (rushing, receiving, all returns) were 37 attempts for 655 yards, giving him an average gain of 17.7 yards every time he touched the ball as a sophomore. One of the Huskers' fastest players, he has a 4.50-second best in the 40. Plus, like Johnny Rodgers and Irving Fryar, two of his more illustrious predecessors at the position, he has excellent quickness and agility, making his straight-ahead speed all that much more dangerous. A 1983 recruit, he had an outstanding year for the Husker freshman

TOM WELTER

RIGHT TACKLE

Senior . . . 22 . . . 6-5 . . . 280 . . . Yankton, S.D. . . . 1L

After an excellent junior season in 1985, in which he helped lead Nebraska to its fourth NCAA rushing title in the last six years at 374.3 yards per game, Welter has established himself as one of the top offensive linemen around. He'll be a strong candidate for All-Big Eight and All-America honors in 1986. A 255-pound recruit in 1982 who bench-pressed 225 pounds and ran the 40 in 5.65 seconds, Welter has added 25 solid pounds of body weight while increasing his bench press to 365 pounds and lowering his 40 time to 5.26 seconds. Played tackle for the 5-0 Husker freshman team in 1982, redshirted in 1983 and was a non-lettered varsity squadman in 1984. All-state selection at offensive and defensive tackle for Coach Max Hawk at Yankton High School, where he also lettered twice each in wrestling and track. (Hawk, incidentally, was named national prep football coach-of-the-year for 1985 by the National High School Coaches Association). Welter is a business administration major. Son of Delvin and Sally Welter, he has four brothers and two sisters. Born Feb. 24, 1964, at Yankton.

SPLIT ENDS

JASON GAMBLE . . . 21 . . . 5-11 . . . 170 . . . Sophomore . . . Santa Barbara, Calif. . . . 1L 86

One of Nebraska's most dangerous receivers as a freshman in 1984, Gamble hopes to make a comeback this fall. He sat out the 1985 season while recovering from knee surgery performed Nov. 11, 1984, after he had injured the knee on an 11-yard end-around in the Huskers' 41-7 win at Kansas. Before the injury, he had caught seven passes for 138 yards and a pair of touchdowns, including NU's longest pass play of that season, a 64-yard touchdown from Travis Turner which capped the Huskers' 17-3 win over Oklahoma State. Also returned four kickoffs for a 23.8-yard average, while the ill-fated run at Kansas was his only rushing attempt. An exception, he did not play for the Husker freshman/junior varsity team. Did not attend school the fall after he graduated from Santa Barbara High School in 1983, but worked while waiting for a scholarship to open up. Enrolled at NU in the spring of 1984, then worked his way up the depth chart to the alternate spot as a freshman split end behind senior Scott Kimball. In high school, he was all-league and a prep All-America split end for Coach Lito Garcia, and lettered twice each in basketball and track. Son of Debra Jones, he has one brother and one sister. Born May 16, 1965, at Santa Barbara.

ROD SMITH . . . 21 . . . 6-2 . . . 195 . . . Junior . . . Thornton, Colo. . . . 1L 88

As the Huskers' alternate split end behind Robb Schnitzler last year, Smith was the team's third-leading receiver with eight catches for 121 yards, good for a 15.1-yard average. Had a string of six-straight games where he caught at least one pass, New Mexico through Kansas State. His top receiving games were against New Mexico (two for 35) and Oklahoma State (two for 23). Also caught one pass for eight yards vs. Michigan in the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl. A scholarship recruit in 1983, Smith started at split end for that fall's 5-0 freshman team, caught three passes for 30 yards, returned seven kickoffs for a 21.2-yard average and returned four punts 48 yards. With a 290-pound bench press, he is Nebraska's strongest split end. Missed half of his senior season at Thornton High School due to injury, but was all-state as a junior for Coach Harry McClusky when he led the state in kick returns—and returned four (two kickoffs, two punts) for touchdowns in one game. Also lettered in basketball, baseball and track in high school. Business administration major. Son of Donald and Jackie Smith. Born May 23, 1965, at Mountain View, Calif.

HENDLEY HAWKINS . . . 21 . . . 5-10 . . . 185 . . . Junior . . . Los Angeles, Calif. . . . 1L 82

Hawkins lettered as a redshirt sophomore a year ago when he caught two passes for 26 yards as a reserve behind Robb Schnitzler and Rod Smith. A 1983 recruit, Hawkins had been expected to be tried at defensive back at NU, but was an alternate quarterback for that fall's 5-0 Husker freshman team. Completed 10 of 29 passes for 88 yards, with one touchdown and two interceptions; rushed 22 times for 29 yards and a TD. Redshirted in 1984, then switched to split end in the spring of 1985. All-city as a quarterback and as a basketball player at Crenshaw High School, Hawkins was a three-time all-league pick in football and baseball. Hit .590 as a senior shortstop. Business administration major. Son of Lucy Hawkins. Born Jan. 3, 1965, at Los Angeles.

LEFT TACKLES

ROB MAGGARD . . . 22 . . . 6-3 . . . 265 . . . Senior . . . Olathe, Kan. . . . 2L 72

Huskers' alternate right tackle behind Tom Welter last year, Maggard switched to the left side last spring and will enter fall camp in August listed even with junior Keven Lightner. Maggard saw considerable playing time in 1985 and helped power the Huskers to their fourth NCAA rushing title in the last six years at 374.3 yards per game. Had arthroscopic knee surgery Jan. 25, 1986, but made it through spring practice in good shape and should have no problems this fall. A 1982 recruit, he played guard for the 5-0 Husker freshmen that fall, then was moved to tackle the following spring and redshirted in 1983. Bench presses 375 pounds, lifts 800 pounds on the hip sled. Lacks great speed at 5.49 second in the 40, but has lowered his time in the Husker agility run from 7.14 seconds in January 1983 to 5.77 in March 1986. All-state and all-metro Kansas City for Coach Gene Wier at Olathe High School (now Olathe North) where he was on the Principal's Honor Roll, a member of National Honor Society, student council president and captain of the football team. Also lettered three times in baseball and twice in basketball. Speech communications major. Son of William and Lillian Maggard. Born Jan. 22, 1964, at Topeka, Kan.

KEVEN LIGHTNER . . . 21 . . . 6-2 . . . 285 . . . Junior . . . Hastings, Neb. . . . 1L 57

Lightner was Nebraska's alternate left tackle last fall behind senior Tim Roth and, after a spring-long battle, will go into the start of practice in August listed even at the position with Rob Maggard, who moved over from the right side. Playing behind Roth last year, Lightner helped power the Huskers to 374.3 yards per game on the ground, good for a fourth NCAA rushing title in the last six years. Nebraska's fastest and strongest offensive lineman, Lightner has a 5.02-second timing in the 40, has lifted a team-record 1,000 pounds on the hip sled, and has bench-pressed 480 pounds, third in NU history only to current middle guards Lawrence Pete (500) and Danny Noonan (485). His 39.5-inch vertical jump is one of the best ever at Nebraska for any position. A 230-pound walkon in 1983 when his 40-yard time was 5.37 seconds, his bench press was 315 pounds and his vertical jump 31.5 inches, Lightner received a hardship year that fall when he sat out the season with a broken hand. Started at left guard for the 1984 junior varsity team, then switched to tackle in the spring of 1985. All-conference and honorable-mention all-state as a linebacker and offensive guard for Coach Paul Wilson at Adams Central High School where he lettered three times each in football and basketball and once in track. Physical education major. Son of Ken and Lynne Lightner, he has two brothers and one sister. One brother, Ken, lettered as a defensive tackle at Colorado in 1984. Keven was born July 4, 1965, at National City, Calif.

BOB SLEDGE . . . 20 . . . 6-2 . . . 265 . . . Sophomore . . . Omaha, Neb. 62

After a solid spring, Sledge will go into practice in August as the Huskers' No. 3 offensive left tackle behind Rob Maggard and Keven Lightner. Began spring practice at right guard, but switched to left tackle after the first two weeks. Recruited by the University of South Dakota in 1983, he was a non-lettered reserve for a 7-4 Coyote team that fall, then transferred to Nebraska and sat out the 1984 season. An all-state defensive tackle for Stan Macaitis at Omaha Gross High School in 1982, he was the team captain and leading tackler on a team that reached the state finals. Also lettered in track and was a state runnerup in wrestling. Business administration major. Son of Mrs. Doris L. Sledge. Born Dec. 29, 1965.

LEFT GUARDS

MIKE HOEFLER . . . 22 . . . 6-5 . . . 255 . . . Senior . . . Norfolk, Neb. . . . 2L 75

A valuable alternate behind Brian Blankenship last year, Hoefler figures to fill the same role behind Stan Parker in 1986. The two-year letterman helped power the Huskers to 374.3 yards per game on the ground last year, for a fourth NCAA rushing title in the last six seasons. One of the Huskers' fastest offensive linemen, he's been clocked at 4.88 seconds in the 40, and has a 395-pound bench press. Recruited out of Norfolk High School in 1982, he played center for the Huskers' 5-0 freshman team that fall, then redshirted in 1983 while shifting to guard. All-conference and second-team all-state as a defensive end and offensive tackle for Coach Hal Kuck at Norfolk, he also lettered twice each in basketball and track for the Panthers and was treasurer for the school's National Honor Society chapter. Son of Alta Hoefler, he has one brother and two sisters. Born Oct. 19, 1963, at Norfolk.

ANDY KEELER . . . 20 . . . 6-3 . . . 265 . . . Sophomore . . . Omaha, Neb. 65

Promising sophomore will enter practice in August listed third at left guard behind seniors Stan Parker and Mike Hoefler. A starter for the 4-1 Husker junior varsity team in 1984, he redshirted last year and should be ready to contribute to the varsity in 1986. Keeler has good size for a guard and has a solid 390-pound bench press, but figures to get stronger. A prep All-American and a consensus all-state pick for Coach Larry Jacobson at Omaha Burke High School in 1983, he was named lineman-of-the-year by the Stockyards 400 Club. A Blue Chip Top 100 recruit in 1984. Started at both offensive guard and defensive tackle for Burke. Andy is the younger brother of Mike Keeler, a starting defensive tackle and co-captain for the Huskers in 1983. Business administration major. The son of Maxine Keeler, he has three sisters in addition to brother Mike. Born Nov. 16, 1965, at Sioux Falls, S.D.

CENTERS

MARK COOPER . . . 22 . . . 6-2 . . . 250 . . . Senior . . . Lincoln, Neb. . . . 2L 54

Two-year letterman has done the Huskers' deep snapping on punts and place kicks the last two years while playing as a reserve in 1984 behind All-American Mark Traynowicz and Bill Lewis, and as an alternate in 1985 behind Lewis, who also claimed All-America honors. In 1986, Cooper, a 1982 walkon, is slated to be the starter at a position that has produced an All-American for Nebraska four of the last five years (including Dave Rimington in 1981 and 1982). He should be a more than capable replacement, and he'll continue to do the deep snapping. One of NU's quickest offensive linemen, his 40-yard best is 5.05 seconds. Started at center for the Huskers' 5-0 freshman team in 1982, then redshirted in 1983. Earned all-city and all-conference honors for Coach Lee Zentic (a Nebraska football letterman in 1957-58-59) at Lincoln East High School, where he was a teammate of Husker senior linebacker Steve Forch. Agricultural engineering major. Son of Lila Cooper. Born Dec. 27, 1963.

JOHN NICHOLS . . . 20 . . . 6-2 . . . 265 . . . Junior . . . Littleton, Colo. 63

One of the more pleasant developments for Nebraska in spring practice was the progress made by John Nichols at center. Nichols started the spring listed fourth at the position, but worked his way up to the No. 2 spot behind Mark Cooper, and that's where he'll be when practice resumes in August. Very strong, his 430-pound bench press is second on the offensive line only to tackle Keven Lightner's 480. A 1983 recruit, he started at center for that fall's 5-0 Husker freshman team, redshirted in 1984, then was a non-lettered reserve last season. All-metro Denver and all-state as a center and tackle for Coach Sherm Pruit at Columbine High School, where he also lettered three times in track and twice in wrestling. Hobby is skiing. Criminal justice major. Son of John and Carol Nichols, he has two sisters. Born Nov. 30, 1965, at Chicago, Ill.

JEFF SELLENTIN . . . 22 . . . 6-3 . . . 255 . . . Senior . . . West Point, Neb. . . . 1L 53

Sellentin (pronounced sell-en-tine) lettered as a reserve behind All-American Bill Lewis and Mark Cooper last year, and should press for more playing time as a senior. A 200-pound walkon in 1982, he started at offensive left guard for the 5-0 Husker freshman team that fall, redshirted in 1983 and switched to center in the fall of 1984. He's added 55 solid pounds since his freshman year while increasing his bench press from 255 to 355 pounds, lowering his 40-yard time from 5.28 to 5.14 seconds, and lowering his time in the Husker agility run to 5.63 seconds—the latter figure the best on NU's first three offensive lines. Two-time all-conference at offensive and defensive tackle for Coach Rusty Ruppert at West Point High School, he also lettered twice in basketball, four times in track, and played on the Class B Junior Legion state baseball championship team. West Point's homecoming king in 1981. Pre-architecture major. Son of Ed and Carol Sellentin, he has one brother and one sister. Born Oct. 31, 1963, at West Point.

RIGHT GUARDS

RON GALOIS . . . 23 . . . 6-2 . . . 275 . . . Senior . . . Lincoln, Neb. . . . 1L 67

Galois lettered as a reserve at left guard in 1985, then switched sides last spring and is slated to be the alternate right guard behind John McCormick this fall. A 1982 walkon out of Lincoln High School, Galois (pronounced gah-LOYSE) came on to earn a starting job as a 220-pound right guard for that fall's 5-0 Husker freshman team. Redshirted in 1983 and was a non-lettered squadman in 1984. He has run the 40 as fast as 5.11 seconds and has a bench-press best of 365 pounds. Three-year letterman as a tight end and linebacker for Coach Harold Simpson at Lincoln High. Natural resources major. Married to the former Sandra Scheerger, also of Lincoln. Son of Ronald Sr. and Virginia Galois. Born July 4, 1963, in Lincoln.

DAN BAILEY . . . 21 . . . 6-2 . . . 260 . . . Junior . . . Gibbon, Neb. 68

A 1983 walkon, Bailey had a fine spring and, when practice resumes in August, he will be listed third at right guard behind returning starter John McCormick and senior letterman Ron Galois. Bailey started at guard for the 5-0 Husker freshman team in 1983, redshirted in 1984 and was a non-lettered varsity reserve last year. Two-time all-state performer for Coach John Wibbles at Gibbon High School, where he also lettered in basketball and track. Exercise physiology major. Son of George and Mavis Bailey, he has two sisters. Born July 18, 1965, at Kearney, Neb.

RIGHT TACKLES

BRAD JOHNSON . . . 22 . . . 6-3 . . . 265 . . . Senior . . . Ralston, Neb. . . . 1L 64

Johnson lettered as a reserve right guard in 1985, then moved to right tackle last spring and is scheduled to back up returning starter Tom Welter this fall. Recruited out of Ralston High School in suburban Omaha in 1982, he started at right tackle for that season's 5-0 Husker freshman team, then redshirted in 1983 and was a non-lettered varsity squadman in 1984. Has bests of 5.20 seconds in the 40 and 350 pounds in the bench press. All-state gridder for Coach John Osborne at Ralston, where he also lettered in track and had a part in the play "Then and Now," which was judged second in the state drama contest. Natural resources major. Son of Dwight and Karen Johnson, he has one brother and three sisters. No relation to the Brad Johnson who lettered at center for Nebraska in 1980-81-82. Born Jan. 2, 1964, at Omaha, Neb.

BILL HUDSON . . . 21 . . . 6-3 . . . 265 . . . Junior . . . Belvidere, Neb. 70

A 1983 walkon, Hudson had a solid spring and, when practice resumes in August, he'll be listed third at right tackle behind returning starter Tom Welter and Brad Johnson. Hudson was the alternate right tackle behind Stan Parker on the Huskers' 5-0 freshman team in 1983, redshirted in 1984, and was a non-lettered squadman last season. Good strength, he bench presses 385 pounds. All-state and all-conference as an offensive and defensive tackle for Coach Les Hill at Hebron, Neb., High School, where he also lettered in basketball and track. He qualified for the state meet in the shot put and discus. Physical education major. Son of Linda and Jim Hudson, he has one older sister. Full name is Corey Bill Hudson. Born Dec. 2, 1964, at Hebron.

TIGHT ENDS

TOM BANDERAS . . . 21 . . . 6-3 . . . 240 . . . Junior . . . Oak Grove, Mo. . . . 1L 87

The heir-apparent at tight end, Banderas is slated to move into the starting job at the position, replacing the graduated Todd Frain. A fine blocker and receiver, Banderas caught just two passes for the run-oriented Huskers in 1985, but both went for touchdowns—a 14-yard score from Travis Turner vs. New Mexico and a 12-yarder from McCathorn Clayton against Iowa State. A 1983 recruit, he started at tight end for that fall's 5-0 Husker freshman team, catching two passes for 21 yards, then redshirted in 1984. The Huskers' strongest receiver (365-pound bench press), he has a 40-yard best of 4.93 seconds. All-state, all-metro and three-time all-conference pick for Coach Wayne McGinnis at Oak Grove High School, where he was a tight end, defensive lineman and place-kicker. Excellent all-around athlete, he was all-conference three times in basketball and was one of Missouri's best in the shot put and discus. Business management major. Son of Daniel Banderas Jr., he has one brother. Born June 6, 1965, at Kansas City, Mo.

TODD MILLIKAN . . . 20 . . . 6-3 . . . 230 . . . Sophomore . . . Shenandoah, Iowa . . . 1L 43

Millikan switched from linebacker to tight end in August 1985 and went on to earn a letter as the Huskers' No. 3 player at the position behind Todd Frain and Tom Banderas. He comes off a good spring and is expected to be the alternate this fall behind Banderas. Recruited as a linebacker in 1984, Millikan received a hardship year for that season after he dislocated his shoulder vs. Coffeyville (Kan.) Junior College in the third game of the freshman season. The fastest of the Huskers' top tight ends, he has run the 40 in 4.93 seconds. All-state as both a linebacker and punter as a senior at Shenandoah Community High School, where he played for Coaches Don Stange and Terry Ratliff. All-conference in baseball as a pitcher, he also qualified for the state track meet in the 400-meter hurdles. Earned a total of 14 letters in high school (three each in football and basketball, four each in track and baseball). Son of Jack and Marilyn Millikan, he has one brother and one sister. Born Jan. 24, 1966, at Shenandoah.

MARK DIAZ . . . 22 . . . 6-2 . . . 220 . . . Senior . . . Lincoln, Neb. . . . 1L 81

Diaz had a solid spring and will be listed third behind Tom Banderas and Todd Millikan at tight end when practice resumes in August. Capped spring practice by catching two passes for 38 yards, including a 29-yard touchdown from Jerry Mlinar, in the Red-White game. Diaz (pronounced DEE-az) enrolled at Missouri Western State in 1982 with the intention of playing basketball for the Griffons, but transferred to Nebraska after one semester in order to walk on with the Husker football team. Sat out the 1983 season, then was a non-lettered varsity reserve in 1984 before earning a monogram last year. Diaz was a two-sport start at Lincoln Northeast High School, playing quarterback and safety for Coach Bob Els' Rocket football team and was an all-state guard in 1982 for Coach Ed Johnson's 23-1 state championship basketball team which beat Omaha Benson, featuring former Husker great Dave Hoppen, in the semifinals, and Omaha Northwest, featuring former Kansas star Ron Kellogg, in the finals. Therapeutic recreation major in Teachers College. Son of Richard and Monette Diaz, he has one brother and two sisters. Born May 21, 1964, in Lincoln.

QUARTERBACKS

STEVE TAYLOR . . . 19 . . . 5-11 . . . 195 . . . Sophomore . . . Spring Valley, Calif. . . . 1L 9

After a strong finish in 1985 and a fine spring, in which he moved ahead of returning starter McCathorn Clayton, Taylor goes into his sophomore season at Nebraska listed No. 1 at quarterback. He's the first sophomore quarterback in Tom Osborne's 14 years at the Husker helm to come out of spring practice at the top of the depth chart. The youngster had four outstanding performances in four starts for last fall's 5-0 Husker freshman team, then moved up to the varsity. Had a solid performance in difficult circumstances late in NU's 27-7 loss at eventual national champion Oklahoma, then almost pulled off a miracle in the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl vs. Michigan. Taylor entered the Michigan game after fumbles, a blocked punt and pass interference penalties had turned a 14-3 halftime lead for Nebraska into a 27-14 deficit. Clayton completed a third-down pass to get the Huskers out of the shadow of their own goal early in the fourth quarter, then Taylor came in, ran for 25 yards on his first carry, and moved NU 67 yards to the Wolverine 14 before the drive failed on downs. On the Huskers' next possession, he was more successful, as he directed a 12-play, 77-yard scoring drive, and picked up the touchdown himself on a 1-yard sneak. Unfortunately, the two drives ate up more than 10 minutes of the fourth quarter, and, after Michigan conceded a safety, his desperation pass in the final minute was intercepted in the end zone. He was the Huskers' second-leading rusher in the game with 76 yards on 10 carries, all in the fourth quarter. In his four games with the freshmen, he completed 19 of 32 passes (59.4 percent) for 425 yards, with five touchdowns and two interceptions; he rushed 24 times for 218 yards and seven TD's. He later appeared in five varsity games, plus the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl. With a 4.61-second timing in the 40, Taylor is the Huskers' fastest quarterback, but by just a fraction of a step over Clayton (4.64). Record-breaking quarterback for Coach Ray Hooper at San Diego Lincoln High School, Taylor turned down offers from Washington, California, Colorado and Minnesota to follow his idol, former Husker quarterback Turner Gill, to Nebraska. Taylor broke Heisman Trophy winner Marcus Allen's San Diego Lincoln total offense record by piling up 3,211 yards. Also broke Allen's school record for average per carry at 11.2, and shattered the passing accuracy record of Allen's brother, Damon, by connecting on 59 percent of his attempts. Earned second-team All-CIF honors after his senior season, and had his high school jersey number (3) retired. Also lettered in basketball and baseball. Son of Dulcena Taylor. Born Jan. 7, 1967, at Fresno, Calif.

CLETE BLAKEMAN . . . 22 . . . 6-1 . . . 190 . . . Junior . . . Norfolk, Neb. . . . 1L 12

Possibly the best passer in Nebraska's quarterback corps, Blakeman used that prowess to move up to the No. 2 spot in spring practice, behind sophomore Steve Taylor and ahead of returning starter McCathorn Clayton. His passing ability was evident in last spring's Red-White Game when he completed four of five for 34 yards and a touchdown. The Huskers' third quarterback most of last year, first behind Clayton and Travis Turner, then behind Clayton and Taylor after Turner had knee surgery. Connected on three of his five passes for 22 yards, with no interceptions and no touchdowns, rushed 15 times for 65 yards. A 1983 recruit, he missed his freshman season after suffering a severe back bruise in a pre-season scrimmage. Received a hardship year for 1983, then was a non-lettered varsity reserve in 1984. Honorable-mention All-American and an all-state pick for Coach Hal Kuck at Norfolk High School, where he completed 88 of 151 passes (58 percent) for 1,137 yards and seven touchdowns as a senior. Three-sport all-conference athlete, lettered three times each in basketball and track, twice in football. Son of Glen and Marlene Blakeman, has one brother. Father is golf pro at Papillion, Neb. Clete was born June 23, 1964, at Blair, Neb.

BLAKEMAN'S CAREER STATISTICS

Rushing: 8 for 17 yards, 1 TD, in 1984; 15 for 65 yards in 1985; 23 for 82 yards, 1 TD, total.
Passing: 3 of 5 for 22 yards in 1985.

McCATHORN CLAYTON . . . 22 . . . 6-0 . . . 190 . . . Junior . . . Orlando, Fla. . . . 1L 7

Clayton was bothered by back spasms during much of last spring, missed practice time, and slipped behind sophomore Steve Taylor and junior Clete Blakeman on the post-spring depth chart, but could still be a candidate to reclaim the starting job he held in 10 of the Huskers' 12 games last year. (Clayton and Taylor had entered spring practice listed even after the latter's fine fourth-quarter performance against Michigan in the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl). Came in for senior Travis Turner after the Huskers had fallen behind Florida State in last year's opener and rushed for a career-high 97 yards on nine carries, but couldn't bring NU back in a 17-13 loss to his home-state Seminoles. Went on to have fine performances in NU's 52-25 win over Illinois and the 34-24 win at Oklahoma State. Against the Illini, he ran for 69 yards on 17 carries and hit split end Robb Schnitzler with a 64-yard pass late in the first half to set up the first of four-straight Husker touchdowns that enabled Nebraska to break open a 17-10 game. His top career passing game came in the win at previously-unbeaten OSU when he completed eight of 16 for 161 yards, including a 38-yard TD to Schnitzler. Also ran for two scores vs. the Cowboys. Clayton stumbled somewhat after the Oklahoma State game and Turner came back to start against Kansas State, but "Mac" started the last three regular-season games, plus the bowl game. Against Michigan, he rushed for 68 yards and completed four of six passes for 51 yards, including a 5-yard touchdown to Doug DuBose. Like Taylor, he's very athletic. His 4.64-second timing in the 40 is a fraction of a step behind Taylor's 4.61. With a 340-pound bench press, Clayton is Nebraska's strongest quarterback. Also has a 34.5-inch vertical jump. Shared the quarterback job on the Huskers' 5-0 freshman team in 1983 with Jeff Taylor and Hendley Hawkins. Completed five of 18 passes for 51 yards, rushed 24 times for 160 yards and a team-leading five TD's. An all-state selection as a junior for Coach Reggie Beverly at Orlando Jones High School, he missed half his senior year due to injury. As a junior, passed for over 1,200 yards and rushed for another 500. One of his prep teammates was Gene Chealey, a reserve defensive back for the Huskers. Clayton was also a standout sprinter in high school. Once had a summer job at Disney World. Speech communications major. Born May 24, 1964, at Winter Park, Fla.

FULLBACKS

KEN KAELIN . . . 22 . . . 5-10 . . . 225 . . . Senior . . . Westerville, Neb. . . . 2L 49

After spending his junior year as the Huskers' alternate fullback behind Tom Rathman, Kaelin (pronounced kay-lin) will go into 1986 as the probable starter. As Rathman's backup last season, Kaelin played in all 11 regular-season games, carrying 17 times for 137 yards (an 8.1 average) and two touchdowns. More than half of his yards came on one carry against Kansas when he rambled 72 yards from the Husker 1-yard line to the Jayhawk 37, one yard short of the Nebraska record for longest non-scoring run. His TD's came on a 3-yard run vs. Oregon and a 14-yard run vs. New Mexico. A 1982 walkon, he carried 13 times for 44 yards for that fall's 5-0 Husker freshman team. He redshirted in 1983, then saw enough time to letter with the varsity in 1984, carrying six times for 20 yards. A product of eight-man football, Kaelin was a three-year all-state selection as an I-back, defensive back and linebacker for Coach Dan Moore at Ansley High School, where he also lettered three times in track, twice in basketball, once in wrestling. Recreation management major. Son of Karl and Doris Kaelin, he has two sisters. Born Nov. 28, 1963, at Broken Bow, Neb.

TYREESE KNOX . . . 21 . . . 5-10 . . . 215 . . . Sophomore . . . Daly City, Calif. 34

One of the Huskers' more successful experiments last spring was the switch of Tyreese Knox from I-back to fullback. Knox started at I-back for last year's 5-0 Husker freshman team, and led the Husker yearlings in rushing with 483 yards and five touchdowns on 55 carries, averaging 8.8 yards per carry. Rushed four times for 21 yards in two varsity game appearances. After volunteering for the position switch, he progressed quickly in the spring and will be listed as the alternate behind two-year letterman Ken Kaelin when practice resumes in August. The Huskers' fastest fullback—and one of the team's fastest players overall—he has been timed in 4.50 seconds in the 40. He also bench presses 325 pounds and has a 35-inch vertical jump. A highly-recruited runner out of Jefferson High School in Daly City, Knox redshirted in his first year at Nebraska in 1984. In his career for Coach Ron Fassler at Jefferson, Knox rushed for 5,214 yards (breaking the California prep rushing record held by former Los Angeles Rams star Dick Bass) and scored 78 touchdowns. He ran for 1,994 yards and scored 30 TD's as a senior prep All-American, despite missing two full games and half of a third because of injury. A three-year starter in basketball, he once grabbed 28 rebounds in a game. Ran a 9.9-second 100-yard dash as a high school freshman, but didn't compete in track after that. Son of George and Joan Knox. Born July 3, 1965, at San Francisco, Calif.

MICAH HEIBEL . . . 21 . . . 6-2 . . . 220 . . . Junior . . . Lincoln, Neb. 48

Heibel (rhymes with bible) is slated to be the Huskers' No. 3 fullback behind senior Ken Kaelin and sophomore Tyreese Knox, but could challenge for more playing time in 1986. Appeared in four games last year, carrying twice for five yards. Recruited as a linebacker in 1983, he was switched to fullback when he arrived on campus, started there for the 5-0 Husker freshman team that fall, and ran for 123 yards and two touchdowns on 17 attempts. Parade All-American, all-state and Nebraska defensive player-of-the-year as a senior at Lincoln Pius X High School, where he played for the late Coach Vince Aldrich. Also lettered three times in basketball, twice in track and once in baseball for the Thunderbolts. Played the trombone in Pius X's concert and jazz bands; still plays and sings with local groups. Mathematics major in Teachers College. Son of Daniel and Marjorie Heibel, he has two brothers. Born Sept. 1, 1965, at Clay Center, Kan.

HUSKER FACT

Nebraska has had at least one touchdown run of 78 yards or more in each of the last eight seasons.

DAN CASTERLINE . . . 22 . . . 5-11 . . . 225 . . . Senior . . . Evergreen, Colo. . . . 2L 24

Two-year letterman will enter practice in August as a reserve fullback, but should press for playing time if he can avoid the hamstring pulls that plagued him all last year. Earned a monogram in 1985 as a special teams player and as a reserve fullback. He carried eight times for 29 yards, including a 4-yard touchdown run vs. Oregon. A 1982 recruit, he started at monster on defense for the Huskers' 5-0 freshman team that fall, recording 12 tackles, seven unassisted, broke up two passes. Shared squad lead in interceptions with two, which he returned 52 yards, including a 52-yard TD return vs. Nebraska–Omaha. Lettered at monster for the 1983 varsity, recording 11 tackles, including a 7-yard quarterback sack. Picked up a blocked punt vs. Kansas and ran 21 yards for a TD. Switched to fullback in the spring of 1984 and redshirted that fall. One of team's top performers in weight room, he bench presses 425 pounds. Has a 4.77-second 40-yard time. Two-time all-state pick and an honorable-mention All-American as a fullback and linebacker for Coach Bob Beaty at Evergreen High School. Physical education major. Son of Paul and Joanne Casterline, he has one sister. Born Jan. 9, 1964, at Denver, Colo.

I-BACKS

KEITH JONES . . . 20 . . . 5-10 . . . 190 . . . Junior . . . Omaha, Neb. . . . 2L 6

Nebraska's fastest-ever football player, Jones turned in a team-record 4.33-second 40-yard time last year. Nicknamed "End Zone Jones," Keith goes into his junior year sharing the Huskers' alternate I-back spot with Jon Kelley, behind two-time All-Big Eight senior Doug DuBose. He's not the only Jones to figure prominently in Nebraska's plans for 1986 as his older brother, Lee, is listed No. 1 at defensive right tackle. Jones ran for 240 yards on 38 carries in 1985 to rank sixth on the team, but more than half of those yards (138) came in late-season games vs. Iowa State and Kansas, including a career-high 84 vs. the Jayhawks. Also against KU, he raced 98 yards to score on a kickoff return, Nebraska's first kickoff-return touchdown in four years. Keith missed nearly all of spring practice after he injured a knee while lifting weights during the first week of spring drills. Had arthroscopic surgery, April 12, and should be full speed when practice resumes in August. A 1984 recruit, he played in only two games for the Husker junior varsity team before moving up to the varsity when Miles went down with a dislocated shoulder, but still wound up as the jayvees' second-leading rusher with 240 yards and four touchdowns on 31 carries. In six games with the varsity, he picked up a pair of touchdowns and 186 yards on 29 attempts. With his speed, he's a valuable part-time performer for the Husker track team and won the 1985 Big Eight indoor 60-yard dash title with a 6.23-second clocking, then helped the 400-meter relay team to third place in the conference outdoor meet. One of the best of a number of outstanding players turned out by Omaha Central Coach William Reed in recent years. As a senior for the Eagles, he ran for 1,710 yards and 18 touchdowns, breaking records set 23 years earlier by Gale Sayers. His prep bests were 235 yards vs. state champion Omaha Creighton Prep and 216 yards against runnerup Omaha Gross. Son of Vernita Jones, he has two brothers and four sisters. Born Feb. 5, 1966, at Omaha.

JON KELLEY . . . 21 . . . 6-1 . . . 205 . . . Junior . . . Lincoln, Neb. . . . 1L 40

With two-time All-Big Eight senior Doug DuBose and junior Keith Jones missing nearly all of spring practice because of injuries, Kelley was the Huskers' No. 1 I-back most of last spring, and he'll begin practice in August listed even with Jones in the alternate spot behind DuBose. He was the leading rusher in the spring game, picking up 91 yards on 10 carries, and could make some valuable contributions this fall. Lettered as a reserve I-back last year, picking up 93 yards on 22 carries, including a 1-yard touchdown vs. Kansas State. Also returned three kickoffs 72 yards. One of Nebraska's fastest players, he has run the 40 in 4.45 seconds, and his 345-pound bench press is the best for a Husker I-back. A 1983 recruit, he redshirted that fall then rushed for 132 yards and three touchdowns for the 1984 junior varsity team. All-state, All-American and academic All-American as a running back for Coach Chuck Mizerski at Lincoln Southeast High School, where he also played cornerback, placed in the 200-meter dash at the state track meet and lettered once in basketball. Member of National Honor Society at Southeast. Broadcast journalism major. Son of Peggy Kelley, he has two brothers. Born Aug. 5, 1965, in Lincoln.

WINGBACKS

DANA BRINSON . . . 21 . . . 5-9 . . . 170 . . . Sophomore . . . Valdosta, Ga. . . . 1L 33

One of Nebraska's fastest players ever, Brinson is expected to combine with junior Von Sheppard to give the Huskers a dangerous one-two punch at wingback. Dana ran the 40 in 4.39 seconds last spring, which makes him the second-fastest player on the 1986 Nebraska team, behind alternate I-back Keith Jones, whose 4.33-second timing is the best-ever for a Husker gridder. A highly-regarded recruit in 1984, Brinson played only two games with the Husker junior varsity that fall before being sidelined by meningitis. He was granted a hardship year and came back to letter as a freshman in 1985 when he appeared in six regular-season games, rushed twice for 14 yards, caught one pass for 5 yards, returned seven punts 19 yards and one kickoff 35 yards. Boasts a 38.5-inch vertical jump. Nebraska's first football recruit out of Georgia since the mid-1950s, Dana comes form the same high school (Valdosta High) which sent quarterbacks Buck Belue and John Lastinger to Georgia and John Bond to

Mississippi State. As a senior, he rushed for 954 yards and gained over 500 yards receiving on a team which finished 11-1. Team's record in his three years was 37-3, including one state title, two regional crowns. He originated the recruiting contact with Nebraska and signed after visiting Florida, Iowa State and Florida State—which is located only some 70 miles southwest of Valdosta. Business administration major. Son of Leonard and Beaulah Brinson. Born April 10, 1965, at Valdosta.

RAY NELSON . . . 22 . . . 5-8 . . . 185 . . . Senior . . . Omaha, Neb. . . . 1L 4

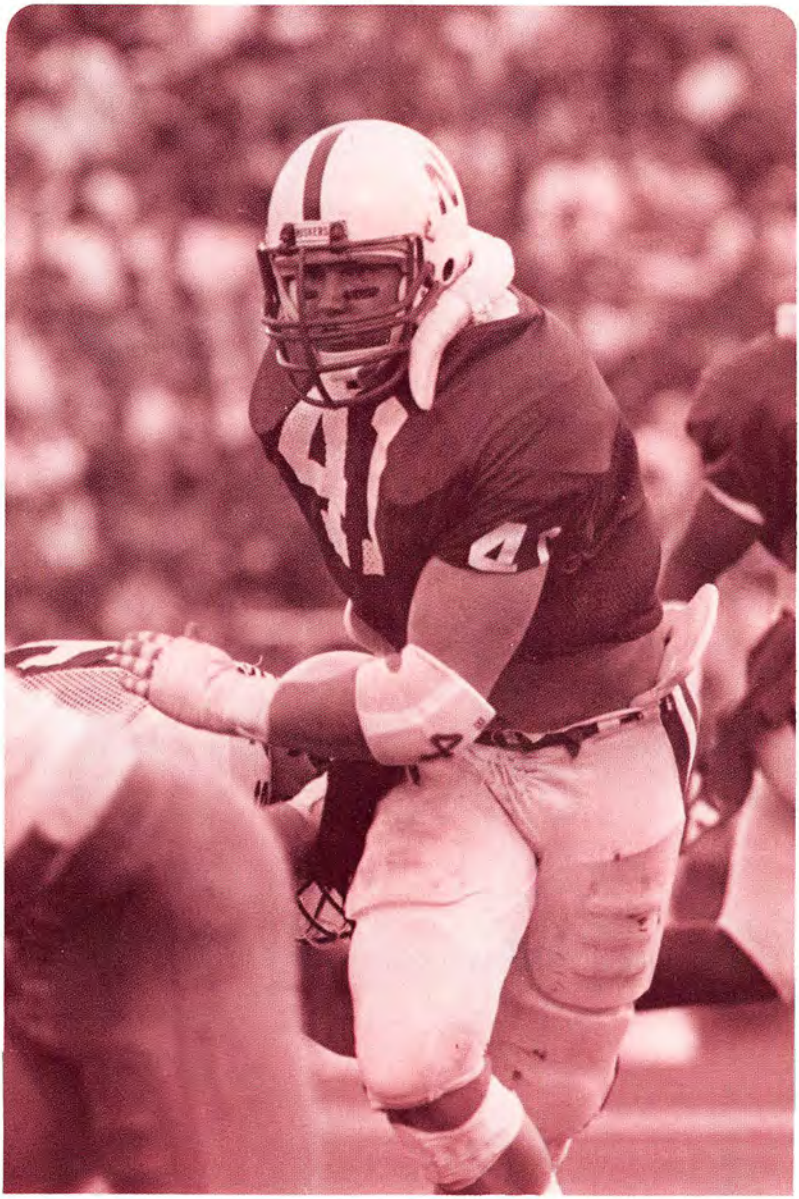

After a solid spring, Nelson will go into camp in August listed third at wingback behind Von Sheppard and Dana Brinson. He lettered as a reserve in 1985 when he made six game appearances, in which he rushed five times for 38 yards. A 1982 walkon as an I-back, he arrived on campus the same year as Doug DuBose, but still ended up as the freshman team's fourth-leading rusher, carrying 24 times for 161 yards, a 6.7-yard average and three touchdowns. Redshirted in 1983, then was a non-lettered reserve in 1984 while he converted to wingback. He's the last competing NCAA Division I athlete out of Omaha Tech High School, which closed its doors with his 1982 graduating class. (Tech's alumni include such athletic stars as Bob Gibson, Bob Boozer and Johnny Rodgers). He was all-state and Metro Conference Federal Division MVP for Coach Tim Bond at Tech. Criminal justice major. Son of Mrs. Walker. Born April 6, 1964, at Omaha.

PERNELL GATSON . . . 23 . . . 5-11 . . . 190 . . . Senior . . . Omaha, Neb. . . . 1L 8

A hard-luck player, Gatson will attempt a comeback in 1986 after reconstructive knee surgery caused him to miss all of 1985. Pernell suffered a severe knee injury on April 2, 1985 (the second day of spring practice), when he was listed first on the depth chart at wingback, and underwent reconstructive surgery eight days later. He came back last spring and played well enough to put himself in a position to challenge again for playing time. Recruited as a quarterback in 1982, he completed 11 of 28 passes for 131 yards, with no interceptions or touchdowns, as a part-time starter for that fall's 5-0 Husker freshman team. He was also the team's third-leading rusher, picking up 188 yards and three TD's on 48 carries. He redshirted in 1983, switched to wingback and lettered in 1984 as a reserve behind Shane Swanson and Jim Thompson. As a sophomore, he played in seven games, rushing four times for 40 yards and catching one 20-yard pass. All-state quarterback for Coach William Reed at Omaha Central High School, where he was also a two-time state wrestling champion. Son of Alexander Gatson, he has four brothers and a sister. Born Nov. 11, 1962, at Newton, Texas.

MARC MUNFORD

WEAK-SIDE LINEBACKER
Two-Time All-Big Eight

Senior . . . 21 . . . 6-2 . . . 220 . . . Littleton, Colo. . . . 2L

Munford could be one of the great come-back stories ever if he's able to perform at 100 percent this fall. The two-time All-Big Eight pick suffered a severe knee injury in the Huskers' 56-6 win over Kansas in the next-to-last regular-season game in 1985 and had reconstructive surgery the following day. His recovery was complicated by kidney problems, but he bounced back from that and has made above-average progress in rehabilitating his knee. As of late spring, doctors and trainers on the Nebraska medical staff had not yet given Munford the definite go-ahead for 1986, but they did express confidence that he'll be able to play this year. He has not redshirted, and would be able to come back in 1987, if necessary. Nebraska's leading tackler the last two years, he'll be an honors candidate again when he returns to the playing field. As a sophomore in 1984, he racked up 99 tackles (61 unassisted, seven for losses of 19 yards), intercepted two passes (both vs. Missouri, one of which he returned for a 57-yard touchdown), broke up two passes and recovered a fumble to lead a defense which topped the nation in both total defense (203.3 yards per game) and scoring defense (9.5 points per game). Named All-Big

DANNY NOONAN

MIDDLE GUARD
All-America Candidate

Senior . . . 21 . . . 6-4 . . . 280 . . . Lincoln, Neb. . . . 2L

Noonan labored in the shadow of a pair of All-Americans last year—Husker defensive tackle Jim Skow and Oklahoma's Tony Casillas—but both Skow and Casillas have gone on to the pros, and Noonan should come to the fore in 1986 as one of the nation's premier defensive linemen. Said Nebraska defensive coordinator and line coach Charlie McBride: "He (Noonan) has a chance to be an All-American, he's that good of a player. Noonan may be the best nose guard in the country . . . I thought he was as good a nose guard as there was in our conference last season, and that's including the Oklahoma guy (Casillas)." Noonan's performance as a junior tends to back up that statement. He was the second-leading tackler on the defensive line (behind Skow) with 47, 33 of those unassisted. He was second to Skow on the team in tackles for loss (14 for 78 yards), and in quarterback sacks (11 for 69). Also had a standout performance in the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl against Michigan, recording nine tackles, including a sack of Wolverine quarterback Jim Harbaugh. That equaled his career high of nine tackles vs. Oklahoma in 1985. Top game for quarterback sacks was three for 22 yards in losses against Illinois' Jack Trudeau. Second-team All-Big Eight pick (behind Casillas) by both wire services last year. In 1986 spring testing in March, set Husker football bench press record of 485 pounds, only to have his backup middle guard, sophomore Lawrence Pete, press 500 pounds the following day. Noonan also has good

Senior . . . 23 . . . 6-2 . . . 190 . . . Phoenix, Ariz. . . . 1L

A late bloomer, Davis emerged as an outstanding corner back in the second half of last season and he should be a strong candidate for post-season honors in 1986. Brian had played only one year of high school football and two years in junior college before coming to Nebraska. Because of his athletic ability, he was able to see a considerable amount of action as a reserve early in the season, then moved into the starting lineup for good at mid-season when Dennis Watkins aggravated an Achilles' injury. Took over the starting job after a fine game in the Big Eight opener at Oklahoma State, in which he had four tackles, an interception and broke up four passes. That gave him half of his school-record-tying eight pass break-ups on the season. Top tackle game was six vs. Missouri. Finished the year with 23 tackles, including 20 unassisted stops, and intercepted two passes. Playing in his back yard at Tempe, Ariz., he had a fine game in the Huskers' loss to Michigan in the 1986 Sunkist Fiesta Bowl, recording four tackles (three unassisted) and breaking up a pass. Nebraska's fastest defensive back, he has run the 40 in 4.51 seconds, making him one of the Huskers' fastest players overall. He's also one of the team's strongest DB's, having bench-pressed 345 pounds. Played only one year of high school football for Coach Jim Jones at Phoenix Cortez High School, then walked on at Glendale Community College in suburban Phoenix. Developed quickly under Coach Charles Zontanos and earned first-team all-conference, all-region and junior college All-America honors for the Gauchos in 1984. Although he lacked prep football experience, he was a fine high school wrestler and qualified for the Arizona state meet three times. Business administration major. Son of Pat and Claranell Davis, he has four brothers. Born Aug. 31, 1963, at Phoenix.

TONY HOLLOWAY

Senior . . . 22 . . . 6-3 . . . 205 . . . Bellevue, Neb. . . . 2L

Alternate behind Gregg Reeves and a part-time starter at defensive right end in 1985, Holloway moved up to the No. 1 spot at the position last spring and figures to start this fall. Holloway appeared in nine regular-season games last year, recording 20 tackles, including four for losses totaling 22 yards. Recorded two unassisted tackles against Michigan in the 1986 Sunkist Fiesta Bowl, both for losses totaling 23 yards. Missed the Colorado and Kansas State games in 1985 after he bruised a kneecap in practice. Named the Big Eight defensive-player-of-the-week after the New Mexico game, in which he had nine tackles, including three sacks for 21 yards in losses. He has run the 40 in 4.63 seconds, making him the Huskers' fastest defender outside the secondary. A 1982 recruit, he was an alternate linebacker on the Husker freshman team that fall, then lettered as a varsity reserve in 1983 when he was in on 12 tackles, eight of them unassisted. Moved to defensive end in the spring of 1984 and redshirted that fall. All-metro Omaha and all-state for Coach Jerry Van Waart at Bellevue West High School. Also lettered once in track. Computer science major. Son of Wardell and Frances Holloway, he has three brothers and a sister. Born April 21, 1964, in Puerto Rico.

KEVIN PARSONS

STRONG-SIDE LINEBACKER

Senior . . . 21 . . . 6-3 . . . 240 . . . Springfield, Mo. . . . 3L

One of the most underrated players in the Big Eight, Parsons labored in the shadows of All-Big Eight teammates Mike Knox and Marc Munford the last two years, but he'll be a strong candidate for post-season honors as a senior. He and a healthy Munford (who is battling back from a serious knee injury) would give Nebraska a highly-experienced starting linebacker tandem that could only be described as "agile, mobile and hostile." The Huskers' third linebacker, behind Munford and Knox, last year, Parsons played a great deal and ended up as the team's fourth-leading tackler with 48 regular-season stops (29 unassisted), two for losses of 10 yards; also broke up three passes and recovered a fumble. He started three games when Munford was injured and, in those three games, had Nebraska's top three individual tackle totals in 1985. Filled in at Missouri when Munford sat out because of arthroscopic knee surgery and had a career-high 14 stops (seven unassisted, including a 9-yard sack) against his home-state Tigers; also recovered a Mizzou fumble. Moved into the starting lineup again after Munford suffered a serious knee injury vs. Kansas. In the regular-season finale at Oklahoma, he was in on 13 tackles, 10 unassisted; and in the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl against Michigan, he again had 13 total tackles. An active pass defender, he has had three pass breakups each of the last two years. Has a 4.87-second best in the 40. A 1983 recruit,

SAFETY

Senior . . . 22 . . . 6-0 . . . 195 . . . Fremont, Neb. . . . 2L

Siebler split starts and playing time with Chris Carr in 1985, but is slated to be the No. 1 safety this fall after Carr switched to monster last spring. He recorded 30 total tackles as a junior (17 unassisted) and was second on the team in pass break-ups with five. Top tackle game was six, all unassisted, vs. Florida State; also had five total tackles at Oklahoma State. A sure-handed former wingback, he also served as a dependable receiver on the punt-return team. One of the Huskers' faster players, he has been clocked in 4.62 seconds in the 40. Recruited as a wingback in 1982, he led that fall's 5-0 Husker freshman team in receiving with four catches for 81 yards and one touchdown; also rushed 15 times for 91 yards and two TD's, returned three punts 53 yards and two kickoffs 30 yards. Switched to cornerback in the spring of 1983, redshirted that fall, then moved to safety in the spring of 1984 and lettered as a reserve that fall. All-conference, all-state, All-Big Eight-area for Coach Jerry Gdowski at Fremont High School, where he gained 1,794 yards rushing, 1,113 receiving and scored 24 TD's in three years. Also lettered three times in track, twice in basketball. Member of National Honor Society, carried a perfect 4.0 grade-point-average all through high school. Mathematics major. CHRIS SPACHMAN

LEFT TACKLE

Senior . . . 22 . . . 6-4 . . . 265 . . . Kansas City, Mo. . . . 2L

A two-year starter, Spachman (pronounced spock-man) will be a strong candidate for post-season laurels in 1986 after receiving second-team All-Big Eight honors as a junior in 1985. Last year, he recorded 34 tackles, 23 unassisted, including five for losses of 17 yards. He also led the defensive line in pass break ups with four, and recovered two opponent fumbles. He may have set an NCAA record for defensive tackles by returning two interceptions for touchdowns. The first of Spachman's TD's finished scoring in Nebraska's 52-25 win over Illinois and came when he picked off a Jack Trudeau pass and returned it 38 yards to score. The second came when he intercepted a fumble and raced 76 yards for a touchdown with only 26 seconds left at Oklahoma. It was the Huskers' only TD in a 27-7 loss to the national champs and prevented Nebraska from being shut out for the first time in 147 games. (Note: In collegiate statistics, pass interceptions and fumble interceptions are included in one statistical category, "interceptions"). Spachman not only led the Huskers in scoring at Oklahoma, but was the team's leading tackler with six—his season high. Capped a fine senior spring last April by sharing the Huskers' "Lifter-of-the-Year" award with senior middle guard Danny Noonan. The award came after a vote by his teammates and reflected the progress he has made in NU's strength-and-conditioning program, notably increasing his

LEFT ENDS

BRAD TYRER . . . 23 . . . 6-2 . . . 220 . . . Senior . . . Kansas City, Mo. . . . 1L 83

Nebraska's No. 3 right end most of 1985, Tyrer switched to the left side last spring. He came on strong and will be listed even with sophomore Broderick Thomas on the first team when practice resumes in August. Lettered as a reserve last year when he appeared in seven games and recorded five tackles, three of them unassisted. An unlettered varsity reserve in 1984, he had four tackles (three unassisted) and intercepted a pass vs. Minnesota. With a 4.75-second clocking in the 40, he's one of the Huskers' fastest defensive ends. A 1982 recruit, he received a hardship year for that season when he dislocated a shoulder in the metro Kansas City high school all-star game in the summer and had to undergo surgery. Came back to start at left end for the 5-0 Husker freshman team in 1983, recorded 18 tackles (10 unassisted), including three for losses totaling seven yards and one quarterback sack; also recovered a fumble. Prep All-America defensive end and an all-district tight end for Coach Jerry Culver at Kansas City Rockhurst High School. Speech communications major. Full name is James Bradley Tyrer. Son of the late Jim and Martha Tyrer. Father was a perennial all-pro guard for the Kansas City Chiefs. Brad has a brother and two sisters. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Truman Cline. Born Feb. 6, 1963, at Columbus, Ohio.

BRODERICK THOMAS . . . 19 . . . 6-2 . . . 235 . . . Sophomore . . . Houston, Texas . . . 1L 89

One of the most promising young players in the Husker camp, Thomas moved from the freshman team up to the varsity early last year and went on to earn a letter as a valuable reserve. He goes into his sophomore season listed even with Brad Tyrer at left end. After moving up from the freshman team last fall, Thomas played in eight regular-season games, recorded 13 tackles (eight unassisted), including two quarterback sacks for losses of 19 yards. Came off the bench to lead Nebraska in tackles in the 41-3 win at Kansas State, recording nine, including a 12-yard sack. Played in the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl vs. Michigan, but was credited with no stops. One of the Huskers' fastest defensive ends, he has a 4.76-second 40-yard time. A defensive tackle for Coach Bill Metysiah at Lincoln High School in Houston, Thomas was named the defensive player-of-the-year by the Houston Post. Son of Hillian and Linda Thomas. Born Feb. 20, 1967, at Houston.

BUMP NOVACEK . . . 20 . . . 6-4 . . . 220 . . . Sophomore . . . Gothenburg, Neb. 94

In a successful spring experiment, Novacek (pronounced NO-va-chek) was switched from tight end to defensive end and went on to earn the No. 3 spot on the left side behind Brad Tyrer and Broderick Thomas. Novacek started at tight end for last fall's 5-0 Husker freshman team, and was its second-leading receiver with five catches for 96 yards and three touchdowns. Also punted twice for a 32.5-yard average. All-American in both football and track at Gothenburg High School. Played I-back in football for his father, Coach Pat Novacek; in track, he was the first Nebraska prep pole vaulter to clear 16 feet. Earned total of 10 letters in high school, three each in football and basketball, four in track). Not the only athlete in his family, older brother Jay was an All-America tight end at Wyoming in 1984 and now plays for the NFL St. Louis Cardinals. Bump is a physical education major in Teachers College. Son of Pat and June Novacek. Born May 13, 1966, at Muscatine, Iowa.

NEIL SMITH . . . 20 . . . 6-6 . . . 250 . . . Junior . . . New Orleans, La. . . . 1L 99

With excellent size and speed, Smith has the potential to be an outstanding defensive lineman. Played in every game last year as the alternate left tackle behind two-year starter Chris Spachman. Figures to fill that role again in 1986 and should again see plenty of playing time. Progress was impeded somewhat when he missed most of spring practice last April because of a calcium deposit on his hip; deposit was surgically removed April 12, and he'll be full strength when practice resumes in August. Recorded 19 tackles last year (10 unassisted), four for losses of 20 yards, including two quarterback sacks for 16 yards in losses, and broke up two passes. Had two tackles against Michigan in the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl. Bench presses 375 pounds (up from 265 when he first enrolled at Nebraska in August 1984) and runs the 40 in 4.67 seconds—outside the secondary, second only on the defensive unit to end Tony Holloway's 4.63. Started at right tackle for NU's 1984 junior varsity team and shared the squad tackle lead with middle guard Lawrence Pete at 36 in five games (17 unassisted). Had seven tackles for losses of 21 yards and knocked down a pass. Football and basketball star at McDonogh 35 High School in New Orleans. Son of Mrs. Lutisha Smith, he has one brother and one sister. Born April 10, 1966, at New Orleans.

KURT SKRADIS . . . 20 . . . 6-3 . . . 250 . . . Sophomore . . . Omaha, Neb. 66

Skradis (pronounced SKRAY-dis) had a solid spring and will be listed third at defensive left tackle when practice resumes in August, behind two-year starter Chris Spachman and junior Neil Smith. A 1984 walkon, he has made good progress since the fall of that year, when he was a reserve defensive tackle on the Husker junior varsity team, recording four tackles, including one 9-yard quarterback sack. Redshirted in 1985. Three-time all-conference and twice a second-team all-state choice at Omaha Bryan High School for Coach Tim Bond. Also lettered in track at Bryan and started on the Bears' first-ever state tournament basketball team in 1984. Business administration major. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Skradis, he has three brothers and two sisters. Born Nov. 11, 1965, at Omaha.

MIDDLE GUARDS

LAWRENCE PETE . . . 20 . . . 6-2 . . . 280 . . . Sophomore . . . Wichita, Kan. 96

Nebraska's strongest-ever player, Pete is slated to be the Huskers' alternate middle guard behind the team's second-strongest-ever player, senior Danny Noonan. In spring testing last March, Noonan set the team bench press record at 485 pounds, only to have Pete break it the following day at 500 pounds. A fine prospect, he'll give the Huskers excellent depth at the position and should see a lot of playing time. Surprised a crowd of over 23,000 (and Nebraska Coach Tom Osborne) when he lined up at I-back, à la William "Refrigerator" Perry, in the Huskers' Spring Game last April. He carried once in a goal-line situation for two yards, but didn't score. Lawrence had arthroscopic knee surgery on March 15, 1986, but should be full speed this fall. A 1984 recruit, he started at middle guard for the Husker junior varsity team that fall and shared the team tackle lead with Neil Smith, each recording 36 total stops. Pete led the jayvees with 23 unassisted tackles, four of those for losses of five yards, and recovered one fumble. Appeared in one varsity game and had one unassisted tackle. Redshirted in 1985. Wasn't named to the all-city team in Wichita, but Nebraska had to fight Arkansas, Tennessee, Minnesota, Kansas and Kansas State for his signature on a letter-of-intent. Used his strength to win the Kansas Class 6A shot put title (57-0) for Wichita South High School in 1984. Son of Vera Gasper. Born Jan. 18, 1966.

SEAN PUTNAM . . . 20 . . . 6-3 . . . 255 . . . Sophomore . . . O'Neill, Neb. 92

After a fine spring, Putnam is slated to be the Huskers' third middle guard this fall, behind returning starter Danny Noonan and fellow sophomore Lawrence Pete. A 1984 walkon, Sean was the alternate middle guard behind Pete on that fall's Husker junior varsity team, recording six tackles, three unassisted. Redshirted in 1985. An all-state performer for Coach Mark Neish at O'Neill High School, where he also lettered in wrestling and took fifth in the discus at the state Class B track and field meet. Son of Dan Putnam. Born Sept. 2, 1966, at O'Neill.

LEE JONES . . . 21 . . . 6-1 . . . 235 . . . Junior . . . Omaha, Neb. . . . 1L 98

Jones had a fine sophomore season in 1985 as the alternate defensive right tackle behind All-American Jim Skow, and figures to replace Skow in the starting lineup this fall—despite missing spring practice because of arthroscopic shoulder surgery, Feb. 24. Jones, who is expected to be 100 percent this fall, hurt the shoulder in last year's 63-0 win over Oregon, but did not miss any games and finished the year with 12 tackles, eight of them unassisted and three for losses totaling 25 yards; also recovered one fumble. One of Nebraska's fastest linemen, his 4.70-second 40-yard time is second on the interior defensive line to junior tackle Neil Smith's 4.67. Speed runs in the Jones family, as Lee's younger brother, I-back Keith, is Nebraska's fastest player ever at 4.33 seconds in the 40. All-conference and all-metro defensive tackle for Coach Dan Carruthers at Omaha Benson High School, where he also played fullback. Started at center on his junior high school basketball team—ahead of Dave Hoppen, who went on to become a three-time All-Big Eight choice and Nebraska's all-time leading scorer in basketball. Speech communications major. Son of Vernita Jones, he has four sisters and two brothers, including Keith. Born Oct. 12, 1964, at Omaha.

DANNY GROSKURTH . . . 21 . . . 6-4 . . . 260 . . . Junior . . . Beemer, Neb. . . . 1L 52

After seeing enough playing time to earn a letter in 1985, Groskurth will go into practice in August listed as the alternate defensive right tackle behind Lee Jones. Practiced with the first defense all of last spring when Jones sat out after having arthroscopic shoulder surgery in February. Groskurth played in four games last year and recorded one tackle. A 1983 walkon out of Wisner-Pilger High School, he was the alternate defensive left tackle on that fall's Husker freshman team behind Danny Noonan, who is now an All-America candidate at middle guard. Recorded 11 tackles for the freshmen, eight of them unassisted and five for losses totaling 24 yards; also recovered a fumble. Three-year letterman and an all-conference pick for Coach Chuck Ross at Wisner-Pilger, where he also lettered in basketball and track. Animal science major. Son of Dale and Mary Lou Groskurth, he has one older brother. Born Feb. 18, 1965, at West Point, Neb.

TIM ROTHER . . . 20 . . . 6-6 . . . 270 . . . Junior . . . Bellevue, Neb. 78

In a successful experiment during spring practice, Rother was switched from center to defensive tackle, made impressive progress, and will go into fall practice listed third on the right side behind Lee Jones and Danny Groskurth. A 1983 walkon, he was an alternate offensive tackle on that fall's Husker freshman team. Redshirted in 1984, then was a non-lettered reserve offensive tackle in 1985. Switched to center for the start of spring drills, this year, then went to defensive tackle. Played football for Coach Bill James at Bellevue East High School, where he also lettered in basketball, track and baseball. English major. Son of Douglas and Judy Rother, his younger brother, Brad, is a sophomore offensive tackle for the Huskers. Born Sept. 28, 1965, at St. Paul, Neb.

RIGHT ENDS

JEFF JAMROG . . . 21 . . . 6-2 . . . 225 . . . Junior . . . Omaha, Neb. . . . 1L 80

Jamrog lettered as a reserve defensive end last year and will go into his junior season listed as the alternate on the right side behind senior Tony Holloway. Appeared in six games in 1985 and was credited with one tackle—a 5-yard sack against Kansas State. A 1983 walkon, he was one of the leading tacklers on that fall's Husker freshman team while playing most of the season as an alternate behind Brad Tyrer at defensive left end. Finished with 20 total stops, including six unassisted, four of them for losses totaling 16 yards; also had a fumble recovery and broke up a pass. Redshirted in 1984. Has good strength (340-pound bench press) and speed (4.88 in the 40). Led Elkhorn Mt. Michael High School to Class B state championships in football and basketball as a senior in the 1982-83 school year. Rushed for 1,531 yards and 21 touchdowns in leading Mt. Michael to the 1982 Class B state football crown, then led the Knights to the Class B cage crown the following March. Played for Coach Jim Kane in both sports, was an all-class all-state pick in football and Class B all-state in basketball. Also lettered in track. National Honor Society member in high school. Business administration major. Son of Jerry and Marlene Jamrog, he has three older sisters. Born Feb. 4, 1965, at Omaha.

JON MARCO . . . 20 . . . 6-1 . . . 230 . . . Sophomore . . . Bellevue, Neb. 93

Marco came on strong toward the end of spring practice last April and will be listed third at defensive right end when practice resumes in August. His 380-pound bench press makes him Nebraska's strongest defensive end. A 1984 walkon, he was a reserve defensive end on that fall's Husker junior varsity team; took part in eight tackles, recovered a fumble and intercepted a pass, which he returned 15 yards. Redshirted in 1985. All-state punter, second-team all-state quarterback and team MVP for Coach Jerry Van Waart at Bellevue West High School, which he led to 7-2 records in 1982 and 1983. Also lettered three times in wrestling for the Thunderbirds. Accounting major. Son of John and Hertha Marco, he has one older sister. Born Aug. 31, 1966, at Omaha, Neb.

STRONG-SIDE LINEBACKERS

LeROY ETIENNE . . . 19 . . . 6-1 . . . 235 . . . Sophomore . . . New Iberia, La. . . . 1L 47

One of the most promising players in the Husker camp, Etienne was impressive as a freshman and is expected to be a key contributor as a sophomore in 1986. Played in three games with the freshman team last year, recording 18 tackles (12 unassisted), but was then called up to the varsity for good. Played in five varsity games, recording three tackles, and was an important special teams player. Etienne (pronounced ay-tee-enne) has fine speed (4.80 in the 40) and should get faster and stronger the longer he is exposed to the Husker strength and conditioning program. A first-team Parade All-American in 1984, he was Louisiana defensive player-of-the-year in 1983 and 1984 while playing for Coach Wylie Fraze at New Iberia High School. Credited with 210 solo tackles as a senior. Son of Hazel Etienne, he has three brothers and two sisters. Born July 21, 1967, at Lafayette, La.

DOUG WELNIAK . . . 21 . . . 5-11 . . . 220 . . . Junior . . . Elyria, Neb. . . . 1L 37

A valuable special-teams player and reserve linebacker, Welniak picked up a varsity letter in 1985 and is expected to be an important contributor again in 1986. Played in every home game on the special teams last year, but was kept off most road trips by the Big Eight's 60-man travel limit. Had just one tackle while playing linebacker, but that was a 9-yard sack of Kansas quarterback Mike Norseth. A 1983 walkon, Doug was an alternate weak-side linebacker for the Husker freshman team that fall, then redshirted in 1984. As a backup to Marc Munford on that 1983 freshman team, he had 13 tackles, all assists. Two-time all-conference as a running back and linebacker, and Class B all-state linebacker as a senior for Coach Gene Suhr at Ord, Neb., High School, where he also lettered in basketball and track, and was a member of National Honor Society. Mechanical engineering major. Son of Mrs. Betty Welniak, he has four brothers and two sisters. Younger brother, Randy, is a junior quarterback at Wyoming. Doug was born Sept. 8, 1964, at Ord.

WEAK-SIDE LINEBACKERS

STEVE FORCH . . . 21 . . . 6-2 . . . 240 . . . Senior . . . Lincoln, Neb. . . . 2L 38

An experienced, hard-hitting linebacker, Forch figures to be Marc Munford's alternate on the weak side this fall—and he'll probably be the starter if Munford isn't able to come back from knee surgery. Forch had the top spot at the position to himself last spring while Munford rehabilitated. Steve has been a valuable reserve each of the last two years, recording eight tackles in 1984 and 10 in 1985, while playing in every game each season. Huskers' strongest linebacker, he bench presses 400 pounds. He's also one of the quickest, owning a 4.78-second best in the 40. Came to Nebraska as a 1983 recruit in what may have been the Huskers' best group of linebackers ever and was an alternate on that fall's freshman team behind Munford and Kevin Parsons, the scheduled 1986 starter at strong-side linebacker. Recorded 19 tackles and broke up a pass for a defense that gave up just 184.0 yards and 7.4 points per game. Has not redshirted. All-city and all-class all-state as a linebacker and offensive guard for former Husker Lee Zentic at Lincoln East High School. Criminal justice major. Son of Paul and Marcia Forch, he has one brother and one sister. Father is the long-time highly successful basketball coach at Lincoln East. Steve was born Dec. 29, 1964, at McCook, Neb.

BLAKE HENNING . . . 21 . . . 6-0 . . . 220 . . . Junior . . . Crete, Neb. 39

Henning goes into his junior year listed third at weak-side linebacker behind a pair of seniors, two-time All-Big Eight Marc Munford and Steve Forch. Blake appeared in five games a year ago and broke up one pass, but did not letter. A 1983 walkon, he was an alternate weak-side linebacker on that fall's 5-0 Husker freshman team, making four tackles and recovering a fumble. Redshirted in 1984. Two-time all-conference and an all-state selection for Coach Mark Ward at Crete High School where he played linebacker and running back. Top game performances were 205 rushing yards, 34 tackles. Also lettered in track and wrestling. Wildlife management major. Son of Jerry and Donna Henning, he has two brothers and a sister. Born Feb. 22, 1965, in Lincoln.

RIGHT CORNERBACKS

CHARLES FRYAR . . . 20 . . . 5-10 . . . 170 . . . Sophomore . . . Burlington, N.J. 10

Another promising young defender, Fryar led last year's 5-0 freshman team in tackles, then came on strong last spring to earn the No. 1 right cornerback spot on the varsity. As the starter at right corner for last year's frosh, Fryar recorded 24 tackles (13 unassisted), including one for a loss of 7 yards. He also intercepted a pass and returned it 28 yards, broke up a pass and recovered a fumble. A 1984 walkon, he redshirted that fall. Blessed with fine speed, he has a 40-yard best of 4.65 seconds. He's a cousin of Irving Fryar, an All-America wingback for Nebraska in 1983 who was the No. 1 pick in the 1984 National Football League draft and has gone on to achieve all-pro status for the New England Patriots. All-state and All-America tailback and safety for Coach Tim Reardon at Burlington City High School, Charles ran for 1,600 yards, intercepted nine passes and scored 32 touchdowns as a senior. The three teams he lettered on had a combined record of 29-4. Also lettered in basketball and track at Burlington. Son of Thelma Fryar, he has four brothers and one sister, all older. Born Nov. 28, 1965, at Mount Holly, N.J.

CLEO MILLER . . . 21 . . . 5-9 . . . 180 . . . Senior . . . Dallas, Texas . . . 1L 17

A key reserve on last year's Husker team, Miller appeared in every game and played both left and right cornerback positions. He finished with 23 tackles, 17 unassisted, broke up three passes and recovered a fumble. Locked in a tight battle all spring for the top job at right corner, he'll be listed just behind Charles Fryar when practice resumes in August. Transferred to Nebraska from Taft (Calif.) Junior College, where he was a first-team all-conference selection and honorable-mention All-American for Coach Al Boldock. Named the most valuable player in Taft's 51-27 win over Pierce JC in the Potato Bowl. Led Taft to 9-1 and 10-1 records. At Dallas Lincoln High School, he was a two-time all-district pick for Coach William Stell. Also starred in track at Lincoln, and ran on the 1983 Texas state champion mile relay team. Honor roll student in high school, he was a member of a senior choir which toured Europe and participated in a youth festival in Vienna, Austria. Marketing major. Son of Cleophus and Francis Miller, he has two brothers and two sisters. Born Sept. 15, 1964, at Dallas, Texas.

MIKE CARL . . . 23 . . . 5-11 . . . 180 . . . Senior . . . Gretna, Neb. . . . 2L 42

Carl was held out of spring practice at the suggestion of team doctors, who wanted him to heal from an abdominal muscle strain that has bothered him the last year-and-a-half. He'll go into practice in August listed third at right cornerback behind sophomore Charles Fryar and senior letterman Cleo Miller, but he should again be a solid contender for the top job. Mike won the No. 1 spot at the position in the spring of 1985, but the muscle strain kept him out of nearly all of the Huskers' early practices. Ended up sharing time with Cleo Miller and Dennis Watkins at right corner and started several games at mid-season. Finished the year with 21 total tackles (16 unassisted), broke up three passes and intercepted two others, which he returned 23 yards. Top tackle game was six at Missouri. A 1982 walkon, Mike started at cornerback for the 5-0 Husker freshmen that fall, and led the frosh secondary in tackles with 13 (eight unassisted); also led the team in pass break-ups with four and had an interception. After a redshirt year in 1983, he lettered as a varsity reserve in 1984. One of Nebraska's strongest defensive backs, he has a 335-pound bench press. All-state in both football and basketball at Gretna High School, where he starred as a running back and defensive back for Coach Tom Leehy. Played in the 1982 Nebraska Shrine Bowl. Criminal justice major. Son of Jackie Carl. Born April 1, 1963, at Omaha, Neb.

LEFT CORNERBACKS

JOHN CUSTARD . . . 20 . . . 5-9 . . . 175 . . . Sophomore . . . Bellevue, Neb. 28

After redshirting in 1985, Custard had an impressive spring last April and will go into practice in August listed second behind senior standout Brian Davis. A 1984 walkon, John started at right cornerback for the 4-1 Husker junior varsity team that fall, recording 11 tackles, breaking up three passes and intercepting two others. Switched to the left side in the spring of 1985 and began spring practice listed sixth on the depth chart, but made rapid progress. Part of his success stems from his efforts in the strength and conditioning program, which have enabled him to increase his bench press from 250 to 290 pounds and lower his 40-yard time from 4.78 to 4.64 seconds. All-metro Omaha, all-conference and honorable-mention all-state for Coach Bill James at Bellevue East High School. As a senior, he scored six touchdowns as a flanker and intercepted seven passes as a defensive back. Played in the 1984 Nebraska Shrine Bowl. Lettered twice each in wrestling and track, and was the team MVP in the latter sport. Business administration major. Son of John and Jackie Custard, he has one brother and two sisters. Born June 2, 1966, at Limestone, Maine.

MARVIN SANDERS . . . 18 . . . 5-10 . . . 175 . . . Sophomore . . . Markham, Ill. 26

One of the top defensive players on last year's 5-0 freshman team, Sanders had a fine spring and will go into practice in August listed third at left cornerback behind Brian Davis and John Custard. Sanders started at left corner for the freshmen and ended up as the team's third-leading tackler with 21 total stops and a team-leading 15 unassisted tackles. He also broke up two passes and blocked a kick. Good speed, his best electronic 40-yard time is 4.69 seconds. A two-way threat for Coach Robert Jackson at Thornwood High School, Marvin averaged 36 yards per catch as a senior wide receiver (13 receptions for 468 yards, seven touchdowns) and led Illinois preps in interceptions as a junior with nine. All-conference at both positions. Nebraska coaches discovered him while recruiting one of his teammates. Earned 11 letters in high school, four in football, three in basketball, two each in track and baseball. Accounting major. Son of Eugene and Inetta Sanders. Born Oct. 2, 1967, at Chicago, Ill.

MONSTERS

BRIAN WASHINGTON . . . 20 . . . 6-1 . . . 220 . . . Junior . . . Highland Springs, Va. . . . 2L 5

The Huskers' starting monster all last season, Washington was locked in a spring-long battle at the position with Jeff Tomjack and Chris Carr. He'll go into practice in August listed just ahead of the other two. Led the Husker secondary in tackles in 1985 with 37 (23 unassisted), shared the team lead in interceptions and broke up four passes; added two more tackles in the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl vs. Michigan. Top tackle game was six at Oklahoma State. Earned second-team All-Big Eight honors from both Associated Press and United Press International. Brian has not redshirted and has played in every varsity game since he enrolled at Nebraska in August 1984. He has fine speed (4.62 seconds in the 40) and is the Huskers' strongest defensive back (380-pound bench press). Parade and Street & Smith prep All-America safety at Highland Springs High School in suburban Richmond, Va., he played only half his senior season due to a knee injury. Also played tailback in high school and was an all-state and preseason All-America basketball player. Son of Phyllis Washington, he has two sisters. Born Sept. 10, 1965, at Richmond, Va.

JEFF TOMJACK . . . 22 . . . 6-1 . . . 205 . . . Junior . . . Ewing, Neb. . . . 1L 11

Tomjack lettered as a reserve in 1985, then came on strong last spring to battle returning starter Brian Washington and converted safety Chris Carr for the No. 1 job at monster—despite having had arthroscopic knee surgery, Jan. 25. He'll go into practice in August listed just behind Washington and just ahead of Carr. Jeff appeared in seven games last year, recorded three tackles. Blocked a punt for a safety against Kansas. A 1982 recruit, Jeff had knee surgery in June of that year and did not enroll at Nebraska until January 1983. Started at monster for the 1983 freshman team, making 17 tackles, 12 unassisted and four for losses of 22 yards; also broke up a pass. Even after major knee surgery, he ran the 40 in 4.78 seconds and had a 34.5-inch vertical jump. All-everything athlete at Class C-2 Ewing High School, where he scored 236 points, rushed for 2,057 yards, passed for 3,501 more and threw 45 touchdown passes in his career. All-conference and all-state selection for Coach Mike McCabe. Two-time all-state in basketball, he led Ewing to the finals of the state tournament in 1982 only to lose to a Grant team led by present Husker cager Bill Jackman. For his prep exploits, he was featured in Sports Illustrated's "Faces in the Crowd" section. Pre-medicine major. Son of Jerry and Jeanette Tomjack, he has one brother and one sister. Born Sept. 17, 1963, at Neligh, Neb.

CHRIS CARR . . . 21 . . . 6-1 . . . 200 . . . Senior . . . Wellfleet, Neb. . . . 2L 45

Carr split playing time and starts at safety last year with Bryan Siebler, then played both safety and monster in spring practice last April. At monster, he was locked in a spring-long contest with returning starter Brian Washington and junior Jeff Tomjack. When practice resumes in August, he'll be listed third just behind those two, but he'll still be a strong candidate for the top job, and will also be available at safety. Chris had 31 total tackles last year and led the secondary with 26 unassisted tackles. Broke up three passes and shared the team lead in interceptions with Washington at three—one of which he returned 56 yards for a touchdown against Illinois. Top tackle game was six vs. New Mexico; also had five unassisted stops against both Illinois and Oklahoma. Carr walked on in 1982 and was a reserve defensive back on that fall's 5-0 Husker freshman team. He redshirted in 1983, then was the Huskers' alternate safety behind All-American Bret Clark in 1984. As a sophomore, he had three regular-season tackles, then recorded the last of Nebraska's Sugar Bowl-record five interceptions in the Huskers' 28-10 win over Louisiana State. All-conference and honorable-mention all-state quarterback and defensive back for Coach Jim Tonniges at Medicine Valley High School in Curtis, Neb. Marketing education major in Teachers College. Son of Roscoe Carr Jr., he has two brothers and two sisters. Born Sept. 12, 1964, at North Platte, Neb.

SAFETIES

MARK BLAZEK . . . 20 . . . 6-2 . . . 200 . . . Sophomore . . . Valparaiso, Neb. 23

One of the true surprises of spring practice, Blazek started out listed seventh at the position, but ended up No. 2 behind senior starter Bryan Siebler. A 1984 walkon, he was a reserve safety for that fall's Husker junior varsity team, and was credited with five total tackles. Redshirted in 1985. Has a 4.70-second best in the 40. All-state and two-time all-conference selection while playing running back, wingback and safety for Coach Jack Gould at Raymond Central High School, which he led to records of 8-1, 9-1 and 10-2. Intercepted eight passes as a senior, returned one 101 yards for a touchdown in the state playoffs. Second-team all-state in basketball, he received Raymond Central's outstanding athlete awards in basketball and track his junior and senior years. An honor-roll student and a member of National Honor Society, he was listed in Who's Who Among American High School Students and in Distinguished American High School Students. Social science major in Teachers College. Son of James and Darlene Blazek, he has one brother and one sister. Born Dec. 30, 1965, in Lincoln.

DAN THAYER . . . 22 . . . 6-2 . . . 195 . . . Senior . . . Grand Island, Neb. . . . 1L 29

When practice resumes in August, Thayer will be listed third at safety behind returning starter Bryan Siebler and sophomore Mark Blazek, but should challenge for playing time. Lettered as a reserve last year when he played behind Siebler and Chris Carr. Thayer walked on in 1982 and became the starting safety for that fall's Husker freshman team halfway through a 5-0 season. Redshirted in 1983, then was a nonlettered varsity reserve in 1984. Played halfback and cornerback at Grand Island High School for Coach Ken Fischer (brother of former NU offensive line coach Cletus Fischer), earned all-conference honors, and was a prep teammate of former Husker fullback Tom Rathman. Finance major. Son of Ernie and Janice Thayer, he has two brothers. Born Nov. 25, 1963, at Grand Island.

PUNTERS/KICKERS

JOHN KROEKER . . . 20 . . . 5-11 . . . 180 . . . Sophomore . . . Henderson, Neb. 84

After redshirting in 1985, Kroeker (pronounced krohker) came on to become the Huskers' No. 1 punter last spring and has the potential to be a fine one. Averaged 44.0 yards on three punts in the Red-White game, with a long kick of 49 yards. A 1984 recruit, he averaged 40.6 yards on 24 punts for Nebraska's 4-1 junior varsity team that fall, and played some at split end, where he was the team's third-leading receiver, catching four passes for 47 yards. Multi-talented athlete at Henderson High School, where he was a Class C-2 all-state selection at three positions in football (I-back, punter, place-kicker), was an all-state guard in basketball, and was the state's prep athlete-of-the-year. Finished his prep football career with 672 points, second all-time nationally only to the 899 amassed by Ken Hall of Sugarland, Texas, in the early 1950s. As a senior, he rushed for 1,895 yards and 42 touchdowns, kicked five of seven field goals and had a 46.8-yard punting average for Coach Galen Kronhofman. Lettered four times each in football, basketball and track, and had a hand in four state championships (football in 1981 and 1983, basketball in 1984, track in 1983). Business administration major. Son of Harold and Doris Kroeker, he has three brothers. Born Nov. 14, 1965, at Henderson.

CHRIS DRENNAN . . . 19 . . . 5-9 . . . 175 . . . Sophomore . . . Cypress, Calif. 44

Drennan divided his time between the freshman and varsity teams after being recruited out of Cypress High School in 1985. Kicked four PAT's in two game appearances for the freshmen, and hit one of two field-goal attempts in two appearances with the varsity. The one he made was of 42 yards vs. New Mexico and, at the time, was the longest for the Huskers in four seasons. Appears to have a fine future, but there's a good chance he'll redshirt in 1986. Left-footed kicker turned down soccer scholarships to UCLA and Columbia, and an appointment to the U.S. Air Force Academy, to sign with the Huskers. Connected on seven of nine field-goal attempts as a high school senior, including boots of 52 and 51 yards. All-county and All-Empire League in soccer, scoring 25 goals in 14 games. Business administration major. Son of Robert and Jacqueline Drennan. Born Jan. 26, 1967, at Titusville, Fla.

CRAIG SCHNITZLER . . . 22 . . . 5-7 . . . 220 . . . Junior . . . Battle Creek Neb. 13

An unfortunate and persistent charley horse in his thigh cost Schnitzler essentially a full season in 1985—after he had apparently won the top place-kicking job. Schnitzler (pronounced snitz-ler) entered the season as the Huskers' No. 2 place-kicker behind Dale Klein, but got the top job for the Illinois game when Klein faltered in the opener vs. Florida State. Had a solid performance against the Illini, connecting on all seven of his PAT's, hitting a 35-yard field goal and missing a 39-yarder, but the charley horse showed up the following week and he never fully recovered the rest of the season. He's the younger brother of the Huskers' starting split end, Robb Schnitzler, who caught a 9-yard touchdown pass against Illinois, making them the first set of brothers to score in the same game for Nebraska. Craig walked on at Nebraska in 1983 and was the top punter and place-kicker for the 5-0 Husker freshman team that fall; averaged 34.9 yards on 14 punts, with a long of 58 yards; made 12 of 14 PAT's, but missed his two field-goal tries. Physical education major in Teachers College. Son of Robert and Lorraine Schnitzler, he has a brother and four sisters. His father was his prep football coach at Battle Creek High School. Born Aug. 5, 1965, at Norfolk, Neb.

1986 NEBRASKA FOOTBALL SCHOLARSHIP RECRUITS

PAUL BRUNGARDT, Off./Def. Lineman, 6-7, 225, Battle Creek, Neb.: Named by both the Lincoln Journal & Star and the Omaha World-Herald as an all-class, all-state offensive tackle for Class C-1 Battle Creek High School, Brungardt was also an outstanding defensive end. As a senior, he had 71 total tackles (two for safeties) and two blocked punts (one for a touchdown). Led Battle Creek to a 10-1 record and the semifinals of the Class C-1 state playoffs last year. He'll be the fourth Battle Creek grad to play for Nebraska in recent years, joining former defensive end letterman Wade Praeuner (1981-82-83) and two current Huskers, starting senior split end Robb Schnitzler and younger brother Craig, a junior place kicker. All played high school football for the Schnitzlers' father, Coach Bob Schnitzler. Brungardt, a cousin of former Husker reserve fullback Tim Brungardt, also played basketball and threw the shot put at Battle Creek. Son of Paul and Marg Brungardt. Born Nov. 9, 1967, at Denver, Colo.

CHRIS CALIENDO, Linebacker, 6-4, 210, Brookfield, Wis. (East): All-everything performer for Coach Doug Hinkel at the suburban Milwaukee school. Caliendo (pronounced CAL-ee-en-doe) averaged 10 unassisted tackles and seven assists per game as a linebacker in 1985 when he was named all-conference, all-district, all-area and all-state. Also a two-year offensive starter at center, he was a unanimous all-conference pick at both center and linebacker as a senior. Two-time all-league linebacker. Was chosen to play in the Wisconsin Shrine All-Star Game at Oshkosh. Twin brother Cary, a 6-3, 220-pound defensive end, signed a national letter-of-intent with Northern Illinois University, which is coached by former Husker aide Jerry Pettibone. (The Huskers and Huskies are scheduled to play each other in Lincoln in 1989 and 1990). Son of Chuck and Nancy Caliendo. Born April 8, 1967, at Milwaukee, Wis.

JON CRIPPEN, Defensive Back, 5-11, 180, Houston, Texas (Westfield): As a three-year starter for Coach Ron Anders at Class 5A Westfield High School, Crippen recorded nine career interceptions as a free safety. Crippen tallied a total of 58 tackles his senior year and for his efforts earned first-team all-district his junior and senior years. Crippen also lettered in track. Born Feb. 4, 1968, at Wichita Kan., Crippen is the son of Jack and Phyllis Crippen.

GERRY GDOWSKI, Quarterback, 6-2, 180, Fremont, Neb.: In his three-year career as a quarterback, Gdowski (pronounced guh-DOW-ski) passed for 2,600 yards and 34 TD's, and rushed for 1,100 yards. He also played defensive safety as a junior and senior, and wide receiver as a sophomore on teams coached by his father, Gerry. He earned first-team all-state honors as a quarterback his junior year, first-team all-state as a defensive back his senior year, and in one poll, was named as an honorable-mention All-American. Garnered all-conference honors in the Greater Nebraska Conference both his junior and senior years. Third-team all-state guard in basketball as a junior, second team as senior. Played for the Nebraska All-Star high school team that played in the summer Las Vegas tournament the past two years. Has good speed, as he won four gold medals at the state Class A track meet his junior year—in the 400- and 800-meter runs and as part of the 1,600- and 3,200-meter relays. Also earned two gold medals his sophomore and freshman years. The Omaha World-Herald named him as the 1985 Nebraska high school athlete-of-the-year, and received Lincoln Journal & Star athlete-of-the-year award in 1986. He was a member of the Lincoln Journal-Star all-academic team in 1985 with a 4.0 GPA. He's a cousin of Tom Gdowski, who played football for the Huskers in 1980-81-82. Born in Kearney, Neb., on Aug. 9, 1967, he is the son of Gerry and Carol Gdowski.

Dedication

Dr. Martin A. Massengale
Chancellor
University of Nebraska

The 1986 University of Nebraska Football Guide is dedicated to the University's Chancellor, Dr. Martin A. Massengale.

Since assuming the duties of Chancellor on June 1, 1981, Dr. Massengale has taken an active role in the development of intercollegiate athletics at the institutional, conference and national levels. An avid fan, the Chancellor also has been a leader in advancing the image and integrity of athletics at all levels.

In June, Chancellor Massengale was elected Chairman of the Board of the College Football Association, a tribute to his personal leadership in providing support for the athletic program at the University of Nebraska, as well as to his leadership in developing outstanding athletic ideals within the Big Eight Conference, the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the College Football Association.

Chancellor Massengale is also active in the NCAA, serving on the President's Commission, and he also is a member of the National Merit Scholar Corporation board as well as ranking as a noted specialist in crop production, soil management, botany and plant pathology.

The 1986 Nebraska Football Media Guide is dedicated to a leader in academics, administration and athletics—Dr. Martin A. Massengale.

Coach
Tom Osborne

TOM OSBORNE

Head Football Coach
Asst. Athletic Director

Long established as the premier offensive coach in the nation, Tom Osborne heads into his 14th campaign at Nebraska, firmly entrenched as a top candidate for the Football Hall of Fame.

Since taking the reins from Bob Devaney—already enshrined in the Hall of Fame—in 1972, Osborne has compiled a remarkable record of 127 wins, with only 30 losses and two ties. That's a winning percentage of .805, which spells big winner in any league.

More important, perhaps, is a string of 13 consecutive bowl appearances with teams that have won nine or more games each time out. During the past four years, the Huskers have travelled at an .860 clip, posting a 43-7 record. Every one of Tom's teams have wound up in the Top 10 rankings of either the AP or UPI, or both, solid testimony of the nation's most consistent college football program.

While the 1985 Cornhuskers wound up with a 9-3 record, including a 28-24 loss to Michigan in the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl, many observers credited Osborne with his finest coaching job. It would certainly go down as his toughest challenge, and the 49-year-old native of Hastings, Nebraska responded in dramatic fashion.

With only two returning starters on offense and defense, the Huskers faced a monumental re-building chore that would have tested even the strongest coach. Osborne took on the challenge after under-going open-heart, coronary by-pass surgery the week of national letter-signing. Displaying uncommon toughness, Dr. Tom bounced back to conduct spring practice and prepare the young team for a rugged campaign that saw the Huskers win the national rushing title and play national champion Oklahoma for the Big Eight crown.

It's worth noting, too, that Osborne's teams have won the rushing title four times, finished second once and third once during the past six years.

Adding even more luster to Osborne's coaching career is the fact that the Cornhuskers have made history by producing three consecutive Outland Trophy winners (Dave Rimington in 1981 and 1982 and Dean Steinkuhler in 1983) and two consecutive Lombardi winners (Rimington in 1982 and Steinkuhler in 1983), while also winning the 1983 Heisman Trophy (Mike Rozier).

During Tom's 13-year career, the Huskers have produced 27 All-America players, and 21 Academic All-America players, as well as seven NCAA post-graduate scholarship winners and three National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete recipients.

Under Osborne, Nebraska has extended its string of consecutive top-10 rankings to 16, and consecutive bowl appearances to 17, top mark in the nation.

Only one Osborne-coached team has finished lower than second in the Big Eight—the 1976 team which tied for fourth, but only one game out of a first-ever three-way tie for first. His teams have won or shared the conference title six times in the past ten years (1975, 1978, 1981, 1982, 1983 and 1984.)

He has three times been named Big Eight coach-of-the-year (1975, 1978 and 1980), and four times been named District VI coach-of-the-year by the American Football Coaches Association and Kodak (1978, 1979, 1980 and 1983.) In addition, in 1978, he was named Bobby Dodds National Coach-of-the-Year by the Atlanta Quarterback Club and Delta Air Lines for his efforts toward the advancement of the higher and more notable aspects of college coaching. And in 1983, Football News named Osborne national Coach-of-the-Year.

In 1982, he was the first recipient of the Distinguished Nebraskalander Award from the Nebraskaland Foundation and in 1983 he was named national coach-of-the-year by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

He's also an author, having published a book entitled More Than Winning in 1985.

Osborne, who graduated from Hastings College in 1959 before logging pro time with the Washington Redskins and San Francisco 49ers, joined Devaney as an assistant in 1962. In 1965 he received his Ph.D. in educational psychology, then elected football coaching as a career. He coached the Husker receivers and helped build the NU offense into one of the most potent in the nation during the 1970 and 1971 national championship years.

While Osborne was a newcomer to the head coaching ranks in 1973, he was no stranger to Nebraska football. Osborne was a member of Bob Devaney's incomparable staff for 11 years—the last six as a key organizer of a steamroller offense.

During his tenure on the Devaney staff, Osborne headed the passing game strategy and coached the receivers. When Devaney announced his retirement from coaching in favor of full-time athletic director duties following the 1971 season, he announced Osborne as his designated successor. Osborne served as assistant head coach and director of recruiting in Devaney's final campaign in 1972, then took the head coaching reins in 1973.

An outstanding high school athlete at Hastings High School in the mid 1950s, Osborne was named Nebraska prep Athlete of the Year. Passing up major college offers, Osborne became the star quarterback and basketball player for Hastings College where both his father and grandfather had matriculated. At Hastings, he played both football and basketball for Coach Tom McLaughlin, who was elected to the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 1982. In 1959 he was named State College Athlete of the Year—the first athlete in Nebraska history to win both the high school and college honor.

Following graduation from Hastings with a bachelor's degree, Osborne played two years with the Washington Redskins and one year with the San Francisco 49ers as a flankerback before returning to Nebraska.

In 1962 he contacted Bob Devaney and secured a position as a graduate assistant on the Husker staff. He continued in that capacity until he obtained his master's degreein 1963. Continuing his dual role in education and football coaching, Osborne gained his doctorate in 1965 and, holding the academic rank of instructor of educational psychology in Teacher's College, was a half-time coach.

Osborne, born Feb. 23, 1937, elected to pursue coaching full-time in 1967 and became the Huskers' receivers coach, a decision that NU fans have applauded since.

Married to the former Nancy Tederman, Osborne is the father of a son, Mike and daughters, Ann and Susie. Mike is following in his father's footsteps by playing football at Hastings College, where he's a senior quarterback.

Husker Coaching Staff

CHARLIE McBRIDE, Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Line Coach

Charlie McBride is starting his 10th year on Coach Tom Osborne's Nebraska staff and his fifth as defensive coordinator. In 1984, McBride coordinated a defensive unit that led the nation in total defense and scoring defense, while ranking fourth against the run and fifth against the pass. Charlie has served as the Huskers' defensive line coach since coming to Nebraska in 1977 and, in that time, has produced such Big Eight stars as Rod Horn, Kerry Weinmaster and David Clark and All America tackle Jim Skow. McBride was an All-Big Eight end and punter at Colorado and, after receiving his bachelor's degree from CU in 1962, he played one season for the Denver Broncos of the old AFL. He returned to Colorado and served as a graduate assistant with the Buffs before becoming head coach at Chicago's Fenger High School. He was an assistant coach for Frank Kush at Arizona State for three seasons (1967-69), then went on to Coach John Jardine's staff at Wisconsin where he was offensive line coach for six years (1970-75) and defensive line coach and defensive coordinator for one (1976). A native of Chicago, McBride was a four-sport letterman (football, basketball, baseball and track) at Morgan Park High School where he earned prep All-America honors in football and baseball. He's married to the former Deborah Anne Denniston of Barrington, Ill., and they have three sons—Mike, Jeff and David—and one grandson.

GEORGE DARLINGTON, Secondary Coach

Coach Darlington has been with Tom Osborne from the start of the era, and will be serving his 14th year on the staff, but his first as secondary coach. His previous post was with the defensive ends, and he moved to the secondary following Bob Thornton's departure for private business. George helped develop four Husker All-America defensive ends—George Andrews, Jimmy Williams, Derrie Nelson, and Bob Martin. Prior to joining Osborne in 1973, George was an assistant coach at San Jose State for four years. Darlington started his college coaching career at Lebanon Valley (Pa.) College and after four years moved to Dartmouth for a year before going to San Jose State. He also coached two years at Johnson Regional High School in Clark, N.J. Following graduation from Rutgers University in 1961 (B.S. in history and physical education), George received his master's degree from Stanford University in 1962. While at Rutgers, Darlington lettered in football in 1959 and 1960, and also lettered twice in lacrosse, earning third-team All-America honors in 1961. George and his wife, Susan, have three children, Lisa, David and Julia.

GENE HUEY, Receivers Coach

A former standout player and veteran coach, Gene Huey moves into his 10th year on Tom Osborne's staff. He came to Nebraska in 1977 after four years at Wyoming and three years at the University of New Mexico. A cousin of former Husker great Ben (Pope) Gregory, Huey was a star for Lloyd Eaton's University of Wyoming teams (1966-1968) before playing in the NFL with the St. Louis Cardinals, the Minnesota Vikings and the San Diego Chargers. A former receiving star, himself, as well as a standout defensive back, Huey has developed some outstanding Husker receivers—All-Americans Irving Fryar and Junior Miller and All-Big Eight stars such as Kenny Brown, Jamie Williams and Tim Smith—the latter a mainstay with the Houston Oilers. At Wyoming, Huey set 13 school receiving records and he was the first two-way player in the Western Athletic Conference to make All-WAC on offense (1967) and All-WAC on defense (1968). He co-captained the 1968 Wyoming team which won a third-straight WAC title. Gene played in the 1968 All-American and Shrine East-West games. A native of Uniontown, Pa., and a graduate of Uniontown High School, which produced Gregory and former Husker cage star Stuart Lantz in the same era, Huey received a bachelor's degree from Wyoming in 1971. Gene is a bachelor.

JOHN MELTON, Linebackers Coach

The last member still going strong from the Bob Devaney crew which came to Nebraska from Wyoming in 1962, John Melton is starting his 25th year at NU. It will be his 15th season as varsity linebacker coach, sandwiched around four years (1973-76) as the tight ends and wingbacks coach for Tom Osborne. John was Devaney's freshman coach from 1962 to 1966 and posted a record of 12-2-0. Such Husker stars as Mike Knox, Marc Munford, Jerry Murtaugh, Bob Terrio, Tom Ruud, Bob Nelson and Clete Pillen all developed under Melton's tutelage. John coached five years for Devaney at the University of Wyoming after posting a 47-13-0 record at Thermopolis, Wyo. High School. A three-year prep star at Union High in Burgettstown, Pa., Melton served in the U.S. Army infantry during World War II, then played three years as a standout fullback for the Wyoming Cowboys. He received his bachelor's degree in 1951. John and his wife, Beverly, are the parents of two daughters, Cindy and Margi, and a son, Mike, and the Meltons also have three grandchildren.

JACK PIERCE, Off-Campus Recruiting

Jack Pierce is in his fourth season as the Cornhusker staff's off-campus recruiter after serving five years as an assistant football coach on Tom Osborne's staff. Prior to joining the Huskers, Jack had a successful prep coaching career at Cobb High School in Anniston, Ala. (1970-1972), and Anniston High (1973-1977) before serving one year at Lincoln High in Nebraska. A native of Watertown, Conn., where he attended high school, Pierce prepped at Sacred Heart High School in Waterbury, Conn., then lettered in football and baseball at Huron College in South Dakota. He received his bachelor's degree from Huron and his master's degree in educational administration from Jacksonville State University in Alabama in 1976. He also received a specialist degree in educational administration from Jacksonville State in 1977. Jack travels throughout the nation, serving as the Huskers, chief off-campus recruiter. He's married to the former Victoria Schinkel and they have a daughter, Audra Lee, and a son, Justin.

Phones: Office—402-472-3116; Home—402-488-8942.

TONY SAMUEL, Defensive Ends Coach

The newest addition to the Husker staff is Tony Samuel. A defensive end for Nebraska in 1975-77, Samuel rejoined the Huskers in March as defensive ends coach. In 1984 and 1985, he served as the defensive ends coach for Stanford University where he coached Garin Veris, a second-round draft pick for the New England Patriots who played in the 1986 Super Bowl. Samuel spent the 1982 and 1983 football seasons at Western Michigan University as the defensive line coach. During his two-year stint, the Broncos led the Mid-American Conference in defense. A two-year starter for the Huskers, Samuels earned honorable mention All-Big Eight status and was named the Optimist Club defensive lineman of the year in 1977. Samuels earned his bachelor's degree in education from Nebraska in 1979, and served as a part-time assistant for the Huskers in 1978-81. He is married to the former Diane Ausdemore and they have two children, three-year-old Travis, and one-year-old Serena.

Phones: Office—402-472-3116; Home—402-423-3596

FRANK SOLICH, Running Backs Coach

A former Husker fullback star, Frank Solich has used his playing experience to become a coach who has a knack for developing star running backs. Starting his eighth year on Tom Osborne's staff and his third as backfield coach, Frank had the distinction of coaching a Heisman Trophy winner (Mike Rozier) in his first season as skipper of the running backs. Each of the last two years, Solich has coached All-Big Eight running backs. In 1984, I-backs Jeff Smith and Doug DuBose were all-conference backs. In 1985, DuBose repeated and was joined by fullback Tom Rathman. Solich was himself an All-Big Eight fullback and co-captain of the Cornhuskers' undefeated 1965 team, despite weighing under 160 pounds. He held the single-game rushing record (204 yards against Air Force in 1965) until 1975, and also lettered in baseball. Following graduation, Frank coached at Holy Name High School in Omaha for two seasons then moved to Lincoln Southeast where he produced standout teams from 1968 to 1979. After joining the Nebraska staff, he was the head freshman coach for four years, posting a 19-1 record, including undefeated 5-0 seasons in 1980, 1981 and 1982. Solich prepped at Holy Name High in Cleveland, Ohio, and received his bachelor's degree from Nebraska in 1966. He received a master's degree from Nebraska in 1972. Frank married the former Pamela Wieck of Beatrice and they have two children, Cindy and Jeffrey.

MILT TENOPIR, Offensive Line Coach

Milt Tenopir teammed up with Cletus Fischer to coach the Nebraska offensive line for the past 12 years and in 1986 he will team with Dan Young. No college football team can claim the honors piled up by Nebraska offensive linemen during the Tenopir–Fischer span—three-straight Outland-Lombardi winners (Dave Rimington and Dean Steinkuhler) and All-Americans Rik Bonness, Tom Davis, Kelvin Clark, Randy Schleusener, Mark Traynowicz and Harry Grimminger, plus a host of All-Big Eight selections. Tenopir posted a 76-34-1 record as a high school coach in Kansas, Colorado and Nebraska. He coached the Colorado All-Star Game in 1968 and coached in the Nebraska Shrine Bowl Game in 1972 and 1974. A native of Harvard, Neb., and a graduate of Harvard High, Tenopir received his bachelor's degree from Sterling (Kan.) College, and took graduate studies at Kansas State, Adams State and Western State. Milt is the father of three children, daughters Kim and Pamela, and son Todd.

Phones: Office—402-472-3116; Home—466-0985.

DAN YOUNG, Offensive Line/Kickers Coach

Dan Young became an offensive line coach with Milt Tenopir when Cletus Fischer retired from coaching after the 1985 season. Dan had served three years as head Freshman-JV coach, posting a 14-1-0 record.

Young came to Nebraska after six highly-successful years as the head coach at Omaha Westside High School where his Warriors were 55-11 from 1977-1982, reached the state championship game three times, and posted back-to-back 12-0 state championship seasons in 1981 and 1982. He began his coaching career as head coach at Barneston, Neb., High School from 1962-64 (25-3), then, after a year as an assistant coach at St. Paul, Neb., High School, he was an assistant at Omaha Westside for 11 years.

A graduate of Primrose, Neb., High School, Young received his bachelor's degree from Kearney State in 1962. He has done graduate work at Nebraska–Omaha, Missouri and Reed College, and received a master's degree in liberal studies from Reed in 1972.

He's married to the former Carolyn Sue Scaggs of Hastings, Neb., and they have a son, Jeff, and a daughter, Kris.

Phones: Office 402-472-3116; Home 397-5534.

SCOTT DOWNING, Freshman/Junior Varsity Coach

Scott Downing takes over the all-important task of coaching the Nebraska freshman/junior varsity team in 1986, replacing Dan Young, who moves up to the varsity to coach the offensive line and kickers. A former head coach at Sterling (Kan.) College, Downing, 29, was a graduate assistant on Young's staff the last two years and was defensive coordinator for 1985's 5-0 team. He'll also handle data processing for the varsity this fall.

A native of Kansas City, Mo., Downing graduated from Park Hill High School there in 1975, and went on to earn a bachelor's degree in history in 1979 from Sterling, the same school which graduated NU offensive line coach Milt Tenopir. Downing played offensive guard for the Warriors, then served as an assistant coach in 1980 and 1981 before becoming the head coach for two seasons. His 1982 and 1983 teams finished 7-2-1 and 6-2-0, and were both ranked in the NAIA Division II top 20.

He is married to the former Karen Allan of Vevay, Ind.

Phones: Office—402-472-3116; Home—402-435-6745.

DAVE GILLESPIE, On-Campus Recruiter

Dave Gillespie is in his first year of full-time status as the Huskers' on-campus recruiting coordinator, having taken over for Steve Pederson in March 1986. Gillespie earned three letters as an I-back for the Huskers from 1974-76, and earned his bachelor's degree from Nebraska in education in 1977. He stayed on as a graduate assistant coach for the Huskers one semester before he became the head assistant football coach at Lincoln High School, a position he held for four years. He was then named the head football coach at Hastings (Neb.) High School in 1982. Gillespie returned to the Husker football program as a graduate assistant to the recruiting coordinator in the fall of 1985. Gillespie is married to the former Anne Van Pelt and they have three daughters, five-year-old Katherine, two-year-old Nicole and Emily, newborn.

BOYD EPLEY, Strength and Conditioning Coach

Boyd has been associated with the University of Nebraska for 17 years, first as an athlete and later as a leader in the field of athletic strength and conditioning programs. He is the founder and former president of the National Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association. In 1980, he was voted national strength coach of the year. Many of Boyd's former assistants are now head strength coaches at colleges and professional teams throughout the country. During his tenure at Nebraska, Boyd has developed year-round strength programs for men and women. Epley prepped at Alhambra High School in Phoenix, Ariz., where he played football and competed in track. At Phoenix Junior College, he captained the track team and starred as a pole vaulter. He became the Nebraska pole vault record-holder as a junior, but a back injury forced him out of competition in his senior year. He turned his interest to strength training and participated three years in AAU Olympic lifting, powerlifting and physique competition. Boyd received his associate's degree from Phoenix JC in 1968 and his bachelor's degree from Nebraska in 1970. In 1972 he received a master's degree from Nebraska. He is married to the former Jane Lilyhorn of Holdrege, and they have a son, Jay Robert, and a daughter, Jenna.

MIKE ARTHUR, Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Mike Arthur is serving his 11th year as assistant strength and conditioning coach. He is Boyd Epley's chief aide, and his main responsibilities center around helping Nebraska football players achieve their full potential. Mike has also served as supervisor of recreational lifting, as well as a teacher for co-ed weight training classes and as supervisor of the Bob Devaney Sports Center weight room. Long active in weight lifting, Mike was named Most Valuable Lifter when he was a freshman at Nebraska. He retired from competition after winning the national collegiate championships and setting a world record deadlift. Mike received his bachelor's degree from the University of Nebraska in 1977.

INSTITUTIONAL REPRESENTATIVE
Dr. James O'Hanlon

Dr. James O'Hanlon, Dean of Teachers College, became Nebraska's Institutional Representative to the Big Eight Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association, Sept. 1, 1982.

Dr. O'Hanlon has been a member of the University of Nebraska faculty since 1966 when he came to NU from Ohio University as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Secondary Education. He was elevated to Associate Professor in 1967 and to Professor in 1970.

While at Nebraska, he served as the director of the NUSTEP program for teacher education (1969-72), Coordinator of Freshman Programming for the Office of Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs (1973-74), chaired the Governor's Committee on the use of Hiram Scott College (1973), chaired the Nebraska Coordinating Commission for Post-Secondary Education (1974-75), and served as president of the University of Nebraska–Lincoln Faculty Senate in 1981. In 1972, he received the Foundation Distinguished Teaching Award.

From 1975 to 1977, he chaired the Department of Physical Education and Recreation, then became Director of the new School of Health, Physical Education and Recreation (HPER). He served in that position until being named acting Dean of Teachers College, July 1, 1982. He was named Dean of Teacher College, May 1, 1983.

A native of Blair, Neb., O'Hanlon attended Grinnell College in Grinnell, Iowa, and received a bachelor's degree in history from Nebraska in 1957. He earned his master's degree in secondary education from Ohio State University in 1958, then served as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army.

From 1959 to 1962, he was a secondary school teacher in Parma, Ohio, and Fremont, Neb., then served as a part-time instructor at the University of Nebraska and Assistant Principal at University High School while pursuing an Ed.D. in secondary education and educational psychology, which he received from the University in 1964. He served as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Secondary Education at Ohio University from 1964 to 1966, and was named to the Honor Roll of Faculty at Ohio U. in 1965.

O'Hanlon and his wife, Gail, are the parents of three children, Greg, Susan, and Tim.

Office Phone: 402-472-5400.

BOB DEVANEY

Athletic Director
University of Nebraska

Bob Devaney continues to lead the Nebraska Athletic Department with the same vigor, enthusiasm and administrative excellence that marked him as one of America's greatest football coaches during his colorful gridiron career.

Devaney is in his 25th year of providing drive, leadership and pride in the Cornhusker athletic program. He arrived in 1962, charged with the mission of building a successful football program, and he succeeded far beyond anyone's expectations. During an 11-year stint as Husker football coach, Devaney's teams won 101, lost only 20 and tied two for a winning percentage of .829. His career mark of 136-30-7 for .806 ranked him as the winningest coach in the nation at the time of his retirement in 1973. Devaney's teams won eight Big Eight titles and two national championships during the 1962-72 span, with his teams going to nine bowl games. He twice won four consecutive Big Eight titles.

Devaney's 1971 team, which posted a 13-0 record, and twice played for the national championship (beating Oklahoma, 35-31, in the "Game of the Century," and Alabama, 38-6, in the Orange Bowl) has been hailed as the best college team of all time. Bob was inducted into the National Football Foundation's Hall of Fame in 1981.

Since becoming athletic director in 1967, Devaney has brought the same success to the overall Husker athletic program that he brought to the football program. Under his leadership, Nebraska annually sets the pace in the Big Eight all-sports race with solid entries in all men's and women's sports.

Under Devaney's guidance, Memorial Stadium has been enlarged, artificial turf has been installed and replaced three times, a Stadium Office building was constructed, and sports facilities such as the Otto and Gladys Baumann Baseball Complex, Buck Beltzer Stadium, Ed Weir Track and the women's softball stadium have come into being.

It was Devaney's leadership, working in conjunction with the Nebraska Legislature, that resulted in the passage of a special cigarette tax to provide funds for a new athletic complex, the beautiful basketball arena-indoor track-swimming and other sports building which opened on the State Fair Grounds in 1976. University of Nebraska Regents recognized Devaney's contributions to that four-and-a-half-acre structure by naming it the Bob Devaney Sports Center in 1978.

Devaney received many other honors during his coaching career. He was named coach-of-the-year by the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers of America, Football News and the Washington TD Club in 1971, and he was tabbed to coach in numerous all-star games such as the Hula Bowl, Coaches All-America, Blue-Gray and Shrine East-West. He also coached the College All-Stars against the Dallas Cowboys in the 1972 Chicago game.

A graduate of Alma (Michigan) College in 1939, Devaney served as a high school coach at Big Beaver, Keego Harbor, Saginaw and Alpena in Michigan before joining Biggie Munn and Duffy Daugherty at Michigan State. In 1957 he became head coach at Wyoming where his teams posted a 35-10-5 record.

Devaney is married to the former Phyllis Wiley. They have a son, Mike, and a daughter, Pat, both graduates of the University of Nebraska. Bob and Phyllis also have two grandchildren.

DON BRYANT, Assistant Athletic Director, Sports Information Director and Bob Devaney Sports Center Director

"Fox" is one of the real veterans on the Husker staff, serving as Assistant Athletic Director for the past 11 years and as Sports Information Director for the past 24 years. In September of 1985 he also assumed the duties of Director of the Bob Devaney Sports Center when Jim Ross retired. A graduate of the University of Nebraska, he has twice served on active duty in the U.S. Marine Corps, in addition to working on the staff of the Lincoln Star, where he was sports editor from 1954 to 1963. Bryant is the executive secretary of the Nebraska Touchdown Club and also serves as secretary of the Nebraska Chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame. He is past president of the College Sports Information Directors of America and in 1981 received the Arch Ward Memorial Award for outstanding service to the profession. Don was a member of the 1980 and 1984 U.S. Winter Olympic teams, serving as media liaison at Lake Placid and Sarajevo. He is a member of the USOC Public Relations Committee and also has served for the past 11 years as a member of the NCAA Media Services Staff at the Final Four basketball tournaments. In 1979 he was the chief U.S. press officer to the World Cup Games at Montreal. A member of the CoSIDA Hall of Fame, Don is a past president of the Nebraska Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association. He is also active in the American Legion and many other local and civic organizations. "Fox" is married to the former Joan (Pedie) Peden of Oakland, Neb., and they have two sons, Bill and Jeff, and three grandchildren.

TOM SIMONS, Associate Sports Information Director

Now in the fifth year of his second tour of duty as Nebraska's assistant sports information director and second year as Associate SID is Tom Simons, who began his association with the Husker SID office in 1971. Simons served as assistant SID from early 1971 through the spring of 1974 when he left to become assistant publicity director for the St. Louis Football Cardinals.

After two years in St. Louis, he was named sports information director at Southern Illinois University–Carbondale in August 1976, and worked as the Salukis' chief publicist for four years. He resigned at SIU in August 1980 and returned to Lincoln where he worked as a part-time staffer for the Lincoln Journal-Star sports department while attending NU. He became assistant SID at Nebraska for the second time in August 1981.

Simons, 36, is a native of Valentine, Neb., and graduated from Valentine High School in 1968. His first association with NU athletics was a two-year stint as manager for the Husker wrestling team in 1968-69 and 1970-71.

Office phone: 402-472-2263; home: 402-421-1789.

CHRIS BOUMA, Assistant Sports Information Director

After serving two years as the assistant sports information director at Kansas State University, Bouma returned to her alma mater in January 1986 to assume the position of assistant sports information director for the Huskers. Bouma graduated from the University of Nebraska in 1983 with a bachelor's degree in broadcasting/advertising from the School of Journalism. While working on her undergraduate degree, Bouma served as a student assistant in the Husker sports information office from 1979 to 1983. A native of Panama, Neb., Bouma graduated from Norris High School in 1979.

Office phone: 402-472-2263; home: 402-475-7907.

TERRY BEEK, Assistant Sports Information Director
Director of Women's Sports Information

A native of Ballston Spa, N.Y., Beek joined the University of Nebraska Sports Information staff in the fall of 1980 as an assistant sports information director and director of women's sports information.

He came to the Huskers after serving as the SID at Plymouth State College of the University of New Hampshire System (1979-80) and Central University of Iowa (1975-79).

Beek is a graduate of Central were he earned his B.A. in physical education, after receiving an A.A. degree in P.E. from Hudson Valley Community College in Troy, N.Y. He is a member of several professional organizations.

He is married to the former Karen S. DeYong of Lincoln, Neb., and they have a daughter, Allyss, and a son, Ashtyn.

Office phone: 402/472-2263; home: 402-488-4079.

SPORTS INFORMATION SECRETARIES

Janette Sojka

Vicki Cartwright

Janette Sojka is beginning her eighth year in the Husker Sports Information office, where she serves as secretary to Don Bryant, coordinator of football program advertising, media housing and credentials, in addition to other duties. She is married to Bruno Sojka and they have an 11-year-old son, Jason.

Vicki Cartwright is completing her sixth year at Nebraska and she serves as secretary to Tom Simons, as well as SI Office Staff Coordinator, in addition to other duties. She is married to Shawn Cartwright and they have a 4-year-old son, Erik, and a daughter, Sara, 1. She is the daughter of assistant equipment manager Walt Johnson.

AL PAPIK, Assistant to A.D. for Academic Affairs/Counseling

Al Papik, former Director of Admissions and Advising and a noted authority on NCAA eligibility and admissions procedures, is the assistant to the athletic director for academic programs at the University of Nebraska.

Papik coordinates the overall academic, counseling and advising program for both men and women athletes, assisted by women's academic counselor Jann Steel and men's academic counselor Marsha Shada.

Papik joined the UNL staff in 1973 as Director of Admissions after serving in the same capacity at Doane College. From 1955 to 1972, Papik was the highly successful football coach and athletic director at Doane, as well as being involved in admissions activities and as a professor of physical education.

A graduate of Doane College, Papik received his Master of Education from the University of Nebraska. He was a coach and teacher at Crete and Laurel high schools prior to joining the Doane staff. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II.

Papik is a member of the American and Nebraska Associations of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers, the Nebraska Personnel and Guidance Association and the National Association of College Admissions Counselors.

Phones: Office—402-472-2042; Home—402-423-1717.

MARSHA SHADA, Assistant Academic Counselor

Marsha is in her fourth year as an academic counselor in the Husker Athletic Department. She received a bachelor's degree from Kearney State College in 1969 and a master's degree from Kearney in 1974. Prior to joining the Cornhusker athletic department staff, Marsha taught physical education in the Bellevue Public Schools and worked as a pre-sentence investigator for the State of Nebraska Adult Probation Office. She also served as a consultant in guidance and counseling for the Nebraska Department of Education.

Phones: Office—402-472-2042; Home—402-423-1669.

GARY L. FOURAKER, Assistant to the Athletic Director for Business and Finance

After serving the University of Nebraska administration in several positions for 13 years, Gary Fouraker begins his sixth year with the athletic department. He handles all departmental fiscal matters, manages all athletic concessions and is in charge of team travel and accomodations for the Cornhusker football team when it is on the road.

Gary holds an associate degree in computer technology from SCC-Milford, a bachelor's degree in business from NU and an MBA, which he received in July, 1984.

Gary is the father of two children, Kari and Robert. Office Phone: 402-472-2773.

NORMA KNOBEL, Assistant Business Manager

Norma Knobel is entering her sixth year as the assistant business manager after serving eight years in the business office under retired business manager Bill Fischer.

In her 20th year with the University, Knobel assists business manager Gary Fouraker in the department's fiscal matters.

Office Phone: 402-472-2273.

HUSKER FACT

Nebraska's first night football game was Nov. 30, 1951, at Miami's Orange Bowl when the Huskers lost to the Miami Hurricanes, 19-7. Ironically, Nebraska's first night football game at home will be against another team from the "Sunshine State"—Florida State in this year's opener, Sept. 6. Nebraska is 17-6-2 all-time under the lights, including last year's 34-24 win at Oklahoma State—but not including recent televised games which had mid- to late-afternoon kickoffs and used portable lights.

CLETUS FISCHER, Wheel/Beef Club Director

Cletus Fischer has assumed the duties of Wheel Club and Beef Club director, following retirement from coaching after 26 years on the Husker football staff. Fischer served on Coach Bill Jennings' staff as offensive backfield coach in 1960 and 1961, remained as freshman line coach under Bob Devaney from 1962-66, then was head freshman coach in 1967 and 1968 (8-0-0) before becoming varsity offensive line coach in 1969, where he has remained for 17 seasons, the last 12 under Coach Tom Osborne. During his tenure as line coach, Nebraska had such offensive line luminaries as Outland-Lombardi winners Dave Rimington and Dean Steinkuhler and nine other first-team All-Americans. A graduate of St. Edward, Neb., High School, Clete came to Nebraska and was a star halfback for the Huskers in 1945-46-47-48, starting a long-standing Fischer family tradition at NU. He was followed as a Husker gridder by brothers Kenny, Rex and Pat (the longtime St. Louis Cardinals-Washington Redskins star), and sons Pat, Tim and Dan. Daughter Kerry was a Husker softball letter winner and daughter Kathleen was a member of the Huskerettes, a dance-spirit group at Nebraska basketball games. Following his career at Nebraska, Cletus played one season with the NFL New York Giants, then began his coaching career at his prep alma mater, St. Edward. He followed that with high school stints at Columbus, Neb., St. Bonaventure, Omaha South and Midland, Texas, before joining the Husker staff. Fischer received his bachelor's degree from Nebraska in 1949, then earned a master's degree from NU in 1957. He is married to the former Doris Heller of DeWitt, Neb., and they are the parents of four sons and two daughters, and grandchildren.

Phones: Office—402-472-3665; Home—402-489-4159.

HELEN RUTH WAGNER, Ticket Manager

Helen Ruth Wagner begins her 10th year as Nebraska's ticket manager, after serving more than a year-and-a-half (1976-77) as the acting ticket manager, following Jim Pittenger's January 1976 stroke. 'Pitt' had been the Husker ticket head and assistant athletic director since 1962.

Mrs. Wagner started working in the Nebraska Ticket Office in 1963, when she served as Pittenger's office superintendent.

One of her many duties as the Husker ticket manager is to coordinate ticket sales for all Husker home and away sporting events.

She is an alumnus of the University of Nebraska and the Lincoln School of Commerce.

She and her husband, Glenn, who is the executive director of the Nebraska Shrine Bowl, have three daughter's, Susan Tinstman, Cindy Lauterbach, and Sally Butler. Helen and Glenn have four grandchildren.

Office Phone: 402-472-3111.

JOE SELIG, Associate Ticket Manager

Now in his fifth year as the Huskers' associate ticket manager is Joe Selig, 26, who has worked in the ticket office since starting as a student worker in his sophomore year at the University in 1977.

A native of Fairbury, Neb., Selig grew up in Alexandria, Neb., and graduated from nearby Meridian High School in 1976. He received a bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1980 and went to work full time in the athletic ticket office, then was named assistant ticket manager in 1982.

Selig is married to the former Patty Miller of Daykin, Neb., and the couple has a daughter, Lindsay.

Office Phone: 402-472-3111.

BILL SHEPARD, Grounds Manager

The man who has the responsibility of keeping the Cornhuskers physical plant in operating condition is grounds manager Bill Shepard, in his 27th year. Shepard, who joined the NU staff in 1960, is in charge of the upkeep of Memorial Stadium, Schulte Field House, Ed Weir Track, Buck Beltzer Field and the football practice fields.

Shepard and his wife, Eva, are the parents of three children: Pamela, Tom and Kathy.

Office Phone: 402-472-2290.

NEBRASKA MEDICAL STAFF

George Sullivan
Head Trainer and
Physical Therapist

Jerry Weber
Asst. Trainer and
Physical Therapist

Roland E. "Duke" LaRue
Asst. Trainer and
Physical Therapist

Jack Nicolite
Assistant Trainer

Dr. Samuel I. Fuenning, Director of Athletic Medicine, heads a veteran medical team which includes team physicians Dr. Pat Clare (orthopedics), Dr. Tom Heiser (orthopedics), and Dr. Lonnie Albers (family practice); Head Trainer and Physical Therapist George Sullivan; Assistant Trainer and Physical Therapist Jerry Weber; Assistant Trainer Jack Nicolite and Assistant Trainer and Physical Therapist Roland "Duke" LaRue, who also serves on the Student Health staff.

Sullivan, who is beginning his 33rd year with the University, received his bachelor's and master's degrees from NU and his physical therapy degree from Iowa. Among his many accomplishments, Sullivan has been honored by the U.S. Olympic Committee by being trainer for the 1959 Pan American Games in Chicago and head trainer for the 1963 Pan Am Games in Sao Paulo, Brazil. He was named head trainer for both the Mexico City and Munich Olympic Games but turned these down to be with his Big Red football teams. Other honors include being Honor Trainer for the Drake Relays, the Presidential Citation for Physical Fitness, the Citizen's Saving Trainers Hall of Fame and KFOR Radio "1980 Sportsman of the Year." Most recently, he was honored by the Nebraska State Physical Therapy Association with its M.E. Sacksteder Award, the group's highest honor for outstanding contributions to physical therapy. He is often a guest speaker for the AMA, National Athletic Trainers Association, American Physical Therapy Association, and the state coaches associations throughout the Midwest. Sullivan is married to the former Emogene "Genie" Pearson and they have three married sons—Greg, Gary, and Glen and three granddaughters.

Sullivan heads a staff which includes two therapist-trainers, three other certified athletic trainers and eight student trainers—all required to care for the over 500 student-athletes in both men's and women's athletic departments.

Assistant Trainer Jerry Weber is in his 10th year on the staff. A Nebraska native from Sidney, Weber earned a bachelor's degree in zoology from Nebraska in 1974. He earned his physical therapy degree from the NU College of Medicine in 1976 and his master's from Western Illinois in 1977.

Besides his duties with the NU football team, Weber is in charge of the Isokinetic Testing Center next to the main Training Room in the South Stadium Office Building, and during the winter is in charge of the care of athletes at the Bob Devaney Sports Center, traveling with those teams as the need arises. Jerry is married to the former Sherry Cole.

In his ninth year as assistant trainer and physical therapist is Roland E. "Duke" LaRue. Prior to coming to Nebraska, Duke was the head trainer-physical therapist at Western Illinois University. He earned his B.A. from Buena Vista College in 1950, his M.A. from Wyoming in 1957, and his physical therapy certificate in 1964 from Iowa.

At Nebraska La Rue is the head physical therapist at the health center and director of the athletic training curriculum. Duke has served the U.S. Olympic Committee at the Winter Games in Japan in 1972 and at the 1980 Winter Games in Lake Placid. Duke and his wife Liz have three children—Cheryl, Davene, and Lance.

The newest member of the Huskers' full-time training staff is fourth-year trainer Jack Nickolite. A David City, Neb., native, Nickolite received his bachelor's degree from Nebraska in 1980 and his master's degree in 1984. In addition to working in the Memorial Stadium training room, he has primary responsibility as trainer for the Husker basketball team and coordinates other athletic training activities at the Bob Devaney Sports Center. He is married to the former Diane Rezac and they have two sons, Bobby and Bret.

HUSKERS USE SWANSON CENTER FOR NUTRITION

The University of Nebraska Athletic Department utilizes the nutritional services of the Swanson Center for Nutrition in Omaha. The Swanson Center has been highly involved in sports nutrition research and education since 1973. The center also serves as nutrition consultants to the United States Olympic Committee. A sports nutritionist is available from the Swanson Center to provide computerized diet analysis, nutrition education and counseling to UNL athletes in all sports. This nutrition program is designed to help athletes in their pursuit of optimal health and maximal sports performance.

GLEN ABBOTT, Equipment Manager

Glenn Abbott begins his 10th year as Nebraska's equipment manager.

Abbott has been on the Husker staff since 1973, when he maintained the Husker equipment and locker rooms in Schulte Field House. Now, he and Walt Johnson, who is in the field house, maintain Nebraska's equipment and locker rooms in the Stadium Office Building and Schulte Field House, in addition to caring for the equipment of the varsity and freshman football, baseball and track teams.

Abbott has two children, Christopher and Lezlie.

Office Phone: 402-472-2274.

WALT JOHNSON, Asst. Equipment Manager

Walt Johnson will be entering his 11th year at Nebraska and is in charge of the equipment room in the Schulte Field House, which is the home of the Husker freshman football team.

In the fall, Johnson assists Glen Abbott, the Husker's equipment director, with the NU varsity football team.

Walt is married to the former Lois Christensen.

Office Phone: 402-472-2259.

SCOTT DAVIS, Student Manager

Scott Davis, a senior from Tecumseh, Neb., is back for his second year as the Huskers' head student manager for the 1986-87 school year.

Davis will be aided by assistant manager Rob Barrie of Omaha, and a staff of seven other managers, including Curtis Fisher, Omaha; John Gebhardt, Scotia; Gary Goldfish, Scotia; Scott Heyne, Valley; Mike Kosalka, Omaha; Brad Ronspies, Norfolk; and Stu Schukei, Holstein.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Dr. Ronald W. Roskens

Dr. Roskens has served as President of the University of Nebraska since April, 1977. Before that, he was Chancellor of the University of Nebraska at Omaha, having assumed that position in July, 1972.

He was born and raised on a farm near Spencer, Iowa, and attended a one-room elementary school. He earned both B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of Northern Iowa at Cedar Falls, Iowa, and a Ph.D. from the University of Iowa.

Dr. Roskens has received honorary doctorate degrees from Creighton University, Huston-Tillotson College (Austin, Texas), Hastings College and Nebraska Wesleyan University, Midland Lutheran College and the University of Northern Iowa. He is also an Honorary Professor at East China Normal University in Shanghai, China.

He serves on the boards of the American Council on Education, the Foundation for the Study of Presidential and Congressional Terms, the Council for Financial Aid to Education, the Willa Cather Pioneer Memorial and Educational Foundation and on the boards of several corporations. He is past Chairman of the Executive Board of the North Central Association, the official accrediting organization for academic programs in mid-America. He serves on the Business-Higher Education Forum of the American Council on Education.

Dr. Roskens, who was named the Omaha World Herald's "Midlands Man of the Year" in 1977, was King of Ak-Sar-Ben in 1980-81. He is listed in the "Who's Who in America" and in "American Men and Women of Science" as well as the National Register of Educational Researchers.

He has received the B'nai B'rith Citation for Meritorious Service, the Brotherhood Award of the National Conference of Christians and Jews and a national 4-H award. He has been named an "Outstanding Alumnus" of the University of Northern Iowa. He was recently elected national president of Omicron Delta Kappa, an honorary society which recognizes students for scholarship and leadership.

Dr. Roskens and his wife, Lois, have four children.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

The University of Nebraska–Lincoln is one of the nation's most dynamic universities.

Rich in pioneering history and spirit, NU was chartered by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869. The University established the first graduate program west of the Mississippi River in the mid-1880s and was selected for membership in the prestigious Association of American Universities in 1909.

Over the years, alumni such as Willa Cather, Mari Sandoz and Roscoe Pound have enriched the University's tradition of leadership and scholarly excellence.

Today, more than 25,000 students from all parts of the world attend classes on NU's campus in Lincoln, Nebraska's All-American capital city.

The University is the intellecutal center of the region. As Nebraska's comprehensive, land-grant university, NU serves a tripartite mission of teaching, research and service.

Quality instruction is emphasized in NU's eight undergraduate colleges and the professional, graduate College of Law. The Colleges of Agriculture, Architecture, Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, Engineering and Technology, Home Economics, Teachers College and School of Journalism offer more than 100 degree programs leading to career opportunities in the arts, the sciences, the humanities, and the professions. The NU faculty includes many prominent scholars.

In research, NU faculty and students stand at the forefront of discovery in many fields. Among well-known research activities at the University are projects involving mass spectrometry, cell biology, genetic engineering, transportation, videodisc development for the hearing impaired, linguistic and folklore analysis, educational television, tractor testing, livestock, and crop production, conservation, meat technology, animal and plant health, agricultural marketing and economics.

In service, the University of Nebraska reaches thousands of citizens each year through programs conducted by the Cooperative Extension Service and the Division of Continuing Studies. The Cooperative Extension Service provides all Nebraskans with information and assistance in agriculture and natural resources, home economics and family living, 4-H and youth development and community resource development. Continuing Studies offers alternatives to formal on-campus education with programs such as summer reading, evening classes, independent study by correspondence, telecourses and study tours.

Modern educational facilities and a diverse cultural life add to the environment for teaching and learning at NU.

The Lincoln campus is home to the nationally renowned Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery and Sculpture Garden, the University of Nebraska State Museum, the Christlieb Collection of Western Art and to the University's championship Big Eight conference men's and women's athletic teams.

An exciting university with a tradition of historic excellence, a quality presence and a dynamic future: That's the University of Nebraska!

Points of Interest on Campus—

Museum—The University of Nebraska State Museum has an outstanding collection of fossil mammals and is world renowned for its Elephant Hall. There are galleries of health science, Nebraska wildlife, zoology, geology and anthropology. In addition to its exhibits on three floors of Morrill Hall at 14th and U, the museum has extensive research collections in Nebraska Hall.

Art—The Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery has one of the finest collections on a university campus. Its sculpture garden is also one of the finest in the nation.

Music—School of Music students and faculty perform regularly in Kimball Recital Hall and throughout the state. There is an active schedule of concerts by University choral and instrumental groups, musical theatre productions and a wide range of musical and dance events by visiting artists.

Theatre—During the school year there are periodic performances by University companies in Howell Memorial and Studio Theatres. A repertory group performs throughout the summer months.

Nebraska Unions—The social centers on each campus provide a variety of food service facilities and relaxation areas for students and visitors, house the placement center and offices for student organizations, book stores, bowling alleys, game rooms, TV rooms, record rooms, study rooms, and rooms for large meetings and social events.

Carillon Tower—Built in 1948, the gift of alumnus Ralph S. Mueller, the tower has become a symbol of the NU Lincoln campus. It houses a 2 1/2-octave electronic English bells carillon, played on ceremonial occasions from a keyboard.

Historical Museum—The State Historical Society has its museum and library on the campus. It features Nebraska lore dating from early Indian relics.

Center for Continuing Education—Conference and hotel facilities at 33rd and Holdrege provide a site for hundreds of adult and youth meetings each year. Continuing education programs are planned by a professional staff. The Center was financed through a grant from the Kellogg Foundation and by public subscription.

Planetarium—Public sky shows are presented daily during the summer and on weekends during the school year. Special shows are also given to University classes and visiting school groups.

CORNHUSKER MARCHING BAND

William L. Ballenger joined the Nebraska faculty in 1983, and is in his third year as director of the Cornhusker Marching Band. In addition to his conducting duties on the field, Ballenger writes and arranges most of the music played by the marching band and serves as Associate Director of Bands.

Ballenger has music degrees from the University of Iowa and Northeast Missouri State, and has had eight years experience with outstanding high school band programs in Iowa.

Dr. Robert A. Fought, an alumnus of Penn State and Northwestern, is Director of Bands and Chairman of the Wind and Percussion Faculty at UNL. Dr. Fought served as director of the marching band from 1975 to 1983. He is now coordinator for all administrative and recruiting activities of the band program, conductor of the Symphony Band and saxophone instructor for the School of Music.

The Cornhusker Marching Band began its 107th season with a fall camp scheduled prior to the start of classes. The band's membership includes students from every section of the country and nearly every academic pursuit within the university.

Michielle Benson and Kim Smith are serving as graduate assistants in the band program this year. Carol Domina is in her third season as director of the Flag Corps, the drum line instructor is Terry DeJong, and the drum majors are Brian Walker of Glendale, Ariz., Linda McMorris of North Platte, and Matt Eisenhauer of Winchester, Ore. The solo twirler is Shaun Benson of Sioux City, Iowa. Completing the band staff are Rose Johnson, administrative assistant, Frank Jackson, technical assistant, and Mike Veak, the "voice" of the Marching Band.

The Cornhusker Marching Band is one of six organizations in the UNL band program which provides musical experience for nearly 400 students throughout the academic year.

NEBRASKA vs. 1986 OPPONENTS

FLORIDA STATE SERIES

Games: 3
Standing: Florida State leads, 2-1-0
In Lincoln: same
In Memorial Stadium: same
At Tallahassee: no games

Season	Site	Winner
1980	Lincoln	Florida State, 18-14
1981	Lincoln	Nebraska, 34-14
1985	Lincoln	Florida State, 17-13

Series scoring	Total	Avg.
Nebraska	61	20.3
Florida State	49	16.3

SERIES NOTES: NU's Tom Rathman ran 60 yards for TD on fifth play of 1985 game, but FSU took advantage of Husker miscues to take 17-13 halftime lead, then held on in scoreless second half . . . Nebraska jumped to a 14-0 lead in first half of 1980 game, but four Bill Capece field goals—last with 2:37 left in game—brought Seminoles back . . . Huskers drove to FSU three, but Gary Futch recovered Jeff Quinn fumble with 10 seconds left to preserve win for Seminoles . . . In 1981, NU broke open 10-7 game with two TD's within six seconds midway in third period—82-yard punt return by Irving Fryar, 13-yard fumble return by Tony Felici . . . Roger Craig ran for career-high 234 yards, clinched game with 94-yard TD run (longest in nation in 1981) in fourth quarter.

1985 IN REVIEW

Game No. 1

FLORIDA STATE 17, NEBRASKA 13

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 7—Too many mistakes in the wrong places spelled doom for Nebraska as the Huskers dropped a 17-13 decision to Florida State in brutal, 93-degree heat (it was 133 degrees on Memorial Stadium's artificial turf). Nebraska fullback Tom Rathman raced 60 yards to give the Huskers an early 7-0 lead, but the Seminoles took advantage of key errors to build a 17-13 halftime lead and then held on for their second win in Lincoln in three tries.

Game No. 2

NEBRASKA 52, ILLINOIS 25

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 21—McCathorn Clayton's 64-yard pass to Robb Schnitzler late in the first half cooled an Illinois rally and spurred Nebraska to a 52-25 win over the Illini. Illinois seemed to have momentum going its way just before halftime, having narrowed a 17-0 deficit to 17-10, but the Clayton-Schnitzler aerial set up a Doug DuBose touchdown in the final minute of the first half, starting a run of 28 unanswered points for Nebraska.

Game No. 3

NEBRASKA 63, OREGON 0

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 28—Nebraska scored four touchdowns in the final 7:32 of the first half to take a 42-0 halftime lead, then coasted to a surprisingly easy 63-0 win over Oregon. The Husker defense held the Ducks to seven first downs and 106 total yards, and forced six turnovers, including four interceptions. Three of the turnovers set up touchdowns, two of them in the second-quarter outburst. Oregon crossed the 50-yard line only twice in the contest.

Game No. 4

NEBRASKA 38, NEW MEXICO 7

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 5—New Mexico may have been an unknown quantity when it came into Memorial Stadium, but the Lobos quickly got Nebraska's attention by driving 83 yards in six plays after the opening kickoff. Down 7-0, Nebraska rallied for a hard-fought 38-7 win, but not before giving up 379 total yards. Paul Miles filled in at I-back for the injured Doug DuBose and rushed for a career-high 189 yards in his first career start.

Game No. 5

NEBRASKA 34, OKLAHOMA STATE 24

STILLWATER, Okla., Oct. 12—Nebraska posted its best overall performance of the season in downing previously undefeated Oklahoma State, 34-24, in the Big Eight opener for both teams. The Huskers' balanced attack picked up 256 yards on the ground and 161 in the air, and, although the Nebraska defense gave up 420 total yards, the Cowboys rushed for only 57 yards, well under their 243.0 per-game average. Nebraska remained unbeaten (23-0-1) against Oklahoma State since 1961.

Game No. 6

NEBRASKA 28, MISSOURI 20

COLUMBIA, Mo., Oct. 19—Junior place-kicker Dale Klein tied an NCAA record by kicking seven field goals to lead Nebraska to a 28-20 win over winless Missouri. Klein became the first kicker ever to go seven-for-seven kicking field goals in one game as he was successful on attempts of 32, 22, 43, 44, 29, 43 and 43 yards. He added a PAT for a Big Eight-record 22 points by kicking and ran his school-record string to nine-straight field goals made. Almost lost in Klein's outburst was I-back Doug DuBose's career-high 199 rushing yards.

Tom Rathman's (26) 84-yard touchdown run broke Buffaloes' backs in defensive struggle.

Game No. 8

NEBRASKA 41, KANSAS STATE 3

MANHATTAN, Kan., Nov. 2—For the second-straight year, Kansas State did not allow a Nebraska rusher to top 100 yards, but Husker fullback Tom Rathman did his share of damage to the Wildcats anyway. Rathman ran for a game-high 84 yards and two touchdowns, the first of which was a 37-yarder that started the Huskers on their way to a 41-3 win. Junior place-kicker Dale Klein got his name on another line in the NU record book when he kicked a career-long 50-yard field goal—his 12th of the season, tying the school record.

Game No. 9

NEBRASKA 49, IOWA STATE 0

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 9—I-back Doug DuBose ran for 114 yards to increase his season total to 1,006 and his career total to 2,050 in leading Nebraska to a 49-0 shutout of Iowa State. In doing so, DuBose became the 10th Husker back to top 2,000 career yards and recorded NU's 11th 1,000-yard season. He became only the third Husker (joining Jarvis Redwine and Mike Rozier) to rush for over 1,000 yards twice, and became the first to do so in his sophomore and junior years. The Husker defense extended its string to 11-straight quarters of not allowing a touchdown.

Game No. 10

NEBRASKA 56, KANSAS 6

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 16—For the fifth time in six Big Eight games, the Nebraska defense held an opponent under 100 rushing yards (67) as the Huskers extended to 15 their string of quarters without allowing a touchdown, giving up only a pair of field goals in a 56-6 win over Kansas. The Huskers used big plays, both offensively and defensively, in posting their ninth win of the season—the 17th-straight year that Nebraska has won at least nine games.

Game No. 11

OKLAHOMA 27, NEBRASKA 7

NORMAN, Okla., Nov. 23—Oklahoma's outstanding defense stifled Nebraska's offense for almost the entire game and turned away the Huskers' only two offensive scoring threats inside the Sooner 10 as OU topped Nebraska, 27-7. The Huskers' own fine defense had not given up more than 157 rushing yards in 10 games, but yielded 423 to the Sooner wishbone, while Oklahoma held the Huskers to a season-low, by far, 224 total offense yards. Only defensive tackle Chris Spachman kept the Huskers from being shut out for the first time in 147 games when he intercepted a fumble and returned it 76 yards to score with 26 seconds left. It was Spachman's second interception return touchdown of the season.

Regent Don Fricke was Academic All-American

Newly-elected University of Nebraska Regent Donald Fricke, a Lincoln dentist, was one of the first two Nebraska players to earn academic All-America honors. Fricke received the honor as a senior center in 1960, and was joined on that "brain" team by Husker halfback Pat Clare, who is now the head team orthopedist for Coach Tom Osborne's program. Fricke lettered three times for Coach Bill Jennings' teams, as a reserve center in 1958, as the starting fullback in 1959, and then as the starting center in 1960 after Bill "Thunder" Thornton arrived on campus.

HUSKERS' 17-YEAR BOWL STRING IS NATION'S LONGEST

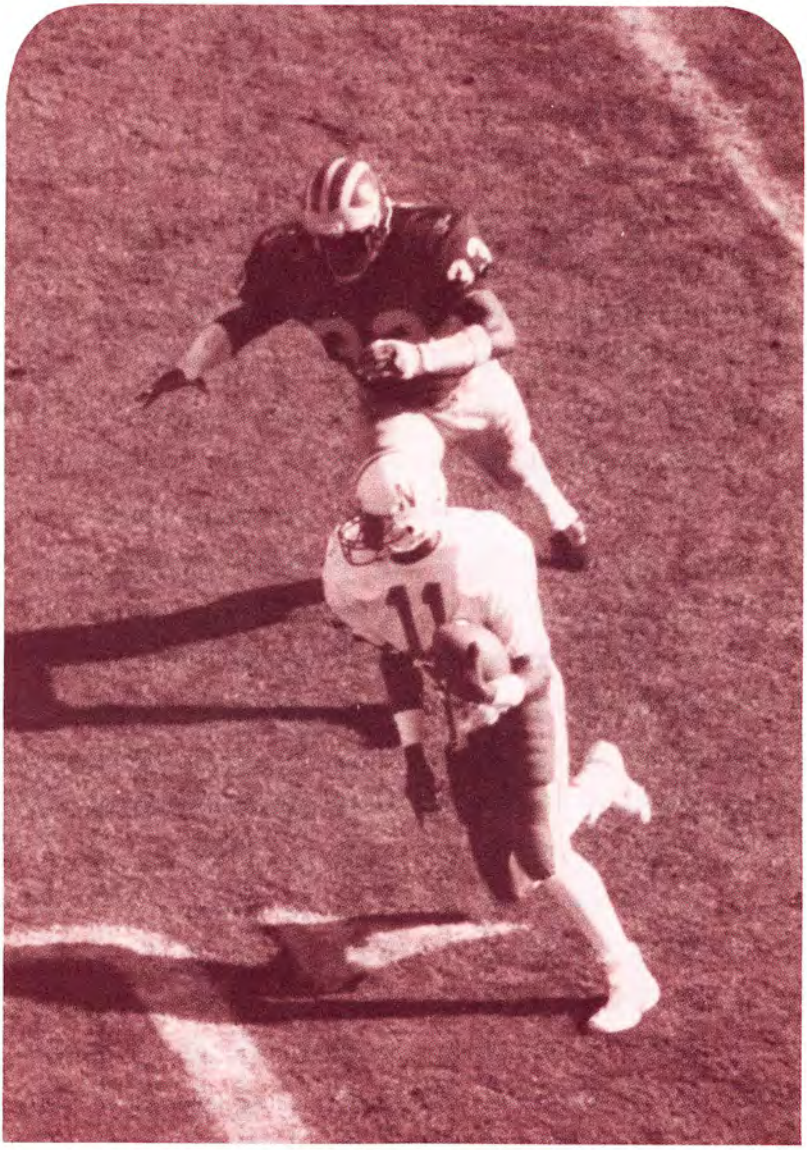

When Alabama did not receive a bowl bid at the end of the 1984 season, Nebraska took over from the Crimson Tide as the school with the longest current string of consecutive bowl appearances.

Alabama had appeared in 25-straight bowl games dating back to the inaugural Liberty Bowl at Philadelphia in 1959, but the Tide slipped in 1984 and did not get a bowl bid.

Nebraska, under first Bob Devaney, then Tom Osborne, has appeared in a bowl game in 17 consecutive seasons, starting with a 45-6 win over Georgia in the 1969 Sun Bowl.

Nebraska and Alabama share with Georgia Tech the record for consecutive bowl wins at six. The Yellowjackets accomplished the feat first, winning six-straight (Orange-Sugar-Sugar-Cotton-Sugar-Gator) following the 1951-56 seasons, then lost to Arkansas in the Gator Bowl following the 1959 season.

Nebraska won six-straight from 1969-74 (Sun-Orange-Orange-Orange-Cotton-Sugar) before losing to Arizona State in the 1975 Fiesta Bowl. Alabama won six-straight from 1976-81 (Sugar-Liberty-Sugar-Sugar-Sugar-Cotton) before losing to Texas in the Jan. 1, 1982, Cotton Bowl.

DISASTROUS QUARTER DOOMS HUSKERS

TEMPE, Ariz. (Jan. 1, 1986)—Michigan took full advantage of every one of five key Nebraska errors in the third quarter to score 24 unanswered points and turn a 14-3 halftime deficit into a 27-23 win over the Cornhuskers in the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl.

Nebraska had taken the first half lead on a pair of second-quarter touchdowns by Doug DuBose—a 5-yard pass from McCathorn Clayton and a 3-yard run—but disaster struck soon and often after Michigan kicked off to start the second half.

On the Huskers' third offensive play, Wolverine linebacker Jeff Akers pounced on a DuBose fumble at the Husker 21. Four plays later, Gerald White went over the top from a yard out to cut the Nebraska lead to 14-10 just 2:03 into the third period.

Two plays after the ensuing kickoff, Clayton fumbled and tackle Mark Messner recovered for the Wolverines at the Husker 38. Five plays later, quarterback Jim Harbaugh scored on a 1-yard keeper to give Michigan the lead for good at 17-14 after just 4:17 of the second half.

The Husker offense managed a first down on its next possession, but stalled at its 35. Dan Wingard came in to punt, but his attempt was blocked by David Arnold, who recovered the loose ball at the Husker 6. Nebraska's Black Shirt defense held, but Pat Moons kicked a 19-yard field goal that upped Michigan's lead to 20-14 with 6:42 left in the third period.

Coach Bo Schembechler's team got the ball back later in the quarter and took advantage of two Husker pass interference penalties to drive 52 yards for what proved to be an insurmountable 27-14 lead.

"That was the most disastrous quarter I've ever seen," running backs coach Frank Solich said afterward. "I've never known of so many bad things happening to a team in such a short period of time. They (Michigan) got points off of every break."

Things looked even darker for the Huskers early in the fourth quarter when a Michigan punt pinned them at their own 3-yard line, but freshman quarterback Steve Taylor came off the Nebraska bench and almost pulled off a miracle. Taylor came in after Clayton had hit tight end Todd Frain with a third-down pass to get the Huskers out of the shadow of their own goal, and directed Nebraska 64 yards to the Michigan 19 before the drive died on downs with 8:08 left in the game.

The Husker defense got the ball right back, though, and, this time, Taylor led the offense 77 yards to score in 12 plays. He recorded the touchdown himself on a 1-yard run with 2:29 to go, cutting the deficit to 27-21.

A little over a minute later, Michigan conceded a safety when punter Monte Robbins ran out of the end zone. Trailing 27-23, Nebraska got the ball back at its own 46 with 1:14 to go, but with no time-outs left, Taylor could manage only a desperation attempt to pull off the win. His third-down pass was intercepted by Garland Rivers in the Wolverine end zone with 28 seconds left.

NEBRASKA BOWL HISTORY AND RECORDS

1941 ROSE BOWL
STANFORD 21, NEBRASKA 13

PASADENA, Calif., Jan. 1, 1941—Nebraska was only the third Big Six team to play in a post-season bowl game, but the Cornhuskers made their first bowl trip a memorable one with an invitation to the granddaddy of them all—The Rose Bowl. Under the warm California sun in Pasadena, Coach Biff Jones' Cornhuskers led Clark Shaughnessy's Stanford Indians twice in the first half, but fell victim to the innovative T-formation 21-13. The Huskers took a 7-0 lead just six plays after the kickoff when fullback Vike Francis plunged over from the two. Stanford tied the count four plays later when Hugh Gallarneau bolted over from nine yards out. In the second quarter, the Huskers took the lead again on a 33-yard Herm Rohrig-to-Allen Zikmund pass, but the Indians came back on Frankie Albert's 41-yard TD pass to Gallarneau for a 14-13 halftime lead. A 39-yard TD punt return by Pete Kmetovic iced the game for the Indians in the third quarter. The 92,000 fans on hand still represent the largest crowd ever to see Nebraska play.

1955 ORANGE BOWL
DUKE 34, NEBRASKA 7

MIAMI, Jan. 1, 1955—If Nebraska's first bowl bid was a memorable one, it's second was one to forget. The 1954 Cornhuskers finished second behind Oklahoma in the Big Seven race and went to Miami under the no-repeat rule. Making their first bowl appearance in 14 years, Bill Glassford's Cornhuskers trailed Duke's Blue Devils at the half, 14-0, but pulled within 14-7 early in the third quarter after a minus-two-yard Duke punt. Halfback Don Comstock scored from the three to cap a 35-yard drive. After that, it was all Duke. Coach Bill Murray's Blue Devils rolled 65 yards to score on their next possession and added two more tallies in the fourth quarter to ice the game, 34-7.

1962 GOTHAM BOWL
NEBRASKA 36, MIAMI, FLA. 34

NEW YORK, Dec. 15, 1962—Playing under coach Bob Devaney, Nebraska won its first bowl game in three tries, upsetting Miami and George Mira, 36-34, in the second and last of New York's now-defunct Gotham Bowl. Playing in Yankee Stadium before only 6,166 fans in sub-freezing weather, the Huskers and Hurricanes put on one of the greatest bowl shows ever, trading scores in every quarter. Willie Ross' one-yard plunge and Bill "Thunder" Thorton's subsequent two-point run gave the Huskers' the lead for good, 36-27, with 12:10 left. Mira, who passed for 321 yards led a valiant comeback attempt, but was thwarted by a last-minute interception by Husker guard Bob Brown.

1964 ORANGE BOWL
NEBRASKA 13, AUBURN 7

MIAMI, Jan. 1, 1964—Nebraska made it's second Orange Bowl trip a happier one than the first with a 13-7 win over Auburn in the 1964 Miami Classic. The Huskers evened their bowl record with the win and handed Bob Devaney his second bowl win in as many tries. Husker quarterback Dennis Claridge broke the game open before most of the 72,647 fans had settled in their seats. On the Huskers' second play from scrimmage, Claridge bolted 68 yards down the sideline to put NU ahead 7-0. At the time, it was the longest TD run in OB history. Moments later Dave Theisen broke another OB record with a 31-yard field goal. The record lasted until the second quarter when Theisen booted a 36-yarder to give NU a 13-0 halftime lead. Auburn quarterback Jimmy Sidle almost brought the Tigers back, but Husker linebacker John Kirby batted a fourth-and-four pass away at the goal line with less than three minutes to go to preserve the win for Nebraska.

1965 COTTON BOWL
ARKANSAS 10, NEBRASKA 7

DALLAS, Jan. 1, 1965—Coach Frank Broyles' Arkansas Razorbacks mounted an 80-yard fourth quarter drive against a previously impregnable Nebraska defense to down the Huskers, 10-7, in NU's first Dallas appearance. The Huskers had led most of the way in one of the greatest defensive battles in bowl history. Arkansas scored first on a 31-yard Tom McKnelly field goal in the first quarter. But soph Harry Wilson capped a 69-yard Husker march in the second quarter on a one-yard plunge to give Nebraska a 7-3 halftime lead. The Huskers held that lead until Bobby Burnett finished the Arkansas drive with a three-yard TD run with 4:50 left in the game. In the fierce defensive struggle, first downs were even at 11, and the Razorbacks held a slim, 176-168 total offense edge.

1966 ORANGE BOWL
ALABAMA 39, NEBRASKA 28

MIAMI, Jan. 1, 1966—With the national championship riding on the line, Coach Bob Devaney's Huskers took on Alabama's Crimson Tide for the first time. Nebraska went into the game 10-0 and ranked third. Alabama was 8-1-1 and fourth. But earlier in the day, top-ranked Michigan State lost to UCLA in the Rose Bowl and LSU knocked off No. 2 Arkansas in the Cotton Bowl to set up a national game in the Orange Bowl. Playing in the first night bowl game ever, 'Bama won the title, 39-28. The Tide led 24-7 at the half and the game was never in serious doubt, but led by the passing of Bob Churchich, the Huskers came back to make a solid fight and make the final score respectable.

1967 SUGAR BOWL
ALABAMA 34, NEBRASKA 7

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 2, 1967—Never ones to duck a challenge, coach Bob Devaney and his Cornhuskers accepted a bid for a rematch with Alabama and Bear Bryant in the Sugar Bowl. It turned out to be a little too much of a challenge as No. 3 'Bama handed the No. 7 Huskers a 34-7 thumping. The Tide rolled up a 17-0 first quarter advantage and led at halftime, 24-0, behind the passing of Kenny Stabler. Sophomore fullback Dick Davis prevented a complete whitewashing with a 15-yard TD catch of a Bob Churchich pass on the first play of the fourth quarter. Husker QB Churchich sparkled again against the Tide, completing 21 of 34 passes for 201 yards. With the loss, the Huskers joined Alabama in holding the dubious distinction of being the only teams to lose in all four major bowls.

EL PASO, Texas, Dec. 20, 1969—Golden-toed Paul Rogers booted a Sun Bowl-record four field goals—all in the first quarter—and Coach Bob Devaney's Cornhuskers romped to a 45-6 win over Georgia in the 35th edition of El Paso's Sun Bowl. Rogers booted FG's of 50, 32, 42 and 37 yards and sophomore I-back Jeff Kinney added a TD run of 11 yards to give Nebraska an 18-0 lead at the end of the first quarter and the Huskers were never threatened. For his record-setting effort, Rogers was named the game's outstanding offensive player. The Big Eight co-champion Cornhuskers rolled up a 355-185 total offense advantage over the outmanned Bulldogs. Dan Schneiss led Husker rushers with 63 yards and Van Brownson completed 11 of 18 passes for 109. After two years away from the bowl scene, the Sun Bowl started a run of 17-straight bowl appearances for the Huskers.

1971 ORANGE BOWL
NEBRASKA 17, LOUISIANA STATE 12

MIAMI, Jan. 1, 1971—Playing under the lights in Miami's Orange Bowl for the first time in five years, Coach Bob Devaney's Nebraska Cornhuskers won the first of two straight national titles by virtue of a 17-12 win over LSU and some fortunate circumstances. Earlier in the day, top-ranked Texas was upset by Notre Dame, 24-11, in the Cotton Bowl, and No. 2 Ohio State was shocked by Stanford, 27-17, in the Rose. That left the door to the title wide open for No. 3 Nebraska. The Huskers responded by building a 10-0 first-quarter lead on a 25-yard field goal by Paul Rogers and a three-yard TD run by Joe Orduna. But a pair of Mark Lumpkin FG's and a 31-yard Buddy Lee to Al Coffee TD pass on the last play of the third quarter gave the aroused Tigers a 12-10 lead. Nebraska showed its grit by driving 67 yards, and after quarterback Jerry Tagge stretched the ball over from the 1-yard line with 8:50 left, the Huskers clinched their first national title.

1972 ORANGE BOWL
NEBRASKA 38, ALABAMA 6

MIAMI, Jan. 1, 1972—It was supposed to be another "Game of the Century," rivaling Nebraska's 35-31 win over Oklahoma a few weeks earlier. The 12-0 Huskers were No. 1, the 11-0 Alabama Crimson Tide was No. 2 and the OB had a dream game—for a little less than a quarter. The Huskers struck early on a two-yard TD run by Jeff Kinney before Johnny Rodgers broke the Tide's back with a 77-yard TD punt return on the last play of the first quarter. The Huskers added two more scores in the second stanza and by halftime there was no doubt about who was No. 1—Nebraska led, 28-0. The Huskers continued to dominate and rolled to a 38-6 win, giving Nebraska a second straight national title and Coach Bob Devaney a satisfying first win in three tries over 'Bama Coach Bear Bryant.

1973 ORANGE BOWL
NEBRASKA 40, NOTRE DAME 6

MIAMI, Jan. 1, 1973—Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers went wild, scoring four touchdowns and passing for another, as the Cornhuskers became the first team to ever win three straight Orange Bowls, romping over Notre Dame, 40-6. In his last game as a Cornhusker, Rodgers was moved to I-back from his usual wingback position, and on the game's first play he took a pitchout for a 13-yard gain. It was a sign of things to come. "Johnny R" capped his career by scoring on runs of eight, four and five yards, caught the Irish defense by surprise with a 52-yard TD pass to Frosty Anderson in the second quarter, and scored the last of his record 50 career TDs by taking a sideline pass from Dave Humm in the third quarter and scampering 50 yards to paydirt.

1974 COTTON BOWL
NEBRASKA 19, TEXAS 3

DALLAS, Jan. 1, 1974—Nebraska's Cornhuskers broke open a tight scoring contest in the third quarter with a pair of game-breaker plays to chalk up a 19-3 win over the mighty Texas Longhorns in the 1974 Cotton Bowl game at Dallas. The chilled New Year's Day crowd of 67,500 saw the Big Eight runnerup and the Southwest Conference champions battle to a 3-3 tie at halftime, thanks to a brilliant Longhorn one-yard-line stand just before the gun. But the Huskers weren't to be denied and midway through the third quarter, safety Bob Thornton returned a Texas field goal try 41 yards to set up the clinching touchdown. Ritch Bahe got the final 12 yards on a reverse and Rich Sanger kicked the point to make it 10-3. Four plays later, John Bell recovered a Texas fumble at the Longhorn 19 and three plays later Tony Davis ripped in from the three to make it 16-3. Sanger kicked a 43-yard field goal with 8:09 left to complete the scoring. Texas had scored first on a 22-yard field goal by Bill Schott in the wake of a Husker fumble, but early in the second quarter defensive end Steve Manstedt picked up a Roosevelt Leaks' fumble in mid-air and raced 65 yards to the eight. But a stiff Longhorn defense forced a 24-yard field goal by Sanger.

1974 SUGAR BOWL
NEBRASKA 13, FLORIDA 10

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 31, 1974—Rallying from a 10-0 halftime deficit, Nebraska scored three times in the second half to defeat the tough Florida Gators 13-10. It was the Cornhuskers' sixth straight bowl victory, tying Nebraska with Georgia Tech for consecutive bowl wins.

From the very start, it was a tough, uphill climb for the Huskers. Florida scored once in the first quarter and kicked a field goal in the second, while holding Nebraska's usually strong offense to 138 total yards.

But in the second half, fullback Tony Davis, quarterback Terry Luck, kicker Mike Coyle and the Black Shirt defense took over for the Huskers and led Nebraska to victory. Although it wasn't until the fourth quarter when the Huskers really got rolling.

Freshman sensation, I-Back Monte Anthony, scored the Huskers first touchdown, with 13:24 left in the game, when he ran straight up the middle for two yards and the score. Coyle's kick was good, and the Huskers trailed 10-7.

Davis set up Coyle's two deciding field goals with inspired running as he picked up 126 yards on 17 carries, including the longest run of the game for 40 yards. For his performance, Davis was named the game's Most Valuable Player, an award which he had also received in the Cotton Bowl the previous year. Coyle tied the score on a 37-yard boot with 7:13 left in the game and with only 1:46 remaining, his 39-yard kick gave the Huskers their sixth-consecutive post-season win.

1975 FIESTA BOWL
ARIZONA STATE 17, NEBRASKA 14

TEMPE, Ariz., Dec. 26, 1975—Nebraska's record-tying six-game bowl win streak was snapped by Arizona State in the 1975 Fiesta Bowl, when the Sun Devils edged the Huskers 17-14, before 51,396 partisan fans on ASU's home field in Tempe, Ariz.

The final blow came with 4:50 remaining in the game, when ASU kicker Dan Kush successfully booted a 29-yard field goal, breaking a 14-14 tie and capping a rally from a 14-6 deficit after three quarters.

Fighting till the very end, Nebraska then took the ensuing kickoff and drove to the Arizona State 31 yard line with less than two minutes to play. The Huskers first two plays from there were incomplete passes, but on third down, quarterback Terry Luck hit fullback Tony Davis with a pass at the ASU 21 yard line. However, Davis was hit hard by two Arizona State players and fumbled the ball. The Sun Devils recovered it and went on to kill the clock and claim their 17-14 win.

Nebraska ended the 1975 season at 10-2 and ranked No. 9 in the country. The Huskers lost their last two games of the year to No. 1-ranked Oklahoma 35-10 and to the No. 2-ranked Sun Devils.

1976 ASTRO-BLUEBONNET BOWL
NEBRASKA 27, TEXAS TECH 24

HOUSTON, Dec. 31, 1976—In the most exciting bowl game of the year, the Nebraska Cornhuskers edged past a determined Texas Tech team, 27-24, in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl.

Twice Nebraska rallied to overcome 10-point deficits. With Texas Tech ahead 17-7 and time running out in the second quarter, quarterback Vince Ferragamo moved the Cornhuskers 80 yards in less than two minutes to score on a 22-yard touchdown pass to Mark Dufresne. But Texas Tech running back Billy Taylor countered early in the third quarter with an eight-yard touchdown run to put Nebraska down 24-14.

Once again, the Cornhuskers started to work on the Texas Tech lead. I-back Rick Berns broke around right end and dashed untouched 18 yards into the end zone to put Nebraska within three. The Huskers then took the lead when Ferragamo connected with split end Chuck Malito—who gained 107 yards in three catches to earn most-valuable-lineman honors in the game—for a 23-yard touchdown pass. That score, which would prove to be the winning touchdown, was set up by a partially blocked punt by defensive backs Ted Harvey and Kent Smith.

The final score was in doubt until defensive end Reg Gast recovered a Red Raider fumble with 1:34 left in the game, killing a Tech threat and allowing Nebraska to run out the clock.

1977 LIBERTY BOWL
NEBRASKA 21, NORTH CAROLINA 17

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 19, 1977—Quarterback Randy Garcia came off the bench in the fourth quarter to throw two touchdown passes to rally Nebraska from a 17-7 fourth-quarter deficit to a 21-17 win over North Carolina in the 19th annual Liberty Bowl.

Garcia, who replaced starter Tom Sorley, first hit wingback Curtis Craig with a 10-yard touchdown pass (a sensational diving catch) with 10:51 left to cut the Husker deficit to 17-14, then threw a 34-yard scoring pass to Tim Smith with 3:16 left in the game to cap a rally that frustrated UNC's upset hopes.

The Tar Heels drew first blood early in the second quarter on a 12-yard scoring pass from Matt Kupec to tight end Brooks Williams. Then, after the Huskers had tied the game at 7-7 on a 15-yard touchdown run by fullback Dodie Donnell, Kupec threw a 10-yard scoring pass to fullback Bob Loomis late in the half, giving North Carolina a 14-7 halftime lead.

Carolina upped it lead to 17-7 late in the third quarter on a 47-yard field goal by Tom Biddle and the Tar Heels appeared to have the game well in control until Garcia's heroics brought NU back.

1979 ORANGE BOWL
OKLAHOMA 31, NEBRASKA 24

MIAMI, Jan. 1, 1979—In the first-ever matchup of Big Eight teams in a bowl game, Nebraska just missed duplicating its 17-14 win over Oklahoma several weeks earlier in losing to the Sooners 31-24, in the 45th annual Orange Bowl.

Nebraska got off to a fast start in trying for an unprecedented double over OU, driving 80 yards in 15 plays after the opening kickoff to take a 7-0 lead on Tom Sorley's 21-yard touchdown pass to Tim Smith. But the Huskers then watched the revenge-minded Sooners score 24 unanswered points.

Nebraska's rally started with 9:12 left in the game when I-back Rick Berns capped a 78-yard drive with a 1-yard touchdown run that reduced the deficit to 31-17. A little over a minute later, defensive tackle David Clark recovered quarterback Thomas Lott's fumble at the OU 42 and the Huskers were definitely back in the game. Oklahoma's defense yielded 35 yards to the seven, but rose up to stop I-back Craig Johnson on fourth-and-one with 4:24 to go—virtually sealing the win, although the Huskers marched 58 yards in 10 plays to score on a 2-yard pass from Sorley to Junior Miller on the finaly play of the game.

1980 COTTON BOWL
HOUSTON 17, NEBRASKA 14

DALLAS, Jan. 1, 1980—Reserve quarterback Terry Elston threw a 6-yard fourth-down touchdown pass to Eric Herring with just 12 seconds left in the game as Houston handed Nebraska a heart-breaking 17-14 loss in the 44th Cotton Bowl game—another in a six-year string of incredible finishes in Husker bowl games.

Before a CBS-TV national audience and 72,032 on hand in Dallas' famous oval, the Huskers and Cougars battled tooth-and-nail for a full 60 minutes, and the goal-line situation at the end was a fitting finale.

Nebraska struck first as I-back Jarvis Redwine scored on a 9-yard run late in the first period, but Houston cam back to tie, 7-7, at halftime on an 8-yard Elston run early in the second period.

After a scoreless third period, Southwest Conference champion Houston took its first lead of the game, 10-7, on a 41-yard field goal by Ken Hatfield with 8:25 left in the game. The Huskers made little headway against the Cougar defense in the second half, but took advantage of a Houston fumble to drive 31 yards in six plays to take a 14-10 lead on Jeff Quinn's 6-yard touchdown pass with 3:56 left.

The next 3:44 were all Terry Elston, though, as the junior accounted for all but 11 yards in the Cougars' winning 66-yard drive himself, completing 5-of-7 passes for 45 yards (three for cruical first downs) and rushing three times for 10 yards.

1980 SUN BOWL
NEBRASKA 31, MISSISSIPPI STATE 17

EL PASO, Texas, Dec. 27, 1980—A great passing performance by senior Jeff Quinn and a stout defensive effort enabled Nebraska to enjoy a successful return to the Sun Bowl by downing Mississippi State 31-17.

The Huskers drew first blood just 2:30 into the game when—on the first play after MSU's Mardye McDole fumbled a Nebraska punt—split end Todd Brown scored on a 23-yard end-around. NU added 10 points in the second quarter—on a 22-yard Kevin Seibel field goal and an 8-yard Jeff Quinn to Jeff Finn pass—to take a 17-0 lead into the dressing room at halftime.

MSU finally scored in the third quarter on a 47-yard field goal and appeared to be gaining momentum when Husker defensive end Jimmy Williams recovered a fumble at the Bulldog 25 to set up a 2-yard TD run by Andra Franklin. The Huskers iced the game with a 52-yard Jeff Quinn to Tim McCrady pass late in the game. For their efforts, Williams and Quinn were named the outstanding players of the 1980 Sun Bowl.

1982 ORANGE BOWL
CLEMSON 22, NEBRASKA 15

MIAMI, Jan. 1, 1982—Coach Tom Osborne's Cornhuskers went into their 13th consecutive bowl game hoping New Year's magic would work the same wonders for them as it had for their Big Red counterparts 11 years earlier—and for a while, it looked like it would. First, Texas toppled No. 3 Alabama, 14-12, in the Cotton Bowl, and while fourth-ranked Nebraska battled Clemson, Pitt was knocking off No. 2 Georgia in the Sugar Bowl, leaving it up to the Huskers and Tigers to settle the national title.

The dream of a third championship in 12 years was not to be for the Huskers, though, as their own errors, plus standout performances by Clemson quarterback Homer Jordan and the Tiger defense gave the South Carolina school its first national title and a 12-0 season with a 22-15 victory.

The Tigers scored first on a 41-yard Donald Igwebuike field goal to take a 3-0 lead, but Nebraska came back with a bit of razzle-dazzle and took a 7-3 lead midway in the first quarter on a 25-yard TD pass from I-back Mike Rozier to wingback Anthony Steels.

For the next two-and-a-half quarters, it was almost all Clemson, as the opportunistic Tigers took advantage of Husker errors to score 19 unanswered points and take a 22-7 lead after three periods. Early in the fourth quarter, the Huskers came back on a 26-yard TD run and a two-point conversion by Roger Craig, cutting the margin to 22-15, but an eighth untimely penalty stopped another promising drive moments later and the elusive Jordan ate up all but six seconds of the last 5:24.

1983 ORANGE BOWL
NEBRASKA 21, LOUISIANA STATE 20

MIAMI, Jan. 1, 1983—The 1983 Orange Bowl game between Nebraska and Louisiana State started out like the one-sided contest the oddsmakers had predicted. The Husker defense held the Tigers to three yards on three plays after the opening kickoff, forcing a punt, then the NU offense drove 51 yards in six plays to take a 7-0 lead on Mark Schellen's 2-yard run 4:03 into the game.

At that point, however, Murphy's Law went into effect. On the first play after Toby Williams intercepted an LSU pass at the Husker 7, Nebraska fumbled the ball away to set up a tying Tiger TD. The Huskers then fumbled the ball away at the LSU 15, forced a punt, and fumbled it at their own 45 to set up another Tiger TD. A fake punt then went awry, LSU forced another punt, and the Huskers threw an interception, and were thankful to be down only 14-7 at halftime.

The second half didn't start out any better as NU missed a field goal, then fumbled again to set up a field goal that gave LSU a 17-7 lead. But once down 10 points, the Husker offense came alive, driving 80 yards in 12 plays to score on an 11-yard pass from Turner Gill to Mike Rozier, and going 47 yards in seven plays to finally regain the lead, 21-17, early in the fourth quarter on a 1-yard run by Gill.

A dropped pass on a faked field goal prevented another score, and another interception set up an LSU field goal that cut the margin to 21-20, but the Husker offense sealed the win by eating up the final 5:05.

1984 ORANGE BOWL
MIAMI, FLA., 31, NEBRASKA 30

MIAMI, Jan. 2, 1984—In one of the most exciting bowl games ever played, fourth-ranked Miami overcame Nebraska rallies from 17- and 14-point deficits and took the national championship away from the Huskers when strong safety Ken Calhoun knocked Turner Gill's two-point PAT pass out of Jeff Smith's hands with 48 seconds left in the game, preserving a 31-30 home field win in the 50th Orange Bowl. The Miami win snapped a 22-game win string for Nebraska and, for the second time in three years, Husker national-title hopes died on the Orange Bowl turf.

Behind rifle-armed freshman quarterback Bernie Kosar, the 'Canes jumped to an easy 17-0 first-quarter lead and never trailed. The Huskers rallied to score two second-quarter touchdowns, then tied the game early in the second half on a Scott Livingston field goal, but Miami then scored twice in a five minute span later in the third period to put the visitors in a 31-17 hole.

Things looked blackest for Nebraska four plays after Miami's last score when Heisman Trophy winner Mike Rozier left the game for good with a badly-bruised ankle, but junior I-back Jeff Smith came in to rush for 99 yards and two touchdowns, the second a 24-yarder on fourth-and-eight, to get the Huskers within 31-30. Coach Tom Osborne then eschewed the PAT kick (and a tie that would have assured Nebraska the national title) and decided to go for it all—but, thanks to Calhoun, Gill and Smith came up just short.

1985 SUGAR BOWL
NEBRASKA 28, LOUISIANA STATE 10

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 1, 1985—Senior quarterback Craig Sundberg closed out his career in grand style as he led the Huskers back from a 10-0 first-half deficit to a 28-10 win over Louisiana State in the 51st annual Sugar Bowl.

Fired-up LSU scored on two of its first three possessions to grab the early lead, but after a rocky start, the Sundberg-led Nebraska offense roared to life to put 28 unanswered points on the board. Two of the Huskers' four touchdowns were set up by a defense that forced six Tiger turnovers, five of them interceptions, including four off LSU starting quarterback Jeff Wickersham.

Sophomore I-back Doug DuBose helped spark Nebraska with a 102-yard rushing effort, but it was Sundberg who provided most of the punch and was named the game's most valuable player. Starting for the first time since arm trouble knocked him out of the starting lineup at mid-season, Sundberg completed 10 of 15 passes for 143 yards, threw for three touchdowns and ran for the go-ahead score himself on a 9-yard sprint 6:46 into the second half. Sundberg's three TD passes tied a Nebraska bowl record. Two of those scoring tosses went to tight end Todd Frain, tying another NU bowl mark.

1986 SUNKIST FIESTA BOWL
MICHIGAN 27, NEBRASKA 23

TEMPE, Ariz., Jan. 1, 1986—After building a 14-3 halftime lead, Nebraska self-destructed in the third quarter and was never able to recover completely in dropping a 27-23 decision to Michigan in the Sunkist Fiesta Bowl.

The Huskers used a pair of second-quarter touchdowns by I-back Doug DuBose to take the lead, but a fumble on the third play of the second half set up a 21-yard Wolverine touchdown drive that cut the NU margin to 14-10. Nebraska fumbled it away again on the second play after the ensuing kickoff, setting up a 38-yard touchdown drive that put Michigan up for good, 17-14.

Nebraska's next drive stalled after one first down, and the Wolverines blocked Dan Wingard's punt, recovering it at the NU 6-yard line. The Nebraska defense held, and a 19-yard Pat Moons field goal made it 20-14, Michigan, after 8:18 of the second half. Later in the period, the Maize and Blue took advantage of two pass interference penalties to score another touchdown to build what proved to be an insurmountable 27-14 lead.

record 4.33) and Jon Kelley (4.45). A 1982 recruit, he led the 5-0 Husker freshmen that fall with 309 rushing yards and six TD's, also averaged 35.7 yards on kickoff returns and 13.3 on punt returns. Redshirted in 1983. All-state performer at Montville High School, rushed 158 time for 1,702 yards (10.8 average), 25 TD's as a senior for Coach Edward Oliviera to lead state of Connecticut in rushing and scoring. Career totals were 3,210 rushing yards, 40 TD's, 277 points. Also earned all-state honors in basketball and baseball. Speech communication major. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles DuBose, he has one brother and one sister. Brother, Gary, was a starting tailback at the University of Connecticut and signed this spring as a rookie with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League. Doug was born March 14, 1964, at New London, Conn.

weeks after the Missouri game, he kicked the longest field goal of his career, a 50-yarder at Kansas State. He has made 45-straight PAT's since missing in the third quarter at Iowa State, Nov. 3, 1984, 23 short of the school record of 68 set by Kevin

Seibel in 1981 and 1982 (including bowls, Klein's string is 52). He'll be a strong contender for All-America and academic All-America honors in 1986 (he has a 3.8 GPA in mechanical engineering). Dale went into 1985 as the Huskers' No. 1 place-kicker, but not by a large margin, and after a shaky start against Florida State, lost the job to Craig Schnitzler, who had a fine performance against Illinois, but suffered a charley horse in his thigh during practice the following week and never fully recovered in 1985. Klein moved back up, but couldn't establish any consistency in the next two games and lost the job again to freshman Chris Drennan. Drennan missed badly on his first FG attempt at Oklahoma State, giving Klein a third chance—and he responded by making the nine-straight field goals. Huskers' fourth-leading scorer in 1984 when he hit on 26 of 28 PAT's and four of eight FG's for 38 points. He goes into 1985 as the Huskers' No. 17 career scorer with 117 points. With a season similar to last, he could finish as high as third or fourth. Averaged 33.5 yards on two punts last year, and will be the third punter on the depth chart this fall. Dale walked on in 1982 and led the 5-0 Husker freshman team in scoring that fall, hitting all 20 of his PAT's and six of eight FG's for 38 points. Redshirted in 1983, then handled most of the place-kicking chores for the varsity in 1984. All-conference and honorable-mention all-state as a punter, kicker, split end and defensive back for Coach Bob Starr at Seward High School, where he also lettered twice each in basketball and track. Son of Ken and Angie Klein, he has four brothers. Born Dec. 7, 1963, in Lincoln.

Marc Munford—From Page 38

Eight in the Omaha World-Herald coaches' poll, he went on to have a fine game against Louisiana State in the 1985 Sugar Bowl, recording nine tackles (seven unassisted) and intercepting a pass. Despite missing two full games last year (Missouri, due to arthroscopic knee surgery, and the season finale at Oklahoma after major surgery), he again earned All-Big Eight honors (Associated Press and World-Herald) and again led the Huskers in tackles with 67 (43 unassisted); also broke up three passes, recovered two fumbles and intercepted two passes. Led the team in tackles in four games last year and shared lead in three others, with a game-high of 11 total tackles (eight unassisted) vs. Illinois. Top career tackle games were 16 vs. both Missouri and Oklahoma in 1984. The 16-tackle, two-interception, one-touchdown day vs. Mizzou earned him Big Eight defensive player-of-the-week honors. Had a 4.72-second pre-surgery 40-yard time, but only time will tell if he gets back to that. Marc also suffered a minor knee injury in the 1985 Spring Game, but was back to 100 percent soon after arthroscopic surgery. A 1983 recruit, he led the Husker freshman team with 36 tackles (21 unassisted) in a 5-0 season. Saw some time with the varsity that fall, then came on strong in the spring of 1984 to beat out senior returning starter Mark Daum (Munford moved in at weak-side linebacker, moving returning All-Big Eight choice Mike Knox to the strong-side and Daum to the second unit; Daum came back to start at strong-side linebacker when Knox missed the 1984 season due to a knee injury). Munford was all-conference, all-metro Denver and second-team all-state for Coach Bob Nielson at Heritage High School, where he was a teammate of former Colorado tight end Ed Reinhardt and his brother, former Husker middle guard John Reinhardt. Marc also lettered in basketball and was an all-conference baseball player as a junior when he hit .460. Speech communications major. Son of Jim and Carol Munford, he has one brother. His father was a standout athlete at Nebraska Wesleyan. Born Feb. 14, 1965, in Lincoln.

speed for someone his size, a 4.88-second timing in the 40-yard dash. He has increased his bench press by 170 pounds and lowered his 40-yard time by 0.26 seconds since he was first tested as a freshman in 1983. Shared Huskers' "Lifter-of-the-Year" award last spring with defensive left tackle Chris Spachman. Noonan lettered as an alternate behind Spachman in 1984, recording 26 tackles (17 unassisted), including six sacks for 49 yards in losses, plus one other tackle behind the line for a 2-yard loss. Switched to middle guard in the spring of 1985 and immediately moved into the starting lineup. A non-redshirt, Noonan was a standout defensive tackle on the 5-0 Husker freshman team in 1983, recording 20 tackles (10 unassisted), including three quarterback sacks for 21 yards in losses; also recovered two fumbles, broke up a pass. All-state selection at Lincoln Northeast High School, where he played offensive and defensive tackle and nose guard in leading Coach Bob Els' Rockets to the 1982 state championship game. Honorable-mention prep All-America selection. Criminal justice major. Son of Gene and Donna Noonan, he has one younger brother. Born July 14, 1965, in Lincoln.

Parsons started for the Husker freshman team that fall, but was called up to the varsity often enough and saw enough playing time to earn a letter as a freshman. A non-redshirt, he was a key reserve in all 11 games in 1984, recording 12 tackles (10 unassisted) and breaking up three passes. All-state and honorable-mention All-America as both a linebacker and tailback for Coach Bob Price at Springfield Glendale High School. Rushed for 2,800 yards in his career, with a high game of 243 yards. Recorded 110 tackles as a senior. Also lettered in basketball and track. Philosophy major. Son of Norman Parsons and Judy Mears, he has one brother. Born Dec. 18, 1964.

Robb Schnitzler—From Page 19

performances for the Huskers each of the last two years. A 1982 walkon, he played wingback for that fall's 5-0 freshman team, shared the squad lead in receptions with four for 33 yards and rushed six times for 79 yards and one TD. Son of Robert and Lorraine Schnitzler, he was an all-state football player for his father at Battle Creek High School, where he lettered four times each in football, basketball, track. He and Craig have four sisters. Born July 25, 1963, at Norfolk, Neb.

team that fall; rushed six times for 72 yards and a touchdown, caught 11 passes for 159 yards, one TD, returned six kickoffs for a 27.1-yard average, returned 10 punts for a 21.5-yard average and two TD's. Redshirted in 1984. A valuable part-time performer for the Husker track team, he's the school's indoor record-holder in the long jump at 25-4¾. That leap was good for second in the 1985 Big Eight indoor championships. Last winter, he again earned second place in the conference indoor long jump with an effort of 25-2¼. As a freshman in 1984, he took third in the Big Eight outdoor with a long jump of 25-5¾, the second-best jump in school history. Highly-decorated athlete at St. Paul Central High School, he played tailback, wingback and safety for Coach Floyd Smaller and earned honorable-mention All-America honors. Prep All-American in track, all-state pick in basketball. English major. Son of Mary and Buford Sheppard, he has two brothers and two sisters. Born Feb. 28, 1965, at St. Paul.

bench press from 305 to 400 pounds and lowering his 40-yard time from 5.17 seconds to 5.00. Started all but one game (Oklahoma State) for the Huskers in 1984 when the "Black Shirts" led the nation in rushing defense (203.3 yards per game) and scoring defense (9.5 points per game). Led the interior line in tackles that fall with 38 (24 unassisted), including a team-leading quarterback-sack total of seven for 45 yards in losses; shared team lead in total tackles for loss with 12 for 65 yards. His top tackle game for that season and his career was 11 at Syracuse. Football News named him to its sophomore All-America second team. Sought-after recruit out of Bishop Miege High School in Kansas City in 1982, he started at left defensive tackle for that fall's 5-0 Husker freshman team, then redshirted in 1983. All-conference, all-metro and all-state as a defensive lineman for Coach Bob Tavanaro at Miege, where he lettered once each in football and basketball. Speech communications major. Son of Robert and Carol Spachman. Born Dec. 25, 1963, at Kansas City, Mo.

DOUG GLASER, Offensive Lineman, 6-7, 290, Mesquite, Texas: One of Nebraska's biggest recruits ever, Glaser has potential to be a fine offensive lineman. Glaser has been timed at 5.4 seconds in the 40-yard dash, very good for someone his age and size. Glaser (pronounced GLAY-zer) was all-city and all-district for Coach Rusty Talbot at Mesquite, and was named to the Dallas Morning News all-star team and to the all-metro Dallas team by the Dallas Times-Herald. Son of William and Susan Glaser. Born May 24, 1968, at Dallas, Texas.

MORGAN GREGORY, Split End, 6-0, 180, Denver, Colo. (Manual): Gregory garnered first-team all-state and all-conference honors both offensively and defensively as a senior in the Denver Public League. As a wide receiver, Gregory caught 29 passes for 950 yards and 13 TD's last year, including six for 199 yards in his final game. Also earned all-conference honors last year in basketball at the guard position and was offered a basketball scholarship by New Mexico. For the past two years, he has played on the area all-star basketball team and was one of seven chosen to play on the Joint Effort All-Star team. He is the son of Ben Gregory, who rushed for 1,062 yards as a Husker halfback in 1965-66-67 and later played for the Buffalo Bills. The Gregorys are cousins of both NU receivers coach Gene Huey and former Husker basketball star Stuart Lantz (1966-67-68), who went on to have a successful career in the NBA. Academically, Gregory has a 3.2 cumulative GPA. He is the son of Ben and Bonnie Gregory and was born in Lincoln on April 8, 1968.

KURT HASLEY, Defensive Lineman, 6-3, 240, De Witt, Neb. (Tri-County): Hasley recorded an even 300 tackles in his last three years at Tri-County High School as he led Coach Dan Tesar's teams to three-straight Class C-1 playoff berths, including a 9-1 mark in 1985. A two-time all-conference and Class C-1 all-state choice, he was named to the all-class, all-state teams by both the Lincoln Journal & Star and the Omaha World-Herald. As a junior, he was named the Class C-1 defensive player-of-the-year by the Journal–Star. Also an outstanding wrestler, he placed fourth at heavyweight in the 1985 Class C state tournament, then won the title in 1986. Also throws the discus in track. Son of William and Priscilla Hasley. Born Sept. 6, 1967, at National City, Calif.

ROBERT HICKS, Cornerback, 5-11, 165, Los Angeles, Calif. (Fremont): Hicks earned first-team all-central city and second-team all-league honors as a tailback, fullback and defensive back at Fremont High School in Los Angeles. He was voted as the most valuable offensive player on the team as a senior. Last year, Hicks recorded 45 tackles, 25 solo, and intercepted three passes. Offensively, he carried the ball 90 times for 460 yards, scoring six touchdowns and caught 11 passes for 175 yards and two touchdowns. Hicks also returned one kickoff 83 yards for a TD. He played basketball and lettered in baseball and track. He was a member of the school's 440-yard relay team and runs the 40 yard dash in 4.4. The son of Robert Sr. and Jerrilean Hicks, Robert was born on March 22, 1968, in Los Angeles, Calif.

KARL HROZA, Defensive Back, 5-11, 175, Columbus, Neb., (Scotus): Hroza owns the Columbus Scotus school record for the most career interceptions with 16. As a defensive back his senior year, he had 40 solo tackles and 55 total, with three quarterback sacks, two fumble recoveries and two interceptions. Hroza (pronounced h'ROZ-ah) was also the quarterback his senior year and gained 527 yards rushing on 100 attempts and completed 31 of 73 passes for 544 yards, including seven TD's. He was the leading scorer for Coach Jim Puetz's Scotus team with 95 points. As a place-kicker his senior year, he connected on 20 of 28 PAT's and made the one field goal he attempted (30 yards). Hroza returned 26 punts in 1985 for a total of 465 yards, an 18-yard average, and returned three for touchdowns. He garnered first-team all-state and first-team all-conference honors (Nebraska Centennial) his junior and senior years. Hroza helped lead his team to a 23-1 record in two years, a state championship his junior year and a runner-up finish his senior year. He was selected as the team's MVP his senior year and also served as team tri-captain. Hroza started at guard in basketball the last two years, and in track, was a two-time Class B triple jump champion. An honor roll student, Hroza was born in Yankton, S.D., on Oct. 18, 1967. He is the son of Lee and Shirley Hroza.

SHANE LAIR, I-back/Defensive End, 6-1, 210, Lincoln, Neb.: As a senior at Lincoln High School, Robert (Shane) Lair performed as both an I-back and a defensive end. As an I-back, Lair carried the ball 55 times for 430 yards, a 7.8 average per carry. He scored nine touchdowns and one PAT for 56 total points. At the defensive end position, Lair recorded 63 tackles, 23 unassisted and 13 for losses. He also blocked one punt for a touchdown. Lair earned all-conference, first-team super state honors as well as Class A first-team honors. He was named by both the Lincoln Journal–Star and by the Omaha World-Herald as the defensive player-of-the-year in Nebraska. Lair also lettered in wrestling and was the state champion as a junior and placed third as a senior at 185 pounds. The son of Jeanne Pool, Shane was born in Lincoln, Sept. 4, 1967.

JEFF MILLER, Quarterback, 6-2, 210, Houston, Texas (Cy-Fair): Miller quarterbacked Coach Warren Trahan's Cy-Fair teams to a 20-4 record the last two years. He threw for 1,600 yards in 14 games as a senior, completed 90 of 171 passes and connected for 15 TD's. Miller also scored five touchdowns rushing, earning 400 yards on 92 carries. He earned first-team all-greater Houston honors, was named by a Houston newspaper as one of the top 100 high school football players in the area. Also earned second-team all-district as a junior and senior. Miller won the shot put in the Class 5A district track meet and as a freshman was the national decathlon champion for his age group. He is the son of Ed and Marilyn Miller.

JEFF MILLS, Defensive End, 6-4, 215, Montclair, N.J.: As a defensive end at Montclair High School, Mills earned first-team all-state, all-conference and all-city honors as a senior. He was named to the U.S. Army Reserve Junior All-Star Football Squad in the Maryland-Pennsylvania region. As a senior, Mills recorded 86 tackles, 52 of them solo. He broke up four passes, recorded 14 QB sacks, recovered three fumbles and blocked three punts. Saw limited time at the tight end position and had five receptions. He runs a 4.6 in the 40 and also participated in basketball and track. Mills was the team captain his senior year and helped lead Montclair to a 10-1 record and to the state playoffs. The son of Cynthia Mills, Jeff was born on Oct. 8, 1968.

TOM PUNT, Defensive Lineman, 6-8, 245, Sioux Center, Iowa: A three-year letterwinner under Coach Jim Johnson at Sioux Center High School, Punt was a unanimous all-conference pick at defensive tackle as a junior and a unanimous all-conference choice at offensive tackle as a senior. First-team All-Northwest Iowa and second-team all-state in Class 2A (the middle of Iowa's three classes), he was invited to play in the Iowa Shrine All-Star Game at Cedar Falls in August. Played both ways all three years. Team's leading tackler as a senior with 113 total tackles, including 60 unassisted and seven sacks. Had 207 career tackles. Threw the shot put for the Sioux Center track team. Son of Paul and Sharon Punt. Born Sept. 3, 1968, at Vermillion, S.D.

DARWIN SNYDER, Wingback/Defensive Back, 5-8, 170, Winnebago, Neb.: Earned all-conference honors seven times; three years as a defensive back, as an end his freshman year, as a quarterback his sophomore year and as a running back his junior and senior years. Earned Class D-1 all-state first-team honors his junior and senior year and made the all-class, all-state team his senior year, the first time any running back from an eight-man team has earned the honor. As a running back, Snyder earned 2,217 yards on 186 carries his senior year and recorded 28 touchdowns rushing. In his three-year career, he gained over 5,000 yards rushing and tallied 95 touchdowns. He helped lead the Winnebago Indians to the state playoffs the last three years as the team posted a 25-5 record. He was selected to play in the Nebraska Shrine Bowl game and in the Nebraska eight-man all-star game in Hastings on June 20.He was his class salutatorian. The son of Lawrence and Linda Snyder, Darwin was born on Oct. 28, 1966, in Winnebago, Neb.

PAT TYRANCE, Tight End, 6-1, 220, Omaha, Neb. (Millard North): A recruiting "sleeper," Tyrance (pronounced ty-RANSE) was short on prep honors, but is long on potential. He was all-conference, second-team all-metro Omaha and honorable mention all-state for Coach Fred Petito at Millard North. Tyrance recorded 117 total tackles, 38 unassisted, as he helped the Mustangs into the state playoffs in 1985. He also had two fumble recoveries, two forced fumbles and two pass breakups, plus a 14-yard kickoff return and eight pass receptions for 140 yards and a touchdown at tight end. Son of Patrick and Geraldine Tyrance, he was born July 30, 1968, at Baltimore, Md.

KENNY WALKER, Defensive End, 6-4, 215, Crane, Texas: As a defensive end his senior year, Walker averaged 12 tackles per game, had four quarterback sacks and one interception for Coach Rickey White's team. As a split end, he caught eight passes for 130 yards and scored four touchdowns. He rushed 19 times for 99 yards and threw one pass completion for 54 yards. He also kicked one PAT and scored a total of 26 points. As a senior, Walker earned first-team all-state, all-district, All-West Texas, All-Super West Texas and All-South Plains honors. He was ranked by the Dallas Morning News as one of the top 20 high school football players in 1985, and was also listed as one of the top 95 in the nation. Walter, who is deaf, helped lead his team to a district championship and to the Class 3A state playoffs with an 8-2-1 record in 1985. As a junior, Walker averaged 10 tackles per game and earned first-team all-district, all-West Texas honors in football, and all-district, all-state honors in basketball as a center. He was also a regional qualifier in the long jump (23-0) and the 200-meter dash (22.1). He has a 42-inch vertical jump. Son of Julia Walker. Born April 6, 1967, at Crane.

RICK WENDLAND, Defensive Back, 6-1, 185, Topeka, Kan. (Washburn Rural): An all-class, all-state selection as a senior, Wendland helped lead Coach Ron Bowen's team to a 10-2 record and the Kansas state championship in the second of the Sunflower State's six classes (5A). He was all-city and all-conference on both offense and defense. His school didn't keep individual defensive stats, but, as a team, Washburn Rural led the city of Topeka in total defense, giving up just 100.8 yards per game on the ground and 65.6 per game in the air. As a wide receiver, he caught 17 passes for 294 yards and scored nine touchdowns. The son of Richard and Kay Wendland, he was born Sept. 27, 1968, at Topeka, Kan.

JAKE YOUNG, Offensive Lineman, 6-5, 240, Midland, Texas (Robert E. Lee): An all-district and first-team all-state offensive guard, Young helped lead Coach Jack Tayrien's Midland Lee team to a 10-3 record and the quarterfinals of the 1985 Texas Class 5A (largest class) state playoffs. Midland Lee also produced former Husker All-America tight end Junior Miller. Young is the son of Jake and Barbara Young and was born March 22, 1968, at El Paso, Texas.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL HISTORY

Husker Heisman Winners

RODGERS, ROZIER NU HEISMAN WINNERS

MIKE ROZIER

JOHNNY RODGERS

Nebraska two-time All-America running back Mike Rozier out-distanced Brigham Young quarterback Steve Young in the 1983 Heisman Trophy race, becoming the second Cornhusker to win the coveted honor.

All-America wingback Johnny Rodgers won the 38th annual Heisman award in 1972, defeating Oklahoma's Greg Pruitt and Husker teammate Rich Glover.

The Heisman Trophy has been presented by the New York Downtown Athletic Club each year since 1935 when Jay Berwanger of the University of Chicago won the inaugural award to the outstanding college football player in the United States as selected by over 1,000 sportswriters and sportscasters across the nation.

With Rozier winning the Heisman and Dean Steinkuhler sweeping the Lombardi and Outland lineman awards, Nebraska gains a unique distinction in college football. It is the only school to ever sweep all three major honors, and the Cornhuskers have done it twice—1972 with Rodgers and Rich Glover and in 1983 with Rozier and Steinkuhler.

By the way, the 1-3 finish of Rodgers and Glover in the 1972 Heisman voting was the best teammate finish since Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard of Army went 2-3 in 1944, then 1-2 in 1945 and 1-4 in 1946.

Five Outlands, Three Lombardis

HUSKERS HAVE WON THE MOST OUTLANDS AND LOMBARDIS

Larry Jacobson

Rich Glover

Dave Rimington

Dean Steinkuhler

Nebraska players have won more Outlands (five) and more Lombardis (three) than those of any other school. Huskers' closest competition comes from Oklahoma, with four Outland and two Lombardi winners; and Notre Dame, Ohio State and Texas, with two Lombardi winners each.

All-America offensive guard Dean Steinkuhler swept national honors in 1983, winning both the Outland Award and the Lombardi Trophy.

In winning the Outland, presented annually by the Football Writers Association of America, Steinkuhler brought Nebraska the distinction of being the only school ever to win the prestigious award three consecutive years. And in winning the Lombardi he assured Nebraska the honor of being the first school ever to win back-to-back Lombardi Trophies, presented annually by the Rotary Club of Houston.

Dave Rimington won the Outland in 1981 and 1982 and the Lombardi in 1982.

Larry Jacobson was Nebraska's first Outland winner, gaining the honor with the 1971 national championship team. Rich Glover won it in 1972, and also won the Lombardi that year, giving Nebraska the first back-to-back Outland sweep, a fete that would be accomplished again a decade later by Rimington, then Rimington and Steinkuhler.

NEBRASKA LIFTERS-OF-THE-YEAR

CHRIS SPACHMAN

DANNY NOONAN

For only the third time in the 13-year history of the award, there were co-lifters-of-the-year on the Husker football team in 1986. Voting by team members was so close last April that defensive tackle Chris Spachman and middle guard Danny Noonan shared the honor. The only other times that has happened were in 1977 and 1979.

CHAMBERLIN TROPHY TO JIM SKOW

Jim Skow of Omaha was the recipient of the 19th annual Guy Chamberlin Trophy, presented last spring at the Huskers' Spring Game.

The award, inaugurated in 1967 in memory of the former great Nebraska All American football player who went to both the college and pro halls of fame, is presented to the senior player who has shown by the play and contributions to the betterment of the University of Nebraska football squad that he has the qualities and dedication of Guy Chamberlin to the great Cornhusker tradition.

Lincoln Radio Station KFOR donated the permanent trophy and each recipient will receive a replica through funds contributed by the Chamberlin family and the Champ's many friends following his death in 1967. The Chamberlin Memorial Fund is administered by the University of Nebraska Foundation.

Past winners of the Chamberlin trophy: Marv Mueller, 1967; Ernie Sigler, 1968; Dana Stephenson, 1969; Guy Ingles, 1970; Jeff Kinney, 1971; Rich Glover, 1972; Maury Damkroger, 1973; Ritch Bahe, 1974; Bob Martin, 1975; Clete Pillen, 1976; Ed Burns, 1977; Rick Berns, 1978; Tim Smith, 1979; Jarvis Redwine, 1980; Anthony Steels, 1981; Dave Rimington, 1982; Dean Steinkuhler, 1983; and Shane Swanson, 1984.

Members of the board of election are: Press—Wally Provost, sports columnist of the World-Herald; Radio—Kent Pavelka, play-by-play announcer for KFAB Radio in Omaha and the Nebraska Radio Network; Television—Dave Webber, sports director of WOWT in Omaha; Alumni N Club President—Don Strasheim; Athletic Department—Don Bryant, Sports Information Director and Assistant Athletic Director.

Regent Simmons Former Husker Track Standout

University of Nebraska Regent Robert G. Simmons, Jr., of Scottsbluff is a former Cornhusker track star who won six championships during his career.

Simmons, son of long time Chief Justice of the Nebraska Supreme Court and father of John Simmons, who lettered three years for Coach Frank Sevigne in the 1960s, was a standout Big Six quartermiler. He won the indoor 440 in 1938 (:51.8) and 1939 (:50.4) and won the outdoor title three straight years—1937 (:49.1), 1938 (:48.8) and 1939 (:47.8). Bob also won the 220-yard low hurdles (:24.0) in 1939 for a tough double.

NCAA President Represented NU

NCAA President John R. Davis of Oregon State University has old University of Nebraska ties. Davis was on the NU faculty from 1964 to 1971, serving as Dean of the College of Engineering and Architecture his last six years on campus, and as the Huskers' Faculty Representative to the Big Eight Conference from 1969 to 1971. Davis, who has been at Oregon State since leaving Lincoln, has served as NCAA President since January 1985 and his two-year term is scheduled to end in January 1987.

SIX HUSKER JERSEYS RETIRED

When I-back Mike Rozier won the 1983 Heisman Trophy while guard Dean Steinkuhler was claiming the Outland/Lombardi Trophy double, the two added their jersey numbers—30 and 71, respectively—to a list of four that had been retired earlier.

The Nebraska trophy case has thus added Nos. 30 and 71 to the No. 60 worn by Tom Novak, the No. 20 worn by Johnny Rodgers the No. 79 worn by Rich Glover, and the No. 50 worn by Dave Rimington. Novak's jersey was retired following the 1949 season on a vote of the N Club after "Train Wreck" had been a four-time All-Big Seven choice as either a fullback or center and a 1949 All-American. Rodgers' and Glover's jerseys were retired following the 1972 season after Rodgers had won the Heisman and Glover had become the first of three Huskers to win both the Outland and Lombardi Trophies. Rimington's jersey was retired after the All-America center had won two Outland Trophies and the 1982 Lombardi.

NFL Drafts Four Huskers

RATHMAN, SKOW TABBED IN 3RD ROUND

Fullback Tom Rathman and defensive end Jim Skow were the first Nebraska players taken in the April 29, 1986, National Football League draft. Rathman was the first choice in the third of the draft's 12 rounds, going to San Francisco. Skow, who played defensive tackle for the Huskers, followed two choices later in the same round when he was tabbed by Cincinnati. Rathman goes to a team whose starting fullback is former Husker standout Roger Craig.

In the seventh round, the Seattle Seahawks chose running back Paul Miles and the Los Angeles Raiders took center Bill Lewis. Seattle's choice of Miles marked the eighth-straight year that at least one Husker running back was drafted.

NEBRASKA HALL OF FAME CHAPTER IS ROLLING IN HIGH GEAR

The Nebraska Football Hall of Fame Chapter, which is affiliated with the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, is one of the most active in the nation.

Officers of the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame are H. W. Monsky of Omaha, president; Dean G. Kratz of Omaha, vice president; Bob Billings, treasurer; Don Bryant of Lincoln, secretary; Richard Huber of Grand Island and Irving Veitzer of Omaha, membership chairmen; and Jack Payne, public relations.

Chapter members are also affiliated with the National Hall of Fame and receive newsletters, as well as ballots to vote for Nebraska Chapter and National Hall of Fame candidates.

Anyone wishing to join the Nebraska Chapter and the National Football Hall of Fame may do so by contacting Don Bryant, 103 South Stadium (472-5959), University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Neb. 68588.

Rose Bowl Trio, Three Other Huskers Join Kropp In Nebraska Football Hall

Three members of the 1940 Nebraska Rose Bowl team were elected to the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame for 1986—end Ray Prochaska, halfback Walter (Butch) Luther and fullback Vike Francis.

Nebraska players from an earlier era named to the Husker Hall were George Koster and Hugh Rhea, both from the 1929-31 era. Also gaining entrance this year is Tony Jeter, All-America end for Bob Devaney's 1963-65 teams.

Tom Kropp, one of the state's all-time great athletes, enters the Nebraska Hall from Kearney State. He starred for the Antelopes from 1972 through 1975, then launched a pro basketball career.

Lloyd Cardwell becomes the first to win election to the Nebraska Hall of Fame as a player and a coach. Cardie entered as a player in 1972 and this year as a coach. He posted a 57-53-2 record at Omaha University from 1947 to 1959 and his 1954 team posted a 10-0 record, including a 7-6 win over Eastern Kentucky in the Tangerine Bowl.

Other honorees for 1986, who will be honored at halftime of the Oregon game on September 27, are Joseph Carroll of Lincoln, the Clarence Swanson Award; and Dr. Paul Goetowski, the Special Merit Award.

Prochaska, Luther and Francis played three years for the Cornhuskers under Coach Biff Jones and capped their careers with a Big Six championship in 1940, and a trip to the Rose Bowl. Luther, who was killed at Anzio in World War II, and Francis will be honored posthumously. Prochaska has had a long career in professional football coaching after serving on Coach Bill Glassford's staff at Nebraska in the early 1950s.

NEBRASKA LETTERMEN, 1892-1985

NOTE: The following list is as complete and accurate as we have been able to make it. Corrections and additions will and can be made if documentation is provided. In each entry, the year is listed for each letter won. For example in the listing for Willard Burnham, the years are 1924-26, meaning Burnham lettered in 1924 and 1926, but not in 1925. Letterman lists are not available for the 1890, 1891 and 1895 seasons.

ELMER DOHRMANN TOP NU LETTERMAN

Elmer Dohrmann, named to Sports Illustrated's 1962 Silver All-America team, is Nebraska's all-time letter champion. Dohrmann won 11 letters during his NU career which spanned 1936-39. He won monograms in football, basketball, track and baseball in his sophomore and junior years and added football, baseball and basketball letters his senior year before passing up track.

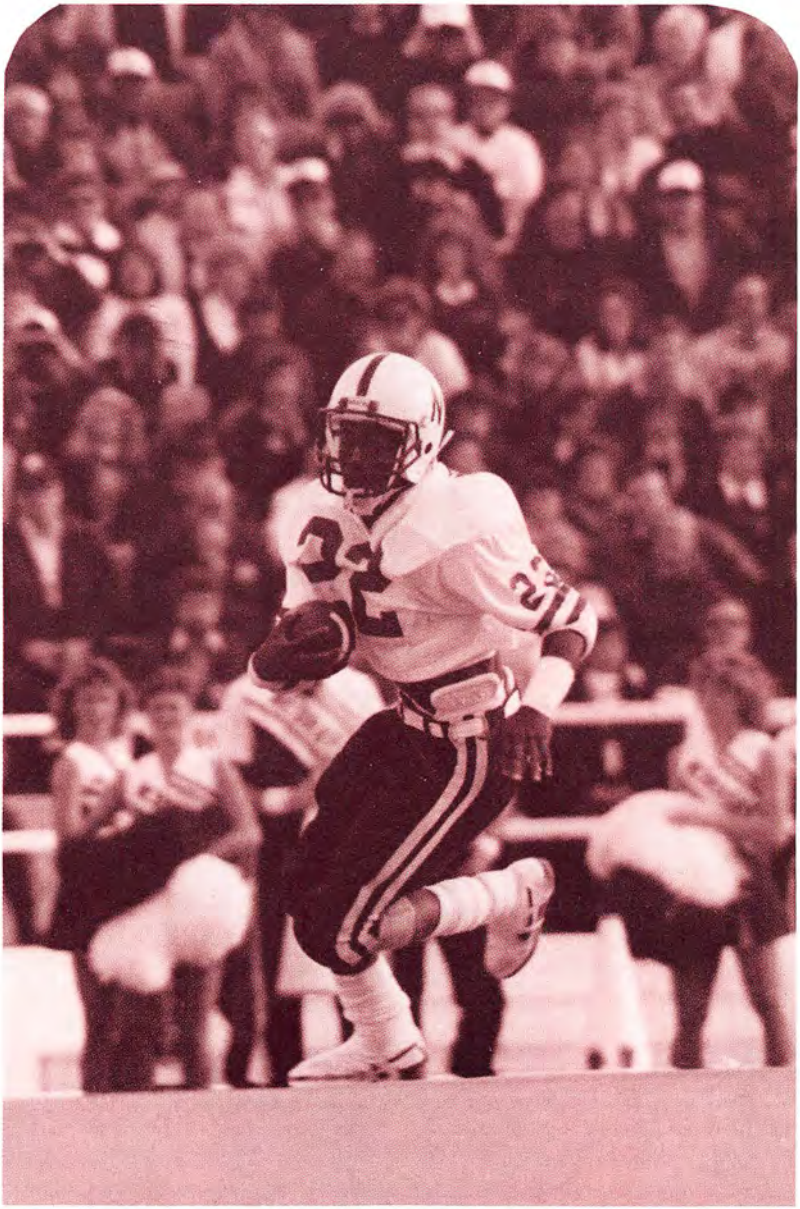

ELMER DOHRMANN

Multiple letter leaders:

Bob Russell	(1919-23)—9	letters
Steve Hokuf	(1929-33)—9	letters
Willard White	(1927-30)—8	letters
Paul Amen	(1935-38)—8	letters
Bob Cerv	(1946-50)—8	letters
Tom Novak	(1946-50)—7	letters
Mike DiBiase	(1946-50)—7	letters
Chuck Malito	(1972-76)—7	letters
Lee Kunz	(1975-80)—7	letters
Steve Elliott	(1978-82)—7	letters

Those Cornhuskers who have gained six letters during their careers since Dohrmann set the pace include: Lloyd Cardwell, Bob Mills, Ray Prochaska, Vic Schlelch, Ken Hollins, Herb Reese, Bob Reynolds, Charles Bryant, Bill Hawkins, and Adrian Fiala.

Top letter-winner at Nebraska since WW II is Cerv, who lettered four years in basketball and baseball. The last Husker to match Amen by lettering in three sports during a single year was Hollins. "Buzz" tripled in football, basketball and track during the 1943-44 and 1944-45 campaigns. The latest addition is Steve Elliott, who lettered four times in gymnastics and three times in swimming as a diver.

Nebraska's NCAA Sellout Record Hits 143 Consecutive Games

Nebraska's continuing record of consecutive sell-out crowds is assured of climbing to 149 games in 1986, with all six home games long-since hung with the "Sold Out" sign.

In 1985, the NCAA record rose to 143, with the capacity crowd string dating back to 1962.

The Cornhuskers' Memorial Stadium has a seating capacity of 73,650 and attendance has averaged over 75,000 for the past 14 years. Nebraska has ranked in the top six, nationally, in attendance for many years.

As part of the continuing improvement of athletic facilities at the University of Nebraska, two major projects have been completed in 1984 and 1985. A new artificial turf—All-Pro Turf—was installed in 1984 and a new million-dollar training table-study hall area was opened in March of 1985, underneath the West Stadium adjacent to the massive new strength complex.

Here is the chronological order of Memorial Stadium expansion and improvement from the original 31,000-seat structure, which was built in 1923:

1946—Completion of Schulte Field House at north end of stadium (construction began in 1941, but was interrupted by World War II).

1964—South end zone section installed, making the stadium a horseshoe, raising capacity to the 48,000 mark.

1965—Center portion of north end-zone section added, raising capacity to more than 53,000.

1966—Both wings of the north end-zone added, raising capacity to more than 65,000 and making Memorial Stadium into a bowl.

1967—New press box, with guest section added, providing a beautiful and practical press facility.

1970—Installation of AstroTurf.

1972—South end zone extended. 9,400 seats added, raising capacity to 73,650.

1973—Athletic office building completed, housing, dressing and training facilities for varsity football.

1977—Installation of new AstroTurf replacing the 1970 turf, and a new scoreboard over the north stadium.

1980—Completed top deck of press box for additional photo and visiting radio-TV space.

1981—New west stadium weight room and new visitor's locker room in Schulte Field House.

1982—Expansion of Schulte Field House indoor practice area.

1984—New artificial All-Pro Turf playing-surface installed.

1985—Completion of dining area/study hall in West Stadium.

Memorial Stadium Trivia Facts

—Every time Nebraska plays football at home, Memorial Stadium becomes the third largest population area in the State of Nebraska (behind Omaha and Lincoln.)

—When the Huskers play at Memorial Stadium, six percent of the state's population gathers to watch.

—Nebraska's Press Box cost more than $500,000 in 1967, but no tax funds were used. Husker Award members pledged additional funds (above scholarship contributions) to help provide the structure, which includes 316 theater seats in the enclosed Section 300 donor area.

—The Nebraska Press Box fund was also aided by donors in Section 200, located underneath the structure in the West Balcony area of the old press box.

—There are three levels in the Nebraska Press Box: Level 1—Writers, radio, scoreboard, dining, statistics and public address. Level 2—Section 300, photo areas, Chancellor's Box, Snack Bar. Level 3—Television, photo, radio booths, security.

HUSKER FACT

Nebraska has led the Big Eight in total offense each of the last nine years, totaling 48,268 yards in 101 regular-season games during the string for a 477.9 average.

CORNHUSKER LEGEND

Prior to 1900, Nebraska football teams were known by such names as the Old Gold Knights, Antelopes and the Bugeaters.

But in 1900, Lincoln sportswriter Charles S. (Cy) Sherman, who was to gain national renown as the sports editor of the Lincoln Star—he also helped originate the Associated Press ranking poll—tired of referring to the Nebraska teams in such an unglamorous term as Bugeaters.

Iowa had from time to time been called the Cornhuskers, and the name appealed to Cy. Iowa partisans seemed to prefer Hawkeyes, so Cy started referring to the Nebraska team as Cornhuskers and the 1900 team was first to bear that label.

Of course, the name caught on and became a Nebraska by-word.

There is no official symbol of a Cornhusker and various cartoonists have caricatured the mystical something that typifies Nebraska football—some winning fan approval and others arousing fan ire.

At the present time, the University of Nebraska Athletic Department uses two distinctly different cartoon characters as promotional symbols. One is a caricature of the famed Nebraska fan as drawn by Bill Goggins. It first appeared in the NEBRASKA FARMER, and that publication gave permission for the Athletic Department to use the red-attired fan as a symbol.

The newest cartoon character, "Herby Husker," evolved out of Nebraska's trip to the Cotton Bowl in 1974. Artist Dirk West of Lubbock, Texas, designed a Cornhusker cartoon for the Cotton Bowl press headquarters that caught the eye of Husker SID Don Bryant. Later, Bryant contacted West for permission to use the cartoon and West expressed a desire to refine his original cartoon and improve some of the character's features. As a result, West was commissioned to draw an original Cornhusker cartoon character who now serves as a mascot for all Husker men's teams. "Herby" is the registered logo of the Cornhusker Athletic Department, which controls its use.

Artist West's concept of Nebraska football is appropriate—a burly, rugged and confident fellow who is proud of both the athletic and the agricultural traditions of the University of Nebraska.

SPORTSWRITERS COVERING NEBRASKA FOOTBALL

Covering all Nebraska games home and away are the Omaha World-Herald and the Lincoln Journal-Star. Omaha World-Herald sports editor Michael Kelly oversees a staff that includes Steve Sinclair and Lee Barfknecht. The Lincoln Journal-Star contingent includes executive sports editor Dave Wohlfarth, Ken Hambleton and Mike Babcock.

HUSKERS ON TV

Nebraska television sports directors staffing Husker games at home and on the road are Dick Janda, KOLN-TV-Lincoln; Terry Yeager, KMTV-Omaha; John Knicely, KETV-Omaha; Dave Webber, WOWT-Omaha; Ray Gearhart, NTV-Kearney; and Russ Batenhorst, KHAS-TV-Hastings.

HAMPTON, PASKACH HEAD LINCOLN, OMAHA PHOTO CREWS

All Nebraska football games, home and away, are covered pictorially by the Lincoln Sunday Journal and Star and the Omaha World-Herald.

Randy Hampton heads the Lincoln crew that includes Harald Dreimanis, Gail Folda, Ted Kirk, Robert Becker, David Falhson and Dan Dulaney.

The Omaha World-Herald crew, headed by Bob Paskach, includes Richard Janda, Rudy Smith, Jim Burnett, Phil Johnson, Mel Evans, Chris Young and Bill Batson.

Jim Dunlap is head of the University of Nebraska Photo Productions and the game crew that includes moviemen Floyd Sorley—father of former NU quarterback Tom Sorley—and Joe Hamlin, and still photographers Richard Voges and Tom Slocum. NU Photo Phone: 402-472-2666.

Husker Football Network Enters Fourth Season

The Nebraska Football Network will be in its fourth year of operation in 1986 and is expected to feed some 43 stations in Nebraska and eight other states.

Kent Pavelka will be back for his third year as the "Voice of the Huskers." Pavelka, sports director and operations manager at network flagship station KFAB in Omaha, has called Husker basketball play-by-play for KFAB and the Nebraska Basketball Network for the last 12 seasons.

Pavelka's color man will be Gary Sadlemeyer of KFAB. Another KFAB veteran, Jack Payne, will continue to help out in the broadcast booth, while Larry Moehlenbrink of Lincoln's KFOR will provide sideline reports. Sadlemeyer will also team with NU assistant athletic director and sports information director Don Bryant on the post-game locker room show.

The 43 stations on the network include 31 in Nebraska and 12 from out-of-state, including three in South Dakota, two each in California and Texas, one each in Arizona, Colorado, Iowa, New Mexico and Wyoming. The network stations:

NEE REGIME STARTS IN '86-87

A new era in Nebraska basketball begins this season as Danny Nee takes over the Husker cage program afer six highly-successful years as the head man at Ohio University. Nee, who was 107-67 in his tenure with the Bobcats, inherits seven lettermen and two starters from a 1985-86 team that finished 19-11 overall and made the school's first "official" appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

Guard Brian Carr and forward Bernard Day are the two returning starters, and Nee hopes to build his first Nebraska team around them, plus some other key returnees. None of those seven returning lettermen approach the seven-foot mark, however, and the new Husker coach will have to restructure a team that was built the last four years around Atlanta Hawks rookie Dave Hoppen—a 6-11, three-time All-Big Eight center who finished his Nebraska career last year with a school-record 2,167 points.
